Three airplanes were seen at different points early yesterday morning, traveling about a thousand feet up, it was judged, and moving around 80 miles an hour, going south. Various reports of airplanes passing over the city have been made during past months but always it was doubtful if any planes had passed, but yesterday there was no doubt about it. Of course, nothing could be learned as to what the trio of planes signified, but it might be supposed that they are connected with the coast patrol. A Tar Heel aviator, living at Weldon, flew home Sunday for dinner from an aviation field in Virginia.

Patriotic Americans Are Doing Their Christmas Shopping Now

The Council for National Defense requests the public to do their Christmas shopping during the months of October, November and December and restricts the merchants to

- Sell only useful Gift Things; -Not to employ extra help for Christmas; -Not to keep open evenings for Christmas.

This is done to eliminate waste of labor, fuel and electricity, as well as to discourage giving of useless articles.

We ask your co-operation in fulfilling the Council's request. To wait until the eleventh hour this year will mean the defeat of our government's fuel and labor saving schemes. Intelligent women, who are able to plan ahead are beginning their Christmas shopping.

This store suggests useful presents to be purchased now. We are working in full accord with the wishes of the government and practically all of our Christmas stock has been rushed in a month sooner than customary.

HORSE MEAT SO VALUABLE

THEFT IS BIG BUSINESS

Zurich, Oct. 22.—Horse-stealing in Vienna has increased to such an extent that several firms have been forced to give up business. A good wagon team is now worth from $5,000 to $6,250. Some firms have lost as many as a dozen horses, as well as wagons, and thefts continue daily in the streets. The stolen horses are usually sold to slaughter houses.

A recent order forbids the publication of market prices of horses for slaughter, but the last reports priced them at $1,000 to $1,500 each.

GERMAN PRISONERS WELCOME THEIR COMRADES TO CAGES

Behind British Lines in France, Sept. 20.—(Correspondence)—When the British were bringing back hundreds and thousands of prisoners in the last advance to the Hindenburg line often times batches of prisoners already in the cages would laughingly welcome a new contingent. One cage was situated in a ravine and the Germans could see more prisoners coming over the brows of the hills. As crowds of them came in sight cheers would go up from the prisoners' cage and as the men arrived at the enclosure they would be greeted with handshakes and smiles.

FRENCH GIRLS CARRIED OFF BY THE GERMANS

Deputies From Lille, Back in Parliament After Four Years' Absence, Tell of Crimes.

Paris, Oct. 22.—The chamber of deputies today enthusiastically welcomed Deputies Delory and Ragheboom, of Lille, returning to their seats after four years in the hands of the Germans. Amid an impressive silence, Mr. Delory said:

"It is impossible to denounce all the German crimes, but the most abominable was the carrying off of women and girls of 19 and 16 by enemy soldiers, their enforced submission to medical examination and their being obliged to work under French machine gun fire for the German army."

The chamber shouted its indignation. One member cried: "We'll teach our children that we'll never forget." Then M. Delory resumed:

"The Lens plains are nothing but an immense area of ruins with not one house intact. There can not be a Frenchman who does not wish those culpable chastised."

M. Ragheboom told how German soldiers had insulted and violated Lille women and how they forced 15-year-old children to work for them.

It Is Well to Supply Autumn and Winter Hosiery Needs Now

Our present prices are so low that they represent values not to be duplicated—but price is not the only consideration. Quality in hosiery is even more to be desired, and more difficult to obtain with every re-order, as many mills cannot begin to supply their usual outputs because of inexperienced help and poorer materials with which to work.

Large shipment of Fay Hosiery in black, tan and white.

FLORAL DESIGNS

Out of town orders filled Promptly. Wire or Phone. MRS. LOUISA P. FOWLER, Fifth Avenue Florist.

Phone 1125. "Say it With Flowers."

Laurinburg, N. C., October 11, 1918.

Mr. A. B. Croom, Jr., District Manager the Mutual Life Ins. Co. of N. Y., Wilmington, N. C.:

Dear Sir—I hereby acknowledge receipt of the Mutual Life Insurance Company's check for $2,271.25, in settlement of policy No. 1510970 for $2,000 carried on his own life in the Mutual Life by my husband, the late Richard E. Warwick.

The policy was for $2,000 and had been in force a little more than fourteen years. The additions to the policy on account of premiums paid amounted to $750.00.

There was a loan of $500.00 standing against the policy at the time of Mr. Warwick's death, so that the amount paid by the Company represented the face of the policy, $2,000, additions $750.00, refund of interest on loan $21.25, less the loan of $500.00.

If there had been no loan standing against the policy the actual amount paid by the Company in settlement of this $2,000 policy would have been $2,750, or the face of the policy plus more than 43 per cent. of all premiums paid.

I think the settlement a splendid one, and I thank you for your promptness in the matter.

Yours very truly, (MRS.) JULIA W. WARWICK, Administratrix of Richard E. Warwick.
