STILL RECEIVING APPLICANTS.

Many Have Signed Up For Fremont, Cal., Training School.

Lieut. J. C. Larmondra, examining officer for persons applying for admission to the officers' training camp at Fremont, Cal., which will be opened during the latter part of this month, is still in the city and desirous of receiving further applications. His office is in the council chamber at the city hall and his hours are from 10 to 11 in the morning, 2 to 4 in the afternoon, and 7

There are many advantages to be derived by taking this course and the fleutenant will be glad to explain all about them to any person interested. Already many men from Wilmington, Whiteville, Lumberton, Tabor, Maxton and other adjoining towns have taken advantage of this privilege and are just waiting orders from their local board. Transportation is paid, clothing and board furnished by the government and first class privates' pay is $33. Lieutenant Larmondra can receive applications from any man bbetween the age of 18 and 45, provided he is physically fit and has had a high school education or its equivalent, unless he is in a deferred classification on account of industrial occupation, in-

Dr. Cathell Comes Here.

Dr. J. E. Cathell, a Davidson county physician who was among the volunteer physicians who came here during the epidemic, has decided to come to Wilmington to locate permanently.

First Ice Yesterday.

Ice was reported at Wrightsville Beach yesterday morning for the first time this fall. The motorman on the car that leaves the beach at 5:40 in the morning stated that the trolley wire along the beach track was covered with ice.

Commercial Travelers to Meet. The regular meeting of Cape Fear council No. 374, United Commercial Travelers, will be held in the Odd Fellows' hall tonight at 8 o'clock. In addition to the routine matters to be disposed of there are two candidates who will receive initiation into the order. They are George Gornto and E. Clayton Moore.

Dr. Thomas Travis, of the publicity department of the Emergency Fleet corporation, who has been in the city for the past week, left Thursday for other shipyard cities where he will boost ship construction. Dr. Travis has made several addresses in Wilmington, giving interesting accounts of experiences which he had while performing the duties of Y. M. C. A. secretary near the front, and made many friends while here.

Memorial Services Tomorrow.

Memorial service for Rev. R. P. Walker, late pastor, will be held at Southside church tomorrow morning, conducted by Rev. A. J. Taylor, of Albemarle, and Rev. Mr. Henderson, of this city. Mr. Walker succumbed to influenza during the early stages of the recent epidemic. He was much loved by the entire membership of his church and it is expected that a large congregation will be present Sunday morning for this service, which will be held at 11 o'clock.

Juvenile Docket Yesterday.

There were several cases before Recorder Harriss yesterday morning, but every one was transferred to the juvenile docket and the defendants, small negro boys, were all parolled with relatives or the colored probation officer, James Johnson, except one, who was parolled with Superintendent Dempsey, of the county farm. In all there were seven defendants but the charges in all the cases were trivial except the one against Odis Henderson. who was charged with stealing one of the National Special Aid's jars containing a quantity of pennies. He was parolled with Superintendent Dempsey

The players have practiced consistently during the past thing ready prepared to eat but failed week, and showed good form in both mixups last night.

The first game between teams captained by Gerdes and Montgomery proved unusually interesting. The teams I could talk all day long to this old were well matched, and the game played. Only one foul goal was shot word she said and she would not unthroughout was, fast and cleanly score was 27 to 22 in favor of Gerdes' during the entire game. The final

In the second game, staged by teams under the captaincy of Davis and Myers, was opened brilliantly by Davis' goals during the first few minutes of play. Action became clogged toward the latter part of the first half, however, and interest lagged. The game was not played with the pep shown during the first game, although the line-up on both sides was composed of fresh players. The final score was 48 to 50 in favor of Davis' team. Players showing unusually good form were Register and McCartney on Myers' team; Davis, Smith and Applewhite on Davis' aggregation, and Ellis on Montgomery's line-up, and Littman and Snakenberg on Gerdes' five.

The two games last night indicate that the basket ball season this year at the "Y" will be an unusually good one, and local fans may expect to see some good indoor sport during the winter months.

COURT NEXT WEEK.

November Term Will be Convened Monday by Judge Stacy.

The November term of New Hanover lay morning by Judge W. P. Stacy, and notwithstanding that no session for the trial of criminal cases has been held for several months, there is not a very large docket to be disposed of, and it is possible that it will be cleared before the end o fthe week. The following is a list of the jurors that were drawn at the regular meeting of the commissioners held Monday:
