THEATRICAL

One of the numerous features offered by Gus Hill's minstrels, which is to be the next attraction at the Academy of Music Saturday matinee and night, will be the laugh-provoking satire entitled "Some Fighters," and another incident of mirth is a contribution called "Scenes in Blackville," embodying types and frivolities of plantation life. Then there is the patriotic novelty, "Over the Top," in which a sabre drill provides unusual entertainment and instruction. Fifty capable and versatile singers, dancers, comedians, fun-makers and real minstrels form the nucleus of this large troupe of experienced and capable minstrel artists. Conspicuous among them will be found George Wilson, Arthur Deming, Rage Leighton, Jack Kennedy, Golden and Helms, Eddie Hogan, J. Francis Brennan, Eddie Girton, James Baradi, Chas. Kent, Wm. H. Hall, Al Fontaine, Carl Graves, Harry themselves. It is asserted that "Oh Baby" is the best show of them all. Over a score of musical numbers, all of which are new to Wilmington will be heard in "Oh Baby." Several are the work of Charles Abbatte who is a member of the company and will be heard in several of his own compositions. The night prices will range from 50 cents to $1. War tax extra. Tickets will go on sale at Elvington's Saturday.

Royal.
The second bill presented by Bert Jackson and his Girls of Today Company, played to a large audience yesterday and last night at the Royal and is a show equally up to the high standard set by this excellent organization on Monday with their opening attraction. A new and original musical comedy farce, with fun-a-plenty flowing all the way through its action furnished by that funny Irishman Jim Pearl, with new specialty attractions by the vaudeville teams, and a nifty eccentric dance that was a riot, and a big bunch of new harmony numbers by the Three

The action is so well handled that it retains the full attention of spectators without a single scene depicting startling or exciting events of any character. The picture is one of the sort where you smile after the first scene or two and retain the smile until you see the last foot of film.

FORD DISCHARGED AND HIS ALCOHOL RESTORED TO HIM

Goldsboro, Nov. 13.—James Ford, who keeps stables and trains horses out at the fair grounds near Goldsboro, and who recently was arrested charged with importing grain alcohol into this city was discharged yesterday following a hearing of his case in the county court. Judge Bland ordered Chief of Police Edward Tew to turn over to Mr. Ford four gallons of alcohol and bottle of Jamaica ginger captured from the latter at the time of his arrest. The defendant declared when put on the witness stand that he had purchased the grain alcohol to use in rubbing the race horses in his charge.

Washington, Nov. 13.—Secretary Daniels announced tonight that he does not regard the convoying of shipping to European ports necessary now that hostilities have ceased.

THE NEW CALOMEL FINE FOR COLDS AND GRIPPE

Calotabs, the New Nauseless Calomel, Breaks Up a Severe Cold Overnight.

Physicians and druggists have at last found a quick and dependable remedy for colds, influenza and grippe. One Calotab on the tongue at bed time with a swallow of water—that's all. Next morning your cold has vanished and your liver and entire system are purified and refreshed without the slightest unpleasantness or interference with appetite, diet or work.

Doctors have always contended that calomel is the best medicine for colds, bronchitis and influenza and the first medicine to be given in pneumonia and acute fevers. The new calomel, Calotabs, is purified and refined from all of the sickening and dangerous effects and with the medicinal virtues vastly improved.

Calotabs are sold only in original sealed packages, price 35c. Your druggist recommends and guarantees them and will refund your money if you are not delighted.—adv.

with patients for the influenza emergency hospitals. These students lived a normal life, happy and jubilant. They did not breathe filtered air, nor drink concoctions of native herbs, but used common sense—and why in the world people don't listen to reason is not understood.

TRUTH ABOUT INFLUENZA.

Sulphur, Asafoetida, Potatoes and Cucumbers Won't Prevent It.
Raleigh, Nov. 13.—Influenza, in spite of the good, old-time remedies of sulphur in the shoes and asafoetida around the neck, like a hurricane passed from the seashore to the mountains, from household to household, exacting its toll, paying no respect to persons. When the final count of the present epidemic is made known, we will probably see that more than six thousand North Carolinians have laid down their lives on account of it.

The germs which cause influenza, like the germs which cause whooping cough, scarlet fever, diphtheria, tuberculosis, colds, pneumonia and many other diseases, live in the mouth and nose secretions of the people. These germs die in the air just as soon as the secretions dry, and therefore they can not live long to float about, as some of the sulphur and asafoetida friends of the people get the disease by coming in too close contact with careless people.

The germs of every case of influenza came from another person's mouth, and the present epidemic shows to what extent spit-swapping is practiced in the good old North State. Not every person who has influenza is careless, but every case of influenza means carelessness by somebody; and one can't always guard himself against the other fellow.

There are several institutions in North Carolina in which not a case of influenza occurred, and still the disease was epidemic on every side. There was nothing magic about it. The students in these institutions did not wear sulphur in their shoes, asafoetida in their bosoms, cucumbers on their ankles, or potatoes in their pockets; but what they did do was to use separate towels, dishes, and drinking cups, and keep their mouths covered when coughing and sneezing. They stayed away from public gatherings of all sorts, but were permitted on the streets, even when ambulances were frequently passing

When you wake up with backache and dull misery in the kidney region it generally means you have been eating too much meat, says a well-known authority. Meat forms uric acid which overworks the kidneys in their effort to filter it from the blood and they become sort of paralyzed and loggy. When your kidneys get sluggish and clog you must relieve them. Like you relieve your bowels; removing all the body's urinous waste, else you have backache, sick headache, dizzy spells; your stomach sours, tongue is coated, and when the weather is bad you have rheumatic twinges. The urine is cloudy, full of sediment, channels often get sore, water scalds and you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night.

Either consult a good, reliable physician at once or get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys will then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to clean and stimulate sluggish kidneys, also to neutralize acids in the urine so it no longer irritates, thus ending bladder weakness. Jad Salts is a life saver for regular meat eaters. It is inexpensive, cannot injure and makes a delightful, effervescent lithia-water drink.—adv.

Nuts and that charming little personality, Ida Howard in the midst of everything, made this a show to appeal to the best patronage and will undoubtedly attract large crowds again today.

That roaring Keystone Comedy, "He Did and He Didn't" with atty Arbuckle and Mabel Normand, was another attraction that pleased all who came early.

Grand.
It is difficult to conceive a more wholesome, humorous romance of everyday life than that unfolded through the medium of "Two-Bit Seats," Eesany's third comedy-drama starring Taylor Holmes, the famous stage comedian, at the "Grand" today.

The story is so true to life, so real, that it grasps the interest of the spectators at once and holds it until the last foot of film, when comes the happy ending. But the 2 of it is not a rebash of the usual out-and-dried stuff that has been on the boards for years. On the contrary, it is original and sparkling, with a natural love vein that sidesteps entirely any suggestion of "naughty" action.

The scenario was adapted from the American magazine story of the same title, written by Gladys E. Johnson.

BURLESON'S EARLY ATTENTION TO COMPLAINTS IS URGED

Washington, Nov. 13.—Postmaster General Burleson was asked today by the war labor board to give early consideration to complaints of employees of the Western Union and Postal Telegraph Company of discrimination by the wire board and wage commission of the postoffice department. The position of the board as stated in a letter to Postmaster General Burleson is that jurisdiction in the matter of adjustment of wages, hours and working conditions should not be taken until all efforts of the postoffice department have been exhausted. The letter says employees have complained their applications for relief have not been acknowledged by the commission.

Use Resinol first for skin troubles

Delay in the proper treatment of skin troubles is dangerous. Every day spent in trying unproved remedies may only let the disorder spread and become more and more deeply seated. The value of Resinol Ointment is known. For over twenty years it has been used as a soothing, healing remedy for the skin.

If applied in time, it usually checks the itching and reduces the eruption right away. But even in stubborn, long-standing cases, it is surprising, how quickly this gentle, yet effective ointment brings results. All druggists sell Resinol Ointment. Men with tender faces find the rich lather of Resinol Shaving Stick delightfully soothing.
