

SOCIAL and PERSONAL

We have not known the bitter path That Belgium trod, and stricken France;
We have not felt the fiery wrath That marked the foeman's grim advance.
We have not passed through blood and flame
And stood at last, hard pressed, at bay;
But when their need was most we came,
We came—and saved the day.

We have not seen our fertile lands Laid waste, our homes a pyre of pain;
Our children lose their baby hands,
Our maidens ravished, tortured, slain.
Our sacred altars know not shame; We still may kneel to them and pray
For those who to their succor came;
They came—and saved the day.

Yet we, too, made our sacrifice, Counting with many must pay the price, Loving them well—but honor most.
Hiding the fears we would not name, Sending them bravely of their way Ready for duty, thus they came;
They came—and saved the day.

So, when the honor roll is spelled, Those that we love will find a place High on the roster, for they are Straight to the tents of their race.
Eager soldiers with hearts aflame, Willing to die for the Right, were they,
Sons of America! So they came;
They came—and saved the day.

AFTER-THANKSGIVING MEALS

CAN BE GOOD AND CHEAP
(U. S. Food Bulletin.)
The days following Thanksgiving are rich ones for the house-keeper who likes to see what good meals she can prepare out of a little bit of nothing. Desserts, salads, casseroles, and creamed dishes are natural results of a big meal.

Do not let cold pieces of roast fowl be passed out to the children for lunches when they could be made into meat course for the whole family.
Desserts can be reheated, served with a new sauce or fruit and made to appear like new desserts.

Creamed turkey, goose, duck or chicken makes an excellent dish for either luncheon or dinner following Thanksgiving. All the little pieces, not large enough to serve, and those bits that cling to bones can be headily fried, heated well and covered with a cream sauce.

The celery which was left makes a delicious salad when combined with shredded turkey and a little boiled dressing. A small pie made of turkey or whatever fowl you had makes a delicious way of serving left-overs.

The "crust" may be made of mashed potatoes or hominy as is sometimes done in Shepherd's pie.
Vegetable hash is one way of using up small quantities of left-over vegetables. Squash, potatoes, and turnips may be put into an oiled baking dish, covered with crumbs and grated cheese, and baked till brown.

Bread pudding will not only use up scraps and ends of bread and cake that may have been left, but if the left-over cranberries are baked with it, it makes a dessert that is delicious as well as food saving.

PLANS FOR WORLD RELIEF

Food Administration Members Meet in Chamber of Commerce at 3:30.
Plans for observing world relief week in New Hanover December 2-7 will be announced at a meeting of members of the county food administration in the chamber of commerce rooms at 3:30 o'clock this afternoon.

World relief week is to be observed throughout the United States. Its purpose is to bring forcibly and effectively to the attention of the general public the change of the food administration from a war basis to a world relief basis. The keynote of the week, as the food administration states it, is the transition from "war conscience" to "world conscience" in the obligation and opportunity for service in preventing starvation and in restoring public health in Europe. The program for world relief week is as follows:

Sunday—Conservation Sunday; Hoover message to be read in all churches.

Tuesday—Community day; local mass meeting.

Wednesday—Women's organization.

Friday—School day; elaborate program for school children.

AN APPEAL FOR ORPHANS.

This Year of All Years One Should Give of His Earnings.
The following appeal for a liberal subscription for the orphan homes of the state was handed The Star yesterday by "A Grown Up Orphan":

"What is an orphan? a little child of this city was asked a few days ago and in replying the child said: 'I know what an orphan is, an orphan is one of the New York orphans, our great grandfather needed sympathy for the Belgian orphans, we, like the little child, forget that there are needy North Carolina orphans who deserve our helpfulness. This day is the day of days Thanksgiving day, is the day of days of all years, so lets rally as never before to the aid of our orphanage.'"

"One superintendent writes as follows: 'Try as we may—and do—the orphanage cannot find a place to cut down our living expenses. In normal times we were used to only necessities—often without necessities—and now that times demand economy we can find no place to practice economy without seriously crippling the work.
We try to spend wisely every cent intrusted to our care, but as all our readers know a dollar does not have more than half of its former purchasing value.'"

THANKSGIVING TO BE FITTINGLY OBSERVED

will be an 18-hole handicap golf tournament. The oyster roast and basket dinner will take place at 1 o'clock and at 2:30 another golf tournament will be held, this being an 18-hole sweepstakes. The club building will be open all day. The social event will be a dance to be held during the evening. Efforts are being made to have the Fort Caswell orchestra here to make music for the dancers.

The golf tournaments are free-for-all and anyone who cares to may enter. Prizes will be given for both tournaments and a medal awarded the player making the lowest score of the 36 holes. There are quite a number of excellent golfers in Wilmington and the tournaments tomorrow are expected to be good.

The attendance will not be confined to members of the club, as quite a number of visitors have been invited, especially the new comers to the city.
Cheap extracts cost more in the end.
It pays to use Blue Ribbon Vanilin and Lemon. "Best" and "takes less."

Picked Up Around Town

More Porto Ricans Die.

were to the effect that the bodies of five Porto Ricans, who have died of government boat this morning and will be interred in the national cemetery.

At Winter Park Church.

be held at Winter Park Presbyterian church tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock by Rev. J. O. Mann, of the church of the Covenant. There will be special music and an offering for the Barium Springs orphanage.

Lieut. Bellamy Located.

Associated Press dispatches yesterday reported Lieut. Hargrove Bellamy, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Bellamy, of this city, a prisoner at Camp Karlsruhe. The family ascertained finally, after repeated efforts, that the young officer had been captured. For several days there was painful suspense, owing to conflicting rumors and unofficial reports.

Funeral of Mrs. Knold.

Funeral service for Mrs. Lena Kn-nold, who died Sunday afternoon, was conducted from St. Mary's Pro-Cathodral yesterday morning at 10 o'clock.

Breen, C. Smithson, James Holden and Louis Bunting.

Dr. Wells Will Preach.

Thanksgiving services at the First Presbyterian church tomorrow will be held at 11 o'clock. Rev. Dr. J. M.
Wells, pastor, will preach and an offering will be taken for the Barium Springs orphans' home. Those who cannot be present to contribute to the offering may contribute in person to Jesse F. Roache, at the Home Savings bank. The public is cordially invited

Good Ice Cream Report.

Samples of ice cream taken from Elvington's drug store and the Mission pharmacy by the state chemist, whose duty it is to announce themselves and their purpose, are reported upon by the state chemist, W. M. Allen, as follows: Vanilla ice cream, Elvington's, 11.05 per cent fat; 31.38 per cent solids. "Ice cream sold here skillfully compounded of rich cream and milk." Chocolate cream from the Mission pharmacy analyzed 10.18 per cent fat and 36.50 per cent solids, and is pronounced "legally sold." The cream was made by G. H. Herring Co.
The law only requires 10 per cent fat in ice cream.

LOCAL TEAM TO AUGUSTA.

A. C. L. Basket Ball Quintet Will Leave Tonight.

A basket ball team composed of young men from the Atlantic Coast Line offices will leave tonight at 6:45 o'clock for Augusta, Ga., where, tomorrow they will meet a team from the Augusta Y. M. C. A. The game will be played in the gymnasium of the Georgia city "Y." An admission will be charged and most of the proceeds will be donated to the Red Cross of that city.

Although these players are young in age they are veterans in the art of basket ball and Wilmington will be well represented during the game.
Capt. Ed. Snakenburg feels confident that his quintet will bring home the baccin as his team doesn't know what defeat is. These players have been together for two years and no doubt will give a good account of themselves.
Their names are not new to Wilmington basket ball fans and a glance at the line up will convince anyone that they will make an excellent showing.

Captain Snakenburg and Robert James will hold down the forward end while Claude Gore will attend to the center. This trio will be hard to beat as they all are good goal throwers as well as being very fast on their feet.
For the guard end, Captain Snaken-burg has some heavy and light artillery to hold down that section and Augusta's forwards will have to go some to make any goals. Albert Jewell, Victor Gore, Emmet Delano and Carl Williams compose the quartet which will attend to the guard end.
All four of these players are good and it will be hard to select two to start the game. Captain Snakenburg will very likely start off with Delano and Jewell. William Brittain is manager of the team, although he isn't going to play. "Buddy," as he is locally known, says it would take the whole German army to keep him from going.

ILLICIT DISTILLING CHARGED.

Walter Pigford and Lubie Byrd to Be Heard Today.

Walter Pigford and Lubie Byrd will be given a hearing in Justice Furlong's court this morning at 10 o'clock on the charge of being implicated in the distilling of whiskey at the plant found by officers on Bonham's creek last week.
Pigford was arrested yesterday on a warrant sworn out before Justice Furlong. It has not been stated how much he is suspected of having to do with the plant. Byrd has been in court already in connection with troubles growing out of the affair.
Officers brought part of the plant and some of the mash to the city to be offered as evidence.
