Review on Christmas Eve and Sailors Will Then be Given Liberty Leave.

Washington, Dec. 17 .- The American on Tuesday, Dec. 24. The navy department announced that the ships will pass the Statue of Liberty about 9 a. m. and will then anchor in the North

Besides the ships already announced as returning from foreign service and those acting as escorts to the presidential ship, the George Washington, these vessels will take part in the review:

Battleships New Mexico, Mississippi, Missouri, Maine, Wisconsin, Alabama, Illinois, Kearsarge, Iowa, Indiana and supply ship Bridge and one or more naval fuel ships. Neither the exact number nor the names of destroyers or converted yachts returning from Europe are known now at the navy department. The destroyers and other small craft on their arrival will be anchored in berths on the New Jersey side of the Hudson river.

As it passes into the harbor, the fleet will be reviewed by Secretary WANTED-TWELVE OR FIFTEEN Daniels from the Mayflower. After the fleet has reached its anchorage the Mayflower, followed by vessels carrying New York city officials, will review the ships at anchor. In the afternoon men from the fleet will parade down Broadway and Fifth avenue. The department announced that as the parade will occur on Christmas eve, generous leave of absence will be granted to both officers and men immediately-after its conclusion. The fleet probably will remain at

New York until January 8.
