LUCIA WAS LAST U. S. SHIP SUNK

Vessel Was Constructed So As To Be "Unsinkable."

Remained Afloat 21 Hours After Being Torpedoed, Killing Four Members of Crew—Chief of Naval Guard Tells of Sinking.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The steamer Lucia, which was equipped with buoyancy boxes destined to make her unsinkable, was the last American vessel reported torpedoed by an enemy submarine. In making this announcement today the navy department gave out a report of the sinking by Chief Boatwain's Mate William Francis O'Brien, of 108 Trenton street, Lawrence, Mass., who was in charge of the Lucia's armed guard, and also revealed that Secretary Daniels has commended O'Brien and 23 other men of the guard for their coolness and attention to duty.

The Lucia was torpedoed Oct. 17 and remained afloat 21 hours. The torpedo struck amidships and entered the engine room, killing four men. The other members of the crew and the armed guard were rescued by the steamer Fairfax after they had taken to the small boats. The civilian crew was ordered to the boats immediately after the explosion, but the armed guard remained on board until just before the craft went down.

The explosion left the ship in a helpless condition, the torpedo putting all the dynamo engines out of commission. The submarine was sighted almost simultaneously with the explosion, but before guns could be trained on it, it disappeared and was not seen again. At intervals during the night and the next day, S O S calls were sent by the auxiliary wireless set, which had not been damaged, but no replies were received.

The Fairfax was not sighted until several hours after the Lucia went down. The sea then was so rough that the boats were kept afloat only by continuously bailing water. The members of the crew were taken aboard with great difficulty.

PRESIDENT TO STOP IN MURAT MANSION

Home of Prince and Princess Murat in Paris Contains Many Souvenirs of Washington.

At the present time Princess Murat is living at the Chateau de Chambly, in the department of the Oise, where she looks after several hundred wounded French soldiers. Prince Murat re-entered the cavalry at the beginning of the war, despite his age.

CARDINAL MERCIER GIVES U. S. CREDIT

Says America Saved Belgium and the World.

Is a Great Admirer of President Wilson—A. P. Correspondent Visits the Cardinal and Burgomaster Max at Brussels.

Brussels, Saturday, Nov. 23.—(By the Associated Press.)—Cardinal Mercier and Burgomaster Max, two of the most prominent figures of the war in Belgium, excepting King Albert, received The Associated Press correspondent today. The men are as different physically and mentally as the ideas, ideals and opinions they represent. Burgomaster Max being one of the leaders of the liberal party, while Cardinal Mercier is the most prominent Catholic in Belgium.

"You have saved us," said the cardinal, when asked what he thought about America's participation in the war. "You have saved the world."

Cardinal Mercier is tall and dignified. He is dressed in a purple soutane. He chatted with the correspondent for more than half an hour.

"I never despaired, I never lost hope, although at times my heart was very full," the cardinal said, referring to an incident in December, 1914, when Baron Von Biesing, military governor of Belgium, virtually made him a prisoner in his episcopal palace.

The Associated Press correspondent then asked the cardinal what he has never been able to answer it. I wish to reply to it now.

"Yes, Bissing treated me as a prisoner for four years," said the cardinal. "Concerning the governors of Belgium during the war, Cardinal Mercier said that Falkenhayn was more cruel and inhuman than Bissing and more perfidious, insidious and dangerous."

"There was not much to choose between them," however, he said.

Referring to his quite recent birthday anniversary the correspondent complimented the cardinal upon his robust appearance and health. The cardinal replied:

"It is true that I am 67, but rather it is my seventy-first, because the last four years seemed like eight to me."

Concerning the change in the government of Germany, Cardinal Mercier said: "I am no politician. However, the changes there seem too sudden to be lasting. The new government appears to me like a camoufage to me. The change in the Belgian crown must have been made to order according to pre-arranged schedule. It is God's justice and the public conscience is satisfied. The triumph of justice is complete. The German nation must be punished and the dream of Pan-German domination has been shattered and evaporated like noxious gas in the wind, and thanks to God's justice, right has triumphed and the Belgians once more are free and independent. We have won the war."

On receiving confirmation of the rumor that President Wilson planned to visit Europe, Cardinal Mercier said that he was a great admirer of the president, adding: "Your president is a great statesman, one of the greatest statesmen of all times. The German dark plotting and treacherous diplomacy was completely foiled by President Wilson's magnificent honesty and implacably just messages."

Burgomaster Max was more reticent and refused to speak concerning his feelings toward the Germans, refusing even to mention the word "Germany."

"I don't wish to pose as a martyr," he said. "I wish to forget the past and think of the future."

The Associated Press correspondent asked The Associated Press correspondent to convey his thanks to America and Americans for the tributes of sympathy and offers of aid from the United States.

WESTERN M. E. CONFERENCE ENDS

Salisbury district—J. C. Rowe, presiding elder.

Every inch of available space, both on the lower floor and in the galleries, of Tryon street Methodist church was filled by the immense congregation when Bishop L. Y. W. Darlington announced the opening hymn of the morning service after the singing of the hymn as only a Methodist conference can. Bishop J. C. Kilgo, of Charlotte, led the prayer. Bishop Darlington read for scripture lesson Lev. 13th chapter of Genesis.

Choosing for a text Genesis 12, Bishop Darlington delivered a spiritual sermon of great power, directed more especially to the young men about to be set apart to the office of deacon, but that carried a tremendous appeal to every member of the congregation warning them against the insidious snares of worldlyness that beset the people of this generation.

At the close of the sermon, Bishop Darlington ordained as deacons the following young men:

M. G. Allen, John Oline, J. W. Fitzgerald, W. M. Heckard, C. L. Kennerly, R. H. Kennerly, A. L. Lucas, J. G. Mitchell, C. D. Hockay.

At three o'clock in the afternoon the conference met in Memorial session over which Dr. Dan Atkins presided. Memorials of the six members who have died during the year were read as follows:

Memoir of C. W. Byrd by W. L. Sherrill, of J. P. Davis by J. F. Kirk; of W. V. Honeycutt by C. A. Wood; of K. H. Hardin by L. D. Thompson; of W. P. Pickens by D. Atkins; J. S. Scroggs by W. L. Sherrill.

At the evening session of conference, Bishop Darlington ordained the following elders:

F. K. Cooke, E. J. Hartness, L. B. Hayes, W. J. Hughes, W. M. Mann, J. W. Vestal, D. H. Hlshardt, John H. Green, John C. Garrett.

Statistical questions were answered. The appointments read by the bishop and conference adjourned at 8:30 p. m.

11 BOYS ARRESTED BECAUSE OF FEUDAL DIFFICULTIES

Asheville, Nov. 24.—Feudal difficulties between the boys of Bingham school and the town boys resulted today in the arrest of ten sons of prominent families here and one Bingham boy. Some shooting is known to have taken place and each side claims the other did it.

There has been trouble of almost equal nature between the Bingham boys and town boys for some time and further trouble is feared. The boys arrested made bond.

Of These, 100 Alone Have a Capital Stock of $10,132,286 With Annual Output of Products Valued at $28,578,458.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Raleigh, Nov. 24.—The knitting mill industry summary for North Carolina issued by Commissioner of Labor and Printing Shipman makes a most creditable showing. The number of mills has increased within the past year from 87 to 130, a gain of 43 mills. The capital stock is $10,132,286, a gain of $6,023,768 for the year. The estimated value of the yearly output has increased to $28,578,458; an increase of $15,166,242 for the year. The raw material has advanced to $33,528,094, a gain of 42,247 pounds.

These figures apply to 100 of the mills, the others being mostly private corporations that do not have to report capital and other data unless they elect to do so. The mills employ 5,674 men and 9,096 women and 1,290 children, making about 15,700 employees, an increase of 4,500 for the year.

The average of the wage paid foreign men and the like is $4.52 and the average of wage to ordinary workers is $1.84, the average increases for the year being 1.63 for the higher wage men and 74 cents per day for the ordinary workers. This applies as to wages of males. The high average for women was $3.09 and low average $1.29, an advance of $1.17 for skilled workers and 46 cents for unskilled female workers.
