Weekly Report of Patriotic Work and Contributions By Wilmington Women.

Last week we begged for more workers and the workers came. It seemed like old times. Old friends whose faces had not been seen for weeks and months appeared once more and took their places around the tables.

Next week's financial report as the books close at 6 o'clock Wednesday and this donation did not come until Thursday. The Sunset ladies will be very welcome when they find they can come back and work with us again.

East Wilmington. Miss Margaret Cole brought in $4.00 from East Wilmington which is the largest collection she has ever had. It covered two weeks, but even then it surpassed all previous records.

Winter Park. We missed Winter Park and hope they will not forget next week. The schools sent in a nice collection and Delgado and the colored Catholic school, St. Thomas, were represented.

Brooklyn. Brooklyn was not so well represented this week as formerly. We know just a hint of all that Brooklyn needs to get her back on the job.

The Allies' Card Club. The faithful old club came in with five dollars this week, and Mrs. Longley gave five dollars for herself.

Our New Plans. We have no the slightest intention of letting our work flag a minute. We propose to have on every block in town for at least two years to come a lady who will act toward that block as toward her own family.

Busy Wednesday. Last Wednesday we had an emergency day. About dinner time we telephoned for to come to the help of the Porto Ricans on the City of Savannah, and we went down and found a lot of sick people.

Our New Stove. We have the nicest stove. It is one we bought for the nursery, and it was got up on the third floor by the combined efforts of Mrs. Roache, Mrs. Fuzzey, Mrs. MacMillan, Mr. Woolvin and the Murray transfer, which did the actual work, and Mrs. Murray, who paid all the cost.

There are tens of thousands of refugees who are not going to be able to find any work to do in Belgium and France, and if we do not clothe them they will freeze.

We have no higher motive than this—we ought to work the harder out of gratitude for all we have been spared. Sometimes we wonder if America can learn the lesson of real service.

The block messenger must be willing in case of any emergency to attend to the people in her block. If we should be so unfortunate as to have another epidemic we shall expect the messengers to go without further instructions to every house on the block and make a report of those who are sick and hand it in at once either to the office at Woolvin hall or to the district leader.

Though the glorious day of peace has dawned, it is nevertheless incumbent upon every loyal Red Cross worker to stick to her post and do the things now that must be done.

With the American Forces in Northern Russia, Sept. 18.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Russian peasants in this district are glad to be freed from Bolshevik rule.

The peasants here are now settling down to what they hope will be peace and tranquility after a long reign of Bolshevik terror.

All along the roads here one finds, in the evenings, peasants walking back to their homes with little bags of food, given them by the allies. Now, and then, they are given a can of jam, a luxury even for the rich in Russia now.

The peasants are working willingly under the kind treatment of British and American Russia-speaking soldiers. They were very glad to build an aviation field, cutting down many acres of thick timber, because they were told the field would be theirs for cultivation after the campaign.

Paris, Oct. 15.—(Correspondence).—Besides asking the folks "back home" to keep the home fires burning, American soldiers in France are sending a lot of the wherewithal to buy the fuel, using for the purpose the facilities of the Young Men's Christian Association and the Knights of Columbus.

Several young ladies for stockkeeping and sales positions. Experience not necessary. Good pay to start; bonus and insurance features. Good opportunity for advancement and permanent positions. Apply at once.

Wilmington Red Cross Society

Record of Surgical Supplies Made and Donations to the National Cause.

Though the glorious day of peace has dawned, it is nevertheless incumbent upon every loyal Red Cross worker to stick to her post and do the things now that must be done.

The director of woman's work appealed to all connected with the Red Cross to help with the chapter's allotment which has not been nearly completed.

The Good Samaritans. This past week the Red Cross played the Good Samaritan to the Porto Ricans who were here without proper clothing for this climate.

Christmas Box Information. In response to many inquiries received by the Red Cross as to whether Christmas parcels may be sent to Americans serving with the Red Cross, the Y. M. C. A., the Knights of Columbus and other similar organizations operating in connection with the military forces of the United States and the allies and to individuals serving in the armies of the allies, the war trade board has worked out a plan by which it is possible to make shipments to the above classes of individuals.

This plan is similar to that under which parcels may be sent to soldiers overseas, but instead of presenting the label from overseas, application for a carton must be made in writing, declaring that the applicant is the nearest living relative in the United States of the recipient, and that he has not made and will not make any other Christmas shipment this year to the same person. This application should be approved by someone appointed for the purpose by the Red Cross chapter and returned to the applicant with a Christmas carton which must be filled and presented for inspection in the same manner as the soldiers' parcels. The sender should address the parcel plainly and also put his own name and address as sender on the outside.

carry the package at fourth class rates only as far as Hoboken, N. J., but in the case of parcels for the above named classes of individuals sufficient postage at the fourth class rate must be affixed to carry the parcel to its ultimate destination.

RUSSIAN PEASANTS SUFFERED FROM THEIR BOLSHEVIKI

With the American Forces in Northern Russia, Sept. 18.—(Correspondence of The Associated Press).—Russian peasants in this district are glad to be freed from Bolshevik rule.

The Bolsheviki promised us that we would have land and peace and plenty, one sturdy old man said to The Associated Press correspondent, "but we soon learned what was their real terror. It was just this: "Tonight I go over and steal your cow and tomorrow night you come back and cut my throat and steal it back."

All along the roads here one finds, in the evenings, peasants walking back to their homes with little bags of food, given them by the allies. Now, and then, they are given a can of jam, a luxury even for the rich in Russia now.

The peasants are working willingly under the kind treatment of British and American Russia-speaking soldiers. They were very glad to build an aviation field, cutting down many acres of thick timber, because they were told the field would be theirs for cultivation after the campaign.

Wool Socks Won't Shrink Get Hard or Knot Up When Washed With Grandma's Soap

GRANDMA leaves them soft and fluffy and makes them easy on the feet.

Many inferior soaps are made with rosin and when you wash woolen socks with them it causes the socks to shrink and get hard and knot up. Countless hours spent in knitting have been lost just because the socks have been practically ruined by improper washing.

GRANDMA'S Powdered Soap

Follow these directions and you will never have any trouble. Use GRANDMA in luke warm water and wash the socks in the wonderful suds. Then rinse in luke warm water, shake them out well (do not wring) and hang them up to dry slowly.

GRANDMA is the most economical and finest "all round" household soap that can be used. You measure it out with a spoon—no waste. Try it.
