STOWAWAY BRIDE QUILTS WILMINGTON

Mrs. Greenison Leaves For Philadelphia On Board The Steamer Cotati.

The final chapter in the case of Mrs. B. Greenison, German woman denied admission to the United States on the grounds that she is an alien enemy, was written yesterday, so far as Wilmington is concerned.

Mrs. Greenison, with the American husband she married on the high seas, in an effort to make valid her claims for admission to this country, left yesterday for Philadelphia on the steamer Cotati, of which Greenison is chief engineer.

Following a hearing before immigration authorities Saturday afternoon, Mrs. Greenison was ordered deported as an alien enemy. She was detained on shipboard, however, pending her appeal to the department of labor to have the ruling of the local commission reversed.

It was reported yesterday that she will probably be given another hearing in Philadelphia.

It was also intimated that she may advance the claim that the presence in German ports of American merchant ships affects the ruling that America and Germany are still at war.

Mrs. Greenison arrived in Wilmington on board the Cotati a week ago. In addition to the novelty of bringing a stowaway bride the Cotati holds the distinction of being one of the few refrigerated ships entering Wilmington in recent months, and she is probably the first shipping board craft of this type to call here.

POULIOS READY FOR WILD MAN

Great Mat Battle Is Expected Friday

Everyone knows what happens when Greek meets Greek, but what is likely to happen when a temperamental Hellenic locks horns with a wild Italian on the wrestling mat is a question that Wilmington mat fans are puzzling over.

Announcement that Jim Poullos, rough-and-ready Greek, is to tackle Jim Farrell, man-eating Roman, at the Academy of Music Friday night has whetted public interest to a razor edge.

Farrell, so the dope says, is a real wild man of the eat 'em alive type that never knows defeat, and can be cooled out only by fighting.

Poullos is well known to local fans, and if he can put the terrible Latin out of the running he will be voted a real wrestler.

The two Jims are about equal in weight, while the temperamental mercury of each reaches the boiling point in approximately the same length of time.

Funeral services will be conducted at 4 o'clock this afternoon at the Church of the Covenant, of which the deceased was a member.

WHITFIELD NOT GUILTY OF ATTACKING DAUGHTER

But Is Bound Over On Less Serious Charge.

(Special to The Star.) Rocky Mount, March 23.—N. B. Whitfield, charged with rape upon his daughter, Mrs. Minnie Tharrington, was exonerated of the capital charge but bound over to superior court on a charge of incest as the result of a hearing before Judge E. F. Austin, recorder of Nash county, at Nashville yesterday afternoon.

The defendant promptly secured bail and was released pending his hearing in the higher court. A large crowd from over the entire county attended the trial, completely filling the court house at Nashville.

The principal witnesses for the state were Mrs. Minnie Tharrington, the daughter who lodged the serious charge against her father, and Mrs. Mary Hinton, his other daughter. Mrs. Tharrington testified that her father had committed a capital offense against her when she was about ten years old and had continued at irregular intervals since that time. His other daughter told practically the same story on the stand. On cross examination it developed that both daughters had led immoral lives and had been frequenters of questionable sections of several towns and cities. In this connection W. M. Braswell, a resident of the county, was implicated in the case, and will be given a hearing in municipal court Friday morning.

The defense introduced testimony to show the immoral lives that the two daughters had lived in the past, while other witnesses testified as to the good character of the accused father. Mr. Whitfield himself took the stand, denying the charges made against him and parading the trouble which his daughters had caused him. Judge Austin charged the defendant on the stand with rape, but bound him over to superior court under the sum of $500 to stand trial on a charge of incest.

CHARACTERIZED AS A JOKE Syracuse, N. Y., March 23.—The New York League for Americanism, in a statement issued today, characterized as a "joke" the charge made by the New York State League of Women Voters that it maintains a lobby which exercises "a powerful and perilous influence" at the state capital in Albany.

The Man and His Button

A man was standing in the store the other day—just an ordinary man. And he wore a gold button on the lapel of his coat, proclaiming him a worthy member of a worthy order.

And other men stood around wearing other buttons. And they were all proud of their buttons. And the worthy orders of which they were worthy members would not thrive very well if the button wearers did not attend the meetings quite frequently.

They may have been members of some church; but they did not wear a button to advertise it. Yet the basic principles governing human conduct, as practiced by these orders, have been taught by the Church of Christ for many centuries.

If they were to attend church—the source of all noble human aspirations—they could help toward establishing a quorum of men-church attendants, or approach somewhat the majority of women-church attendants. And they would be welcomed, as all will be welcomed who attend
