Custinued From Page Four). they should be done speedily and with out delay. We cannot progress in our spiritual, intellectual or material development unless they are done. They will be done, either generously and in manner to give us as a state the full benefit of doing them, or they will be done by patchwork and over a period of years, and in such manner as will argely dissipate the benefit to the state doing them and at greater cost in he long run.

The entire program which I have suggested will require great sums of money, but in our ability to find the money we are one of the most fortuindebtedness of our state is trifling edness with the value of our railroad stocks, it would be almost wiped out. The people are now burdened with unparalleled federal taxation, and in many counties, heavy local taxation. Therefore, we ought not to levy additional taxation upon this state to make any of the suggested improvements which are permanent in character. But the credit of our state is in a most healthy condition, and those who are so solicitous of future generations could not complain of the increase of our public indebtedness for these great purposes when they reflect that North 'arolina has heretofore created practically no public debt for future generations to pay; and that we would, if this program was carried out, transmit to those who come after us a heritage obler by far with the indebtedness than it would be without it.

The necessary improvement at our institutions for the care of the unfortunate, the large expenditure required o place our university and colleges for igher learning in a position adequatey to meet the demands upon them, and for the construction of the state highway system of roads ought all to be met by a sale of the state's bonds, and in increase of its public indebtedness. New Taxation System

We must adopt a new system of taxation in which state taxation and countwand other lecal taxation will be comletely separated. Under the new sysem we should levy no ad valorem tax it this time; but we must adopt an en- lumber industry. irely new system shot through and

Reactionary Arguments

The reactionary will whisper to the imid that this is a bad time to expend much money because of the depressed condition of our whole business life. Business is depressed, and we have reently suffered severe loss and shrinkage in values, but North Carolina is still rich enough to take humane care of its defective and unfortunate, to guard itself as far as an enlightened knowledge of preventive medicine will enable it to against sickness and sufering, to provide adequate schools for he training and education of its children, to build a system of roads suggested by sound business, and to do all other things reasonably necessary in the discharge of the high duties of great state. Times are hard, but they not approach the severity of condions which we have met with courage in the past. We are given in times of great prosperity to think depression. and bad times will never come again; and in periods of hard times and de-pression we are given to think good thing, and for all the wisest among usmay know, we may in this depression be laying the foundation stones for a ting mills and the latter's branches structure of business and prosperity the like of which our country has never known. We must not give up, prosperous times are sure to return. The United States is richer than any two or three countries in the world, and we have more productive energy and initiative ability than all Europe combined. North Carolina is one of the truly nate states in the republic. The public rich and great states of the Union, and nothing can keep prosperity from soon when compared to that of most of the returning to us except our own cow-states. If we credit our state's indebt- ardice and pessimism. Let us recall the trials, sacrifices and triumphs of our fathers and mothers, and unite to God. In this hour of trial and depression I appeal to all the people of the state to go forward with courage and determination in every direction in which Christians and patriots are looking. For twenty years we have splendidly progressed in North Carolina, and under the assaults of our great Christian democracy, under the leadership Chronic Coughs and Persistent of the Democratic party, we have made "hell's foundations quiver" everywhere. We are in sight of victory on every battlefield where the flag of Christianity and progressive democracy floats over the noble and the good, as they war for righteousness with the reactionary and unprogressive forces of our state. We must not march away and leave any battlefield where right, 'justice, and progress are contending with the foes of enlightenment and progress because of unexpected temporary busmarching as a "mighty army, with the cross of Jesus going on before," until North Carolina is truly great and nobly

We are depressed and disspirited now, but business is a complex and mysterious
