GOMPERS IS READY FOR WAR AGAINST LABOR'S ENEMIES

"The Fight Is On," He Writes In The "American Federationist."

LABOR'S ONLY WEAPON IS TRUTH, HE AVOWS

"Must Contend For Fundamentals That Apply To Whole People."

(By the Associated Press.)

Washington, March 21.—Samuel Gompers, writing in the current issue of The American Federationist, asserts that labor's non-partisan political fight will be aimed particularly at "defeat of those candidates who are enemies of labor."

"The fight is on," the article said. "Labor has no weapon but the truth, no force but the force of reason and argument. Its appeal is to the heart and brain of America. Its aim is the welfare of the American nation, the safeguarding of the American democracy."

"Labor's partisanship in America has been to principles, not to parties or to men." Asserting that labor's right had been "menaced by many present holders of political power," Mr. Gompers said the injunction process had been "abused" until it "would scarcely be recognized by its originators."

FREDERICK WILLIAM TRUSTED BY DUTCH

Free To Move About The Island At Will.

(By the Associated Press.) Wieringen, Holland, March 21.—Former Crown Prince Frederick William, of Germany, beyond the statement that he has no desire to return to Germany at this time, has given no word with regard to an attempt to escape from Wieringen or participation in politics.

Rescued From Wreck In Chesapeake Bay By Tug.

Norfolk, Va., March 21.—Developing engine trouble, an army airplane for Langley field, near Hampton, was precipitated several hundred feet into the Chesapeake Bay late this afternoon. Lieutenant C. E. Pinter and Morton D. Adams, only slightly shocked by their wreck, were rescued from the wreckage of the machine by the tug Norfolk and Norfolk harbor fleet and landed here.

SELF-INFLICTED WOUND DUE TO LOVERS' QUARREL

Orlando, Va., March 21.—Josephine Bruner, aged nineteen, is in a local hospital as the result of a gunshot wound said to have been self-inflicted because she thought that she at- tempted to commit suicide because of a lover's quarrel earlier in the evening.

RADICALS SEEKING PLACE IN LEGION, WOODS ASSERTS

Reds Want To Get Inside To Learn Anti-Red Plans.

Indianapolis, Ind., March 21.—Warning that radicals are trying to obtain membership in the American Legion was given in a statement issued tonight by Arthur Woods, chairman of the National Americanism Commission, from national headquarters in Indianapolis. Mr. Woods said he had learned that the "reds" are seeking enrollment in the legion in an effort to learn what action the former service men's organization is taking against them and their policies.

HARDING DISAPPOINTED OVER TREATY'S DEFEAT

America Missed Great Opportunity, He Says.

Youngstown, Ohio, March 21.—America missed a great opportunity when the United States senate refused to ratify the peace treaty, Senator Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, republican candidate for the Presidential nomination, told a meeting of Youngstown steel workers here today. "I would not have accepted the treaty as it was negotiated, because it barred away American nationality, but I was ready to ratify with the reservations which safeguarded all American rights," Senator Harding said.

TRYING TO BUY BACK U. S. GOODS IN EUROPE

Selling Fifty Per Cent Cheaper Abroad.

Christians, Norway, March 21.—American representatives are trying to repurchase dry goods and wearing apparel bought from the United States from 1918 to 1920 for re-export to the United States, as the prices of these commodities are being offered at lower than those now prevailing in the American markets. Immediately after the war Norway was flooded with American dry goods and wearing apparel and Norwegian firms placed large orders in America for further delivery.

WOMEN TAKE PART IN GOTHAM HOLD-UP

Two Of Them Participate In Latest Job.

New York, March 21.—Two women participated tonight in the latest of New York's series of daring robberies. With two men, they entered a Brooklyn drug store and tore a $600 ring from the proprietor's finger while their companions covered him with revolvers. Then the four rifed a cash register and escaped in an automobile.

ARRIVAL DETECTIVES MIAMI INNOVATION

Plain Clothesmen To Snoop About In Sky.

Miami, Fla., March 21.—Hereafter plainclothesmen will snoop around the skies in this vicinity in search of bootleggers. The innovation was introduced from the Bahamas, for Mayor William P. Smith has appointed as special policemen the pilots and observers of a commercial aviation company here and given them powers of arrest in such cases.

Raid Private Collection Of Ohio Curator.

Columbus, Ohio, March 21.—More than 750 priceless gems from the private collection of William C. Mills, curator of the Ohio State Archaeological and Historical society, have been stolen from the society's museum at Ohio State university. The thieves forced their way into the building by smashing windows and breaking locks.

Jugs Of Brandy All "Dolled Up"

Immigration Authorities Make Interesting Discovery On Arrival Of Ship From Wine-Growing Lands.

Boston, March 21.—An Italian immigrant woman's eagerness to remove from her trunk a large china doll led to the discovery by customs officials today of 300 quarts of brandy hidden in various parts of the White Star liner Celtic, from Mediterranean ports. The officers saw a woman hastily take a doll from her trunk and attempt to carry it away. They also noticed two other women on the pier were cuddling dolls in their arms.

DELAWARE SUFFRAGE LEADERS OPTIMISTIC

Lay Plans To Exclude Scalled "Ripper" Bills.

Wilmington, Del., March 21.—Strenuous efforts to prevent the introduction of "ripper" bills which might retard the consideration of the ratification of suffrage amendment will be made by those favoring suffrage in the special session of the legislature convenes in Dover tomorrow. Suffragists here are confident the amendment will be passed by the assembly by Tuesday afternoon.

CAMERA DISCLOSES WILSON'S THINNESS

President Poses For The Movie Men.

Washington, March 21.—President Wilson posed for more than five minutes for movie men today as he was leaving the white house grounds for an automobile ride. The pictures showed the President somewhat thinner than before his illness. Taking advantage of the first balmy spring day of the year, the president, accompanied by Mrs. Wilson and Rear Admiral Grayson, motored through the city's parks and nearby Maryland for about two hours.

SPANISH HISTORICAL DOCUMENTS STOLEN

Madrid, March 21.—The police have discovered the theft of documents from national historical archives. The extent of the theft is not yet known, but it is believed to include a number of papers connected with the discovery of America. A vigorous search is in progress for the missing documents.

DREADNAUGHTS TESTIFY TO PASSING OF SULTAN

(By the Associated Press.) Constantinople, March 20.—The passing of the sultan's power is grimly evidenced by the long line of British dreadnaughts in the Bosphorus, but it is evident that most of the Turks refuse to accept the evidence. The sultan issued an exhortation to his subjects yesterday to pursue their usual vocations in peace, regardless of foreign occupation.

SURPLUS COTTON RECOUNT ASKED

Association Wants to Know How Much Of It Is Spinnable.

Columbia, S. C., March 21.—J. Skottow Wannamaker, president of the American Cotton association, said today that the association had asked congress to order a re-count of the surplus cotton in the country to see how much of it is spinnable and that a resolution to this end would be introduced at once by Senator Smith, of South Carolina.

PILOT BADLY INJURED; PASSENGER IS KILLED

Grand Island, Neb., March 21.—Frank Butten, pilot, was probably fatally injured and John S. Watson, a passenger, killed, when their airplane fell several hundred feet today at Ogallala, during an exhibition flight. Butten, whose home was in Grand Island, was a former lieutenant in the aviation service.

REST RANT FIGHT RESULTS FATALLY FOR GANG CHIEFS

New York Gunmen Clash and Leader Of Each Side Dies.

Newark, N. J., March 21.—Two gangs of "gunmen" clashed in a restaurant here today and when the smoke cleared away the leader of each faction was found dead and another man, said to have been a participant, was taken to a hospital in a serious condition. Enmity between gangs captured respectively by Arturo Papalardo and Patsy Benenato, has existed for some time, according to the police. Benenato and his brother, the police say, were going home early today when they saw Papalardo and five alleged followers seated in the restaurant. They entered and the firing began.

EDWARDS CHOICE IN STRAW VOTE

New Jersey Man Favored In Georgia

Macon, Ga., March 21.—Ballots being collected by mail by the Macon Telegraph throughout the state of Georgia, to feel the pulse of the people on the coming Presidential preference, primarily show that to date Governor Edward I. Edwards of New Jersey is the favorite. The vote for an uncommitted delegation to San Francisco comes second.

Seigel Declares A Large Contingent Of Reds Must Go Soon.

New York, March 21.—While "Big Bill" Haywood, I. W. W. leader, was denouncing at one meeting here tonight "indignities" to which the department of justice had subjected "communists, socialists, anarchists and Russian workers," Representative Isaac Seigel was announcing at another gathering here 400 more "reds" would be deported from America within the next few weeks.

PEACE RESOLUTION HOLDS ATTENTION AT CAPITAL NOW

Republican Leaders Of Two Houses Begin Conferences Today.

Washington, March 21.—Although active steps to declare a state of peace by congressional resolution are not expected until late this week, republican leaders of the senate and house are to begin conferences tomorrow on the exact form such a declaration should take. Some senators and representatives want to phrase the peace measure in the simplest affirmative terms, others prefer to repeal the declaration of war and go on record as demanding certain concessions from Germany, while still others are for inclusion of some sort of a declaration of international neutrality.

3,000 PERSONS SLAIN IN LEIPSC FIGHTING, AMERICANS REPORT

Premier Promises Turkey Her Dues

London, March 21.—Premier Lloyd-George yesterday discussed the Turkish question with the Indian Caliphate delegation headed by Achamed Ali, who declared that Turkey should have all her pre-war territory restored. The premier replied: "I do not understand Mr. Mohamed Ali's attitude towards Turkey; he claims justice, and justice he will get. Austria has her justice, Germany has had justice—pretty terrible justice. Why should Turkey escape?"

MINERS' COMMITTEE WILL MEET TUESDAY

Decision On April Walkout Expected Then

New York, March 21.—The anthracite miners operators have been notified that the general scale committee, representing the mine workers of the hard coal region, will decide next Tuesday whether there shall be a suspension of work April 1, pending the outcome of the negotiations for a new wage agreement. The result of negotiations that the 170,000 miners in the anthracite field remain at work after March 31, when the present agreement expires, was discussed at a one-hour session of the scale committee.

WILL OUTLINE FISCAL POLICY FOR CANADA

QUIET IS RESTORED

Kapp Regime Succeeded By Reign Of Sovietism And Anarchy In Historic German Town.

There was a demonstration on March 14 in which thirty-six persons were killed. Then the workmen obtained arms and street fighting was heavy until an armistice was arranged Wednesday (March 17) at noon. The anarchists ran away on Thursday. A Saxon aviator flying over the city on Thursday was shot down by rifle fire. The fighting continued from Thursday between the workers, using rifles and grenades, and the police and loyal volunteers until the Volkshaus affair Friday afternoon. The trouble gradually quieted down.

CONCENTRATIONS OF ROYAL GOVERNMENT FORCES, HOWEVER, ARE TAKING PLACE, AND THEIR ARRIVAL AT THE SCENES OF DISORDER IS EXPECTED TO BRING QUIET.

The future position of Gustav Noske minister of defense, is the subject of discussion. While his resignation has been demanded by the radicals, it is considered probable that he will retain his position for a time at least in order to restore the confidence of the Berlin population generally. There are rumors that later Noske and Dr. Heine as well as Chancellor Bauer and Foreign Secretary Mueller who are represented as personifying a system of policies which has failed will be omitted from the new administration. President Ebert, who is protected by the constitution, will undoubtedly remain until after the new elections.
