MONDAY WAS DAY OF JOY FOR PARIS

Late at Night.

American Soldiers Given a Great Reception Everywhere-President Poincaire Thanks Marshal Foch Warmly.

Paris, Monday, Nov. 11.-The population of Paris, freed from the restraint of more than four years, tonight gave itself up to jollification over the signing of the armistice. The boulevards were crowded and until midnight dense throngs marched back and forth singing patriotic and mili-

No special arrangements had been made by the police, nor were any needed. The people everywhere behaved with quiet dignity and there was nothing but good humored enthusiasm.

There were several organized parades of allied troops. In one were American, British, Brazilian, Portuguese, Polish and Czecno-Slovak soldiers, headed by a band from a Scottish regiment. The American soldiers were given a great reception every-

Premier Clemenceau late today remitted all punishments in the army except those which the commanders consider indispensable to discipline, Telegrams from the provinces say there have been joyful demonstrations in all the principal cities.

As soon as the good news became known Paris was be-flagged and cheering throngs began to wander up and down the boulevards. Soldiers and officers on leave were the heroes of the day and everywhere were acclaimed by the crowds.

Several thousands assembled in the Place de la Concorde and made a wiid demonstration in front of the Strassburg and Lille statues.

Marshal Foch was received at the Elysee Palace by President Poincaire who thanked the allied generalissimo warmly. Wherever the marshal appeared he was greeted enthusiastically. All members of the cabinet made formal calls on Premier Clemenceau.

Reports from Marseilles, Lyons, Bordeaux, Havre, Brest and Rouen say that American soldiers are participating in the patriotic celebrations.

DURHAM WESTERN UNION BOYS AID WAR WORK

Twenty-Three Counties Have Reported Quarter Million Dollars Raised-Durham Gives $33,000.

(Special Star Telegram). Durham, Nov. 13 .- The war work campaign is progressing with satisfaction and marked enthusiasm. Twenty-three counties in the state make a report tonight showing $227,200 subscribed from that number. Seventyseven counties are yet to hear from.

The second day's canvas in Durham brings the total up to $33,246 on the $80,000 apportioned this county. The Western Union messenger boys of this their own way, and according to own plans and came across 100 per cent for the boys over there. A prouder bunch of American youths was never seen. Plans Going Right On For Six Brigade Camp-Inspection Made by Officials.

(Special Star Telegram) Fayetteville, Nov. 13 .- Official denial of current reports that orders have been received here reducing Camp PLAN TO CO-OPERATE Bragg from a six-brigade to a twobrigade camp was made at the office of Maj. John K. Thompson, constructing quartermaster this afternoon.

No orders affecting the scope of the construction work had been received, said Capt. W. A. Smith of Major Thompson's staff, though in conformity to the general order from Washington eliminating over time and Sunday eight hour basis. Otherwise the construction wor kis proceeding without change. Captain Smith stated that there dicate that the camp would be abandoned.

The camp was today inspected by Brig.-Gen. R. M. Danford, Brig. Gen. D'Armand; Col. E. P. King of General Snow's office, and Col. Maxwell Murray, who has been appointed commanding officer of the camp to succeed Col. John S. Hammond, who is assigned to over-

Charles J. Brand, chairman of the committee, notified the presidents of said later the committee's decision was yesterday of speculative interests.

Mr. Brand issued the following statement outlining reasons for the prohibition:

"The signing of the armistice brings us suddenly to the threshold of the reconstruction era. Pending developments are of the utmost importance to the entire cotton world. The consequence of unfounded rumors that tend to promote vicious speculative activity and cause unjustified demoralization must be avoided as far as possi-In order that harmful violent price fluctuations may be checked the committee on cotton distribution has ordered all speculative short selling on the New Orleans and New York exchanges stopped and, to make this order thoroughly effective, has required that no selling orders except in liquidation of long contracts be executed from any foreign country. "The stoppage of sinkings by U-boats, the monthly increase in new ship tonnage and the releasing of ships now engaged in supplying the fleets of the allies together with the freeing of space previously used in sending munitions to Europe will mean a large increase in available tonnage for cotton exports. The world's requirements of cotton to meet its increasing demands for clothing will henceforth be on a continuously ascending scale. Based on reports to this committee from various foreign countries we estimate their requirements and probable imports of cotton under present conditions to be over two million bales in excess of last "Europe is almost denuded of cot-
