Happy Birthday Party

Little Miss Mary Elizabeth Foster, 210 North Ninth street, celebrated her fourth anniversary Friday...

There will be a meeting of the Hospital circle of the King's Daughters, Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the residence, 121 South Fifth street.

Friends of Mr. Joseph Youngblood, who was seriously ill with pneumonia at St. John's hospital, will be delighted to learn that he has recovered, and was able to be on the streets yesterday.

Friends of Mr. J. L. Gorman, a well known farmer residing at Middle Sound, will regret to learn that he is suffering with pneumonia. Mr. Gorman is a patient in St. John's hospital.

The many friends in this city of Sheriff J. M. Burch of Florence, S. C. will be delighted to learn that his condition has improved within the last several days. Sheriff Burch has been seriously ill for some time.

Miss Darden Entertains Bridge Club Miss Mary Nixon Darden entertained the members of the Bridge club very charmingly on Friday afternoon from 4 to 6 o'clock at her home in South Fifth street.

There were four tables of Bridge, the prize for top score, an attractive set of enamel bridge table markers, being won by Miss Carolyn Northrop.

After the game a delightful salad course was served with sandwiches and hot chocolate.

Miss Darden's guests included: Mrs. Edward M. Hardin, Mrs. Robert Strange, Mrs. Latham Harries, Miss Lucy Murchison, Miss Adelaide Worth, Miss Mary Giles Bellamy, Miss Mary Shepard, Miss Marguerite Bellamy, Miss Margaret Devereux Lippitt, Miss Fannie Grainger, Miss Ruth Smith, Miss Josey Wright, Miss Carolyn Northrop, Miss May Lita Moore and Miss Harriett Bellamy.

Dr. P. P. Causey, of Sedley, Va., formerly of Wilmington, is spending a few days in the city.

Mr. George James, of Washington, D. C., arrived yesterday morning to spend several days in the city with relatives. Mrs. James has been the guest of her mother, Mrs. George Peck, at her home in South Third street for two weeks.

Miss Bessie Sasser, a member of the faculty of the Wilson high school, is spending a few days in the city with friends. Miss Sasser is pleasantly remembered in Wilmington, having been a member of the Hemenway school faculty last year.

Jewish Women's Federated Charities To Meet

The regular annual meeting of the Jewish Women's Federated Charities will be held tomorrow afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of the president, Mrs. Herbert Bluetenthal.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Bailey Parmele will return this morning from New York city where they spent their honeymoon. Mrs. Parmele before her marriage was Miss Emily Davis.

Special Music At St. John's Church

A special feature of the musical program at St. John's Episcopal church this morning at the 11 o'clock service, will be a solo by Mrs. M. A. Spooner.

"I Will Lay Me Down In Peace," from "The Triumph of David," by Dudley Buck. At the evening service the anthem will be "If He Love Me," by Simper.

William L. Berry, Jr., has returned to Randolph-Macon Military academy, after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Berry, at their home, No. 401 Market street.

Miss Rena Clark, of Tarboro, N. C., is the guest of her sister, Mrs. John Douglas Taylor, at her home in South Fifth street.

Country Club Tea

The regular weekly tea and card party at the Cape Fear Country club yesterday afternoon was quite a delightful affair, being attended by a large number of members.

The hostess for the occasion was Mrs. Marsden Bellamy, assisted by Mrs. Fred Burr, Mrs. Edwin Metts and Mrs. John Hall.

Delicious tea, sandwiches, and nut cakes were served. Bridge was played at ten tables, the prize for the highest score, an attractive quill pen, being won by Miss Mary Giles Bellamy.

Stewart D. Warren has returned to the University of Virginia to resume his studies in law, after spending the holidays with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. G. Warren.

Miss Mary Warren has returned to Salem college at Winston-Salem, N. C., to resume her studies.

Archib J. Parker has returned to Blackstone Military academy, after spending Christmas with his family.

Mr. and Mrs. LeRoy S. Joyner have returned to Baltimore, Md., after visiting Mr. Joyner's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Joyner, at their home on the Castle Hayne road.

Subscription Dance At Germania

There will be a subscription dance at Germania hall, corner of Front and Orange streets, on Tuesday evening from 9 to 2 o'clock. Music for the occasion will be furnished by the Landis-Grainier orchestra. The list of chaparrons is to be announced later.

Sorosis Citizenship Class To Meet

There will be a meeting of the Sorosis Citizenship class on Tuesday, January 14, at 4 o'clock at the club rooms, No. 116 North Third street.

Mrs. Harry Travers Lewis and Harry, Jr., accompanied by Mrs. I. W. Cooper and children, have gone to Proctorsville, where they will spend two weeks with Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Surles.

Misses Marie and Martha Dreher leave tonight for Baltimore, where they will resume their kindergarten work after having spent the holidays with their parents, Dr. and Mrs. J. H. Dreher.

OYSTERS SUSPECTED

Report made to the police department yesterday indicated that somebody was selling spoiled oysters in the market, but Dr. Huffman made an inspection of all oysters in the market and reported that they were good. However, it was learned that one person had sold out his supply of oysters and he had gone; he was supposed to have been the one guilty of selling the spoiled oysters, but no information concerning him could be learned.

ONE-ARMED NEGROES SCARCE; JUST ONE SPOTTED HERE

The police are still searching for Willie Whitfield, the one armed negro, who is reported to have assaulted E. S. Smith, a merchant of Jacksonville, several days ago. The negro is reported to have stolen about $200 or $300 from Mr. Smith. Fred Smith, an employee of the Dispatch and a brother of E. S. Smith, reported to the police station yesterday that he saw a one-armed negro near Sixth and Market streets. He reported that he followed the negro down Market street to Fourth, turning northward up Fourth. Officers A. C. Carter, D. W. Coleman and A. L. Long went and searched for the negro, but they were not able to locate him. Mr. Smith informed the police that he did not see the negro's face.

Rockefeller's total public gifts are estimated at $475,000,000.

BROWN'S

YOUR FEBRUARY DELINEATOR IS HERE!

There's No Content Like Home Content

Mid pleasures and palaces Though we may roam; Be it ever so humble There's no place like home. —Payne.

His home, the spot Of earth supremely blest, A dearer, sweeter spot Than all the rest. —Montgomery.

To make a happy fireside clime To weans and wife, That's the true pathos and sublime Of human life. —Burns.

Peace and rest At length have come; All the day's Long toil is past; And each heart Is whispering, "Home, Home at last!" —Hood.

Home is the resort Of love, of joy, Of peace and plenty; Where supporting and supported Friends And dear relations Mingle into bliss. —Thomson.

By the fireside still The light is shining, The children's arms Round the parents twining. From love so sweet, O, who would roam? Be it ever so homely, Home is Home. —Milkot.

The big thought of America now is the thought of "The Home." We're all reaching out for, persistently seeking, happiness for ourselves and those we love. Home-making is the greatest individual thing in the life of each one of us. For "home-making hearts are happiest."

This home for ourselves and our loved ones—it's of our own making. In our home we furnish the setting for life's richest joys and keenest pleasures. In our home we build the foundation of fulsome family content. We give the home a soul!

We would make it a cheerful place—this home of ours. With colorful draperies, soft-toned rugs, deep-cushioned furniture and mellow lamps we would have it express the joys of genuine hospitality. We would have it tell the story of comfort. We would make its very atmosphere reflect contentment.

Cheerfulness! Happiness! Joy of living!—find fullest expression in home life. To all mankind we say: "There's No Place Like Home!" "There's No Content Like Home Content!"
