IF I SHOULD DIE

If I should die in Flanders field, If I should die in France, Oh, take me out and bury me Beneath some friendly poplar-tree (Those poplar-trees of France!) Oh, keep me near, where I can hear Those roaring guns of France.

If I should lie in Flanders field Beneath the sod of France, There let me stay til victory Is come, and all the world is free (God grant this boon to France!) Oh, let me stay to see the day That freedom comes to France.

Then take me far from Flanders field When freedom comes to France; Return me to the very land I love the best, my Maryland (It's sweeter far than France!) Oh, . ring me home to Maryland And say: "He died for France." -ROBERT GARLAND, In "Life"

> Fined For Hoarding Cheese. London, May 17 .- Milk products are in great demand in England. Delivery of Mrs. Eileen Johnston, wife of Majo Campbell Johnston, attracted so much attention among the neighbors in Brentwood, a London suburb, that a food inspector investigated and Mrs. Johnston was taken to court and fined

> Mrs. Johnston said the cheese had been sent her by a Dorsetshire friend and that it was much larger than she had anticipated. The cheese had been cut and distributed among Mrs. Johnston's friends, but as the inspector found forty-six pounds of sugar and twenty-three pounds of macaroni in the house Mrs. Johnston was fined on that account.
