SAGE TEA TURNS GRAY HAIR DARK

It's Grandmother's recipe to bring color, lustre and youthfulness to hair when faded, streaked or gray.

That beautiful, even shade of dark, glossy hair can only be had by brewing a mixture of Sage Tea and Sulphur. Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray or streaked, just an application or two of Sage and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundredfold.

Don't bother to prepare the mixture; you can get this famous old recipe improved by the addition of other ingredients at a small cost, all ready for use. It is called Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Compound. This can always be depended upon to bring back the natural color and lustre of your hair.

Everybody uses "Wyeth's" Sage and Sulphur Compound now because it darkens so naturally and evenly that nobody can tell it has been applied. You simply dampen a sponge or soft brush with it and draw this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time; by morning the gray hair has disappeared, and after another application it becomes beautifully dark and appears glossy and lustrous. ## STATE LEGION TO AID RED CROSS IN WORK

Commander Hogue Names Committee To Assist Disabled Men

Cyrus D. Hogue, commander of the North Carolina department of the American legion, yesterday announced that he had appointed L. P. McClendon, of Durham; R. M. Hames, of Winston-Salem, and R. W. Winston, of Raleigh, members of a committee to co-operate with the American Red Cross in the efforts of this organization being made to obtain pensions and relief money for disabled American soldiers who saw service in France.

At the annual convention of the legion, held at Wrightsville Beach recently, resolutions were passed announcing that the North Carolina department would lend the Red Cross every effort to have the government provide pensions for the soldiers who lost limbs or were seriously disabled in the war.

The state commander said yesterday that Mr. McClendon, of Durham, was chairman of the legion committee, and would direct the efforts that the legionnaires of North Carolina would make in the matter.

JEWISH NEW YEAR OPENS AT SETTING OF SUN TODAY

Rosh Hashanah, Sacred Biblical Observance, Ends Monday

Rosh Hashanah, the Jewish New Year's day, begins at sundown today and ends at sundown tomorrow. There will be services at the Temple of Israel this afternoon at 6 o'clock and also tomorrow morning at 11 o'clock. Dr. S. Mandelsohn, rabbi of the temple, will conduct both services.

The feast of Rosh Hashanah, or New Year's day, inaugurates one of the solemn seasons of the Jewish religious calendar. Two passages in the five Books of Moses, namely Leviticus XXIII: 24-25 and Numbers XXIX, command observance of this day as a holy day. Neither passage specifically ordains how the day is to be observed beyond the injunctions to blow the trumpet, to hold a holy convocation and to engage in "no occupation."
