OLDEST DAILY IN THE STATE.

Reed Accuses Republican Members of "Bully-Ragging" Democratic Witness

MAISED QUOTA REVEALED BY G. O. P. LIEUTENANT

Advanced Iowa Figure More Than 100 Per Cent on His Own Initiative

CHICAGO, Sept. 7 .- Edmund H. Woore, as personal representative of covernor Cox, today presented to the enate committee investigating cammign expenditures part of the docunts and information upon which the amocratic presidential candidate ased his charges of a republican plan raise a campaign fund of $15,000,000. The testimony was not finished, but ts presentation caused a stormy session of the committee. Senatorial traditions as to courtesy were strained to the breaking point or averal occasions as republican and emocratic members wrangle l over the ridence and at one stage, just before ad to further information. "No man, even though he be a United States senator, can make such a arge as that against me." said Mr.

id the entire incident was "disgraceand announced he proposed to see Considerable of Mr. Moore's lateltesimony consisted f information emocratic state chairmen in western states. He told Senator Kenyon he had sent for some of this information and that other parts of it had been volun-"Don't you expect to give us other cratic state chairmen?" asked Sengtor Mr. Moore said the messages were inended merely to suggest avenues of the republican national committee" ought to be able to furnish the committee with the facts. the stand here and if they lie prosecute them." decaired Mr. Moore, "You must expect to keep the attorney general busy," suggested Senator

"Of course, if perjury 's committed efore this committee the guilty will he punished." Senator Kenyon continued that in ewspaper interviews Mr. Moore had attacked the work of the committee and

"Governor Cox wired Senator Reed that he would produce the evidence and leads to support his charges, but through you he sends none of this evidence and you start a line of evidence which it would take us a year to

"Senator," replied Mr. Moore, "Gov. mor Cox had the official bulletins of tertain quotas existed and that widespread plans were being carried out to collect them. Yet the republican witlesses get on the stand here and tell us these bulleting were only 'bull.' He had a copy of what he had every reason ples of it in existence, now they estify that the list never existed. It is ame way with 'form 101' and we be-on for West Virginia. From Messrs. 90,000 and Iowa's as $75,000.

Mr. McNidler said that on his own inialive he set the Iowa goal at $200,000, fication. elieving that the figure asked by the Wer state, congressional and national ket needs in his state. He said that 52,000 had been raised. Mr. Moore nony tended to support the demofatic charge, that the $3,000,000 budsmall part of the total that the party

Mr. McNidle 's testimony brought & because it was never sent out?" easurer rejoined: "I guess not."

three or four persons" were listening the convesation. The testimony of the state chairman tonsiderable of the work of raising

IN STATE COURTS

Republican Candidate for Treasurer Enters Plea for Restraining Orders

(Special to The Star.)

RALEIGH, Sept. 7 .- Absence voters' act, under deep condemnation by the republicans, today put up its hands when J. J. Jenkins, candidate for state treasurer on the republican ticket, attacked it in the state courts by enjoining the state board of elections as candidate and the state treasurer and auditor as taxpayer.

Judge R. C. Strudwick of Greensjudge carried the case to Louisburg this afternoon where he asked the restraining order of Judge John H. Kerr. By taking the case into the courts and getting it heard before the court adjourns this fall, the constitutionality vember election.

Candidate Jenkins does not pretend to be different from Citizen Jenkins and year and a half he became conspicuthe two suits are brought for the very good reason that as candidate he advocate of even the Lodge reservathinks he will suffer irreparable injury, while he is a big taxpayer and he seeks to enjoin the state board of cles of Georgia politics have whip-Mr. Moore started to elections from a levy on Penn Wood. we the stand, exclaiming that Sena- auditor, and Ben Lacy, treasurer, for Spencer republican, of Missour!, printing and sending out these absenand intimated forgery by questioning tee blanks. It is, therefore, as conthe authenticity of a circular letter tributor to the public funds and as which he had offered as furnishing a candidate for state office that Mr. Jenkins makes this dual attack.

Attacks Constitutionality

He assails its constitutionality. Senator Spencer's disclaimer of such vides that the elector "shall have re- of wholehearted indorsement of the sided in the state of North Carolina administration and all its policies. enator Reed, to his feet with a for two years, in the county six months, Hoke Smith became thoroughly iden-"bully-ragging." He and in the precinct or ward, or other tifled with the anti-administration election district, in which he offers to faction in the State. Then various vote, four months next preceding the complications followed, including the that the witness was treated like a election: Provided, that removal from one precinct, ward or other election district, to another in the same county, shall not operate to deprive any person of the right to vote in the precinct, ward or other election district from which he has removed until four months after such removal. No person who has been convicted, or who has confessed his guilt in open court upon may be imprisonment in state's prison. shall be permitted to vote unless the hearted friends of Wilson and the adsaid person shall first be restored to mentry and he said the "paid employes citizenship in the manner prescribed

"all elections by the people shall be by "The object is to get these men on ballot and all elections by the general assembly shall be viva voce," and these Francisco convention. provisions, Judge Strudwick sets out, are in plain violation of the constitution, to say nothing of being both inconsistent and repugnant.

Would Work Great Harm

didate for state treasurer he will "suffer irreparable injury as said candidate by the casting of the said illegal votes in said election, pursuant to the sions of said acts of 1917 and 1919; and the plaintiff is informed and believes, votes will be cast and counted at the said general election in the illegal and unconstitutional manner heretofore referred to, unless the said act be dethe republican committee showing that clared unconstitutional and void and of no effect," unless the state board of elections and Lacy and Wood be permanently restrained and enjoined from carrying into execution the provisions of the 1917 and 1919 acts.

The absentee voters' act was a pledge believe was a true quota list. The of Governor Bickett during his candiby before the list was published the dacy in the primary. It was first tried epublicans said there were only four out in the 1918 election and resulted in great dissatisfaction among the republicans, who declared that it had no safeguards and furnished no means of eve we have got this evidence if the ascertaining whether the election offielector. It was charged that soldiers' ony today by Walter S. Dickey of votes, especially, were cast almost solansas City and Charles McNidier, of idly for the democratic candidates, lason City. Iowa, chairmen of the re- whereas, there was no pretense that all ublican ways and means committees the soldiers were democrats. This attheir states, and by A. B. Paxton of tack on the law was not satisfactorily house. heeling, who holds a similar posi- met by the 1919 session and the republicans think that the amended act is ckey and McNidier the committee looser than the original. The celebrated arned of plans to raise money in Warren letter, giving wide-open conose states, Missouri's share of the struction to the statute covering abational republican fund being given as sentees, added to the disfavor of the law and failing to get any concessions the republicans have demanded nulli-

Absentees. Vote Elsewhere

The absentee voters' act is not new lina was kicking up its racket in 1918 old the committee he thought this tesern states. The attack on the North Carolina law, the republicans believe, of the national committee was only of the bill do not meet the spirit or the letter of the constitution,

They expect to see it overthrown, mall sensation when Senator Reed though the present supreme court has Did Fred W. Upham, treasurer of affecting a popular poll. In this inrepublican national committee, say stance, the court is not estopped from You in substance just before you going "behind the returns." Judge k the stand that you never got from W. P. Bynum, Judge R. C. Strudwick and Sidney S. Alderman, who are bring-The witness said Mr. Upham asked ing the suit, have started more than in if he had received it and when Mr. anybody who has been connected with devider replied in the negative, the the campaign. And they are not now so connected.

Senator Kenyon brought out that POISONED TO DETER SOLDIERS, and Mr. Paxton also developed that civil employes of Edgewood arsenal, ness that the president had started on BALTIMORE, Md., Sept. 7 .- Four

MOST COMPETENT OBSERVERS CLAIM DORSEY IS WINNER

Foresee Defeat for Hoke Smith And Tom Watson In Georgia Primary Today

> By MARK SULLIVAN Copyright 1920, for The Star

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7 .- Hoke Smith comes up for renomination in the Georgia primaries today. If he loses, it will be another example of the fatelity which has pursued those senators who opposed Wilson on the league of Na-

The best judgment of observers in boro, is conducting the two litigations Georgia is that the very hot primary of the Siler city candidate and the fight that has been going on for the last two or three months has rather gone against the senator.

Hoke Smith is one of the oldest figures in our public life, having been a Cabinet member as long ago as Cleveland's Administration. of the 1917 act may be tested and the been Governor of his State twice, and decision handed down before the No- is serving his tenth year in the Senate. All Washington supposed he was secure in his seat, but during the past ous as a critic of Wilson, and as an tions to the league of nations; and during the last six months the exigensawed him into a position where he is under the fire of both the anti-administration Democrats and the proadministration democrats.

His initial mistake, last April, was to ask the people of Georgia to instruct for him as a "favorite son" candidate for President on an antiadministration basis. Mitchell Palmer had entry of the spectacular Tom Watson. Watson ran on a much more violently anti-administration platform than in a middle ground, with the wholehearted enemies of the administration friends for Palmer. The same situation is duplicated in Tom Watson is again running for Senator on a platform which suits the violently anti-Wilson and anti-league of nations democrats. The wholeministration, having become disgusted with Smith, are backing Gov. Hugh M. Dorsey on a platform of flatfooted Article VI, section 6, provides that support of the democratic administration and the principle of the league of nations as indorsed by the San

The most competent observers in Georgia believe that Dorsey is likely to win, and that Smith is likely to suffer the fate of Gore, Reed, Vardaman, and other democratic senators who have been heretics to Wilson's policies. The outcome of these Georgia pricuriosity by politicians for its bearing on the feeling of the people as to the league of nations. There is some evidence in various spots throughout the country that public indorsement of Wilson's position on the league of nations, at least in democratic communities, is stronger than has been commonly supposed.

hardest fought political campaigns in Georgia's history came to a close tonight with four men seeking the democratic nomination to the United States four seeking the gubernatorial nomination and scores of others contesting for other states offices, as well as eight congressional races.

United States Senator Hoke Smith by Governor Hugh M. Dorsey, Thomas E. Watson, publisher and author, and John R. Cooper, Macon attorney. Candidates for governor are W. R. Atlanta attorney, Former States Senator Thomas W. Hardwick, Clifford Walker, former south Georgia lawyer, has a "wet" plank in his platform.

Watson and Hardwick by various mings-Esch railway act. American Legion posts which have attacked their war records. Women will not take part in the primary under a ruling of the subecutive committee.

WILSON WALKS BRISKLY: USES FRONT GATE NOW

Walking

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7 .- President Wilson, without assistance and leaning lightly on his cane, walked briskly through the front entrance of the white house today and stepped into his automobile while a crowd on Pennsyl-ALCOHOL KILLS CIVILIANS vania avenue looked on with unusual interest.

It was the first time since his ill-

Wife of Cork's Lord Mayor Visits Him Daily

Mrs. Terence MacSwiney leaving Brixton jail, London, where her husband is on hunger strike and reported nearing death. She has been a daily caller since

MacSwiney "Restless and Feverish"; Condition Practically Unchanged

LONDON, Sept. 7 .- Lord Mayor MacSwiney, of Cork, passed a rather restless and feverish evening in Brixton prison, but otherwise his condition was un-Premier Lloyd George's suggestion for the release of MacSwiney and other hunger strikers, conditional on a guarantee of the cessation of murders of poicemen in Ireland, seems not to be regarded either here or in Dublin as any practical means for breaking the deadlock, although the belief prevails in some these present Senatorial primaries. | luarters that it may be accepted as an indication of slight yielding on the part of the premier from his previous attitude.

OPPOSE PLEA FOR PRISONER'S RELEASE PITTSBURGH, Pa., Sept. 7.—Two cablegrams, addressed to Premier Lloyd Scorge of Great Britain and asking that appeals of Irish-Americans on behalf of Lord Mayor MacSwiney be ignored, were sent from this city today by James Stanley White, editor of the "United Protestant Advocate," and Rev. E. M. McFadden, D. D., secretary of the International Protestant league.

VISIT OF HARDING DEATH SENTENCE TO CHICAGO QUIET ALLOWED TO STAND

martes will be watched with some Only Glimpsed In Big City En After "Agonizing Study" Of Route to Headquarters Of General Wood

> CHICAGO, Sept. 7 .- Senator Warren G. Harding, republican nominee for President, stopped in Chicago several hours today on his first campaign trip on Major General Leonard Wood, who Jim Rayle, and Ralph and Sinclair was one of his leading opponents for Conner, slayers of Deputy Sheriff of the county seat from Southport was the nomination. Met at the station in downtown Chi-Harding motored with him to his headquarters at Fort Sheridan and after a rest at the Wood home visited the general hospital where several hundred of them by the hand and expressed his sympathy and hope for a quick re-

After the call at Fort Sheridan the senator did not return to Chicago but drove to Deerfield, a subuurb, to board cidental injury of no consequence, lotte, and John P. White, of Leland, his special train for St. Paul, where he which Rayle caused by pushing the were nominated for county commiswill deliver an address at the Minnestate attorney general, and John N. sota state fair tomorrow on agricul-Holder, former speaker of the Georgia tural issues. He is due to reach St. Paul about 9 a. m.

No Chicago Speech

when he left his train for the fort, but nitely lined up against each other for as his car threaded its way through ing the worship of the people. The years, while Watson, long a force in the loop district and sped along Sheri- sheriff in quieting them was killed. Georgia affairs, is now seeking office dan road, few of those on the streets There were a few mitigating circumfor himself. Cooper, a well known recognized him. He made no speeches stances, but all three Iredell men had here, but earlier in the day he made bad cases at court. his first rear platform talk to a crowd Interest in the campaign had been at Huntington, Ind., selecting as his in sending the men to the chair. "Every eightened by the stand taken against theme an endorsement of the Cum- human impulse impels and almost Besides General Wood, Senator New of Indiana, chairman of the republican after an agonizing study of all three ception or demonstration had been or and the judgment of the courts." ganized. It was said the nominee preferred to have his visit here devoted solely to his personal call on the HUNGER STRIKERS REACH general.

Today's meeting between the senator and General Wood was the second since Leans Only Lightly on Cane In the convention. Nearly a month ago the Several of Them Are Suffering concentration of legislative and judicial general went to Marion and today they are understood to have renewed their discussion of policies to insure solid progressive support of the republican ticket.

Interrupted by Crowds me campaign was done by salaried directors, from republican head-start directors, despends of the free despends of the relived some of the free despends of the sall doctor to visit them, they have the field and no medical attention, being despends of the sall doctor to visit them, they have the relived to demands for a speech. It was devoted entirely to the rallway act how medical attention, being despends of the sall no medical attention, being developed in mear this city of the sall doctor to visit them, they have the

Cases, Governor Bickett Declines to Intervene

(Special to The Star) RALEIGH, Sept. 7 .- Governor Bicktoday and Ed Alexander, murderer of Lloyd Cloninger, must die within two not agitated, the attitude on this issue

Alexander is white and the Conner brothers are black. Alexander will die in the electric chair September 17 and yesterday morning and a number of the black men their Blue Monday. The nated yesterday is as follows: Isham treatment. The candidate shook many white man put up a successful plea of W. Harrelson, state senator; E. H. insanity but the jury had to decide that Smith, representative; F. London issue; too, and it did not pretend to Lewis, sheriff; W. H. Walker, register be a lot of alienists. Alexander, a one- of deeds; H. R. Outlaw, Southport, coroarmed young fellow, shot Rayle with prisoner against the rail in a pool-

> The negroes killed Deputy Sloninger in August, 1919, four months earlier than Alexander murdered Rayle. The colored prisoners were terrifying the community near a church and disturb-Governor Bickett confesses his agony drives me to save the life of each of

28TH DAY OF FASTING

Severely

Press)-This is the twenty-eighth day equally under the law. On his train during the trip here since the eleven hunger strikers in from Marion the republican nominee Cork jail first refused food. Zane Henworked on correspondence, but he was nessy, 19 years old, of Ballingarry, statesman of the stability and common zens."

interrupted several times by crowds Limerick, and Thomas Donovan, of Emsense of Warren G. Harding, of Ohio, or gathered at the railway stations in the ly. Limerick, are said to be suffering the governor of that state, who has hope of catching a glimpse of him. At severely. Hennessy had blood poison- never had the slightest experience in Huntington there were several hundred ing of the leg and Donovan an abcess our national affairs and who seeks to waiting for him and after he had of the mouth. Since Thursday last, maintain inviolate the arbitrary policy desperately ill as a result of drinking desperately ill as a result of drinking desperately ill as a result of drinking heretofore having started from the rear yielded to demands for a speech. It the jail doctor to visit them, they have

MOSES AND LENROOT LEAD IN PRIMARIES

Returns Are So Meagre, How ever. That Outcome Is Still In Doubt

MEXICAN WEEVIL NOW IN ROBESON COUNTY

Serious Damage Caused By Insect Near Lumberton

MANCHESTER, N. H., Sept. 7 .- Returns from fifty out of 294 precincts n today's state primaries gave: For United States senator, republican Senator, George H. Moses, 3,402; Huntley N. Spaulding, 1,889.

For governor, republican: Albert O. Brown, 2,573; Windsor H Goodnow, 1,687; Arthur P. Morrill, 935.

MILWAUKEE, Wis, Sept. 7.—Sen-ator Irvine L. Lenroot had a slight lead over James Thompson of La Crosse for the republican nomination for senator. according to returns from seventeen precincts outside of Milwaukee, as tabulated by the Milwaukee Sentinel from today's state-wide primary.

The vote was: Lenroot, 958; Thompson, 851. The polls did not close until 8 p. m., central time.

Close In Massachusetts BOSTON, Sept. 7 .- Early returns from the state primaries today showed Towner and Granville, making brief a very close contest for the democratic talks from the rear platform of the nomination for governor. The vote in 161 precincts out of 1,125 in the state, through the state. representing 36 cities and towns outside of Boston and 100 Boston precincts

For governor, Richard H. Long, 7.488: ohn J. Walsh, 7.936. Partial returns from three districts indicate the renomination by large plupeaker F. H. Gillette Congressmen Robert Luce and Jose Walsh, all republicans.

Mississippi Results MEMPHIS, Sept. 7 .- Late figures, official and incomplete, compiled by the Commercial-Appeal on the second democratic congressional primary held in the first and second districts in Mississippi today are as ollows:

First district: J. E. Rankin, 7.058: Congressman E. S. Candler, 6,617. These nclude returns from all counties in this district nine in number.

Second district: B. G. Lowry, 4,536; . C. Anderson, 3,358. Eight of the nine countles in the district are represented by these returns.

BRUNSWICK REPUBLICANS NOMINATE FULL TICKET

Smith and Harrelson Are Legislative Candidates

Unusual interest was manifested in he city last night over the ticket seected by Brunswick county republicans in convention yesterday at Supolv. E. H. Smith, an attorney at Southport, received the nomination for the house of representatives, and Isham nated for state senator, to oppose K. O. primaries and nominated a member of city. Mr. Harrelson is a substantial receive a majority vote in a single farmer of Brunswick county, and in state primary."

F. London Lewis, Bolivia, was nominated for sheriff of Brunswick county, and W. H. Walker, incumbent, was renominated for register of deeds convention yesterday, and the removal is reported to have been to let the prominent Brunswick county republiner; E. B. Hewett, surveyor. John Jen-

The above nominees will oppose the democratic candidates in the general election in November.

rett, of Ashe; W. Levy Swain, of Shal-

DECLARES COX WOULD PERPETUATE CZAR-RULE

Frelinghuysen Appeals to The Voters of Maine

BATH, Maine, Sept. 7 .- Asserting the slightest experience in national speakers' bureau, met Senator Harding of the cases I cannot find in the record affairs," seeks to maintain inviolate at the train and remained with him any grounds that would justify me the czar-like rule of Woodrow Wilson," committee of the state democratic ex- during the afternoon. No formal re- in setting aside the verdict of the juries Senator J. S. Frelinghuysen, of New Jersey, appealed here tonight for this state's support of the Harding-Cool-

> Through the November elections, he said, we are to say whether the constitutional government of our fathers is to be maintained or to give way to a powers in the executive.

system is to be conducted for the bene- fire an especially serious matter. CORK, Sept. 7.—(By the Associated fit of a particular class or of all men

"Incidentally, we are to vote whether may be easily prevented by increased we shall have in the white house a care and vigilance on the part of offi-

Tells Dakota Crowds That Special Interests Are Backing Republicans RECALLS TEDDY'S FIGHT

AGAINST SAME ELEMENT Attention Directed to "Boss" Barnes, Now "St. Paul" Of

The Opposition MINOT, N. D., Sept. 7.—Big business was flayed and progressivism advocated by Governor Cox, of Ohio, demoeratic presidential nominee, in a tour today of 200 miles in North Dakota near the Canadian boundary. These issues, together with the eague of nations, were emphasized to eight audiences composed principally of farmers, laborers, small business men. women and children. Besides two regularly scheduled and extended speeches, at Grand Fork early today and here tonight, the candidate spoke at Larmore, Devil's Lake, Leeds, Rughy, train, which was run as a special

Big business is seeking his defeat, Governor Cox declared, by contributing largely to the republican funds. Large interests, he asserted, are arrayed almost solidly against him and are "leagued with the senate oligarchy." Recalls Roosevelt also to others en route, Governor Cox reviewed Former President Roosevelt's fight in 1912 against "reactionary republican leaders." "He led the crusade against vested interests and political bosses served them," said the governor, "Ha called the roll and specified persons by name. He named Doss Barnes, of New York, Penrose and Smeot as connecting links between crooked business and crooked politics."

Referring to testimony before the senate campaign investigation committee of alleged subscriptions by large corporations and wealthy individuals to Mr. Barnes' republican book, Governor

Cox continued: "The same old crowd is back in the front line. Barnes, who in Roosevelt's mind was the Judas of the party, has been made its Saint Paul and has been designated to write the faith of the party for his campaign."

Reading the names of the Barnes book list the Governor added: Large Sums Pledged "Large sums were pledged to Mr.
Barnes to instruct the electorate. That it was done with the knowledge and consent of Senator Harding, the candidate for these same interests, is shown by his letter directed personally to Mr. Barnes. It is also commended by Boise Penrose, the Pennsylvania boss. This is of interest this year because the same voices have defled the voice of the the senatorial oligarchy who did not

Governor Cox told his audience that he came as the "preacher of peace, progress and prosperity."

"The kind of prosperity," he explained, "that will enable the farmer, the business man and the laborer to get his share, but with no reserved seat in the government for big business or special privileges. Besides seeking an "under-hold in government," Governor Cox declared large industrial interests desire an administration which would use force in industrial disputes and he reiterated pleas for "the Golden Rule, not the bayonet" in settling strikes. The territory visited today by Gov-ernor Cox is the stage of sharp fighting between the non-partisan league and its opponents and "radicalism" was

FIRE PREVENTION DAY URGED BY PRESIDENT

discussed by the candidate.

Reviews Appalling Destruction of Resources by Flames

WASHINGTON, Sept. 7 .- President Wilson in a proclamation today urged state governors to set apart Saturday. October 9, as fire prevention day and to request a general observance by the

The need for bringing "before the people the serious and unhappy effects of the present unnecessary fire waste and the need of their individual and collective effort in conserving the natural and created resources of America." was said by the president in his proclamation to be urged for the following reasons: "The destruction by fire in the United States involves an annual loss of life of 15,000 and over $250,000,000 in buildings, foodstuffs and other created resources. "The need of the civilized world to replace the ravages of the great war is especially great at this time. "The present serious shortage of "By it," he continued, "we are to let homes and business structures makes the world know whether our political the daily destruction of buildings by "A large percentage of the fires causing the annual American fire waste

NO REVOLUTION, HE SAYS WASHINGTON, Sept. 7.—Reports of the imminence of a revolution in Ser-bia were formally denied here today by