Donaldson Cadets Blank High School

OCALS HELPLESS BEFORE OFFER-FERINGS OF LUKE FRENCH-JAMES HELD UNTIL THE SIXTH INNING.

In a fast and interesting nine innings of the national pastime the Donaldson cadets from Fayetteville blanked the local high school team yesterday afternoon at Robert Strange playgrounds the final county being 5 to 0. Luke French, a local boy, now sojourning at the Fayetteville school, was on the mound for the visitors, and tore to shreds the ancient adage that a "prophet is not," etc. The high school was able to glean but four hits off his delivery and no two o fthem were obtained in the same inning.

The entire game conlsumed but a scant hour and a half. The first six frames rocked along without issue on Won. Lost. Pct. either side, the pitchers being about evenly matched. James, who did the flinging for the highs, weakened and a collection of singles ,doubles and errors encompassed his undoing. The final inning witnessed his complete discomfiture, the cadets amassing three runs. The highs had not a chance Pittsburgh, May 10 .- Defeat came to to score in any inning. French struck

SERIOUS CHARGES MADE AGAINST GUTSON BORGLUM

With the Mix statement there was filed today a copy of a formal statement accusing Borglum, made to the military intelligence section of the army general staff late in January by Henry Harrison Suplee, Mix's consulting engineer, and who participated in many of the conferences on the subject of proposed corporation, which Borglum nd and Gibson described by his chief. The letter said he became suspicious when he visited Borglum in Washington during January and was shown President Wilson's letter authorizing the investigation by the sculptor and decided then to report the whole matter to government

German Influence Possible. There are intimations that a great deal of information bearing on Borglum's activities and motives has been assembled by the army intelligence service. There is an unconfirmed reoprt in official circles that evidence of German influences in some form will be brought to light when the full story is revealed.
