Round the Walls of Hamadan

Orchards stretch their bloomy span
Round the walls of Hamadan.
Purple deacon on the grape, Lyric brooks make blithe escape.
Yet are all the glories gone That the lord of Macedon Saw ere draw the revel on,
And the Bacchic orgy ran
Round the walls of Hamadan.

Gone the great sun temple where Golden stair rose over stair, Gone the gilded galleries, Porticoes and palaces,
And the plaintive night winds plead For the memory of the Mede, Sob for the alien ears to heed, Pilgrim train and caravan,
Round the walls of Hamadan.

Nought of all the radiant past, Nought of all the varied, vast Life that thrilled and throbb'd, remains,
With its pleasures and its pains, Save a couchant lion lone, Mute memorial in stone
Of three empires overthrown.
Persian, Median, Parthian—
Round the walls of Hamadan.

All the splendor vanished, still Wheels the world for good or ill, Where's the wisdom-hoary sage Shall untrickle us this page?
Temples toppled from their base, Victor race o'er-running race—Yet, within the ancient place Mirth and love of maid and man
Round the walls of Hamadan.

There will be a dance at the Steel Ship club tonight, beginning at 9 o'clock. Music will be furnished by the Grainger-Landis orchestra.

Mr. R. G. Grady left for a short business trip up the W. and W.

Entertains Card Club

Miss Jane MacMillan entertained the Wednesday Afternoon Card club which had its initial meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Harrison Symmes and Mrs. Andrew Harris, Jr. The prize, two packs of cards, was won by Mrs.
Harrison Symmes.

Chocolate sandwiches and a most attractive poinsettia salad was served, and the petals being made of pimentoes and the centers of pineapples.

Those playing were: Mrs. Andrew Harris, Jr., Miss Carolyn Northrop, Miss Anne Bacoit Cumming, Miss Harriett Bellamy, Mrs. J. C. Rose, Miss Sue Hardin, Mrs. Harrison Symmes, Mrs. Andrew Harris, Jr., and Miss Jane MacMillan.

Mrs. Hogue Entertains

The Tuesday Afternoon Card club was entertained by Mrs. Cyrus Hogue on Wednesday afternoon, the regular meeting having been postponed on account of the sickness of one of the members.

There were two tables of bridge, Mrs. Robertson winning the prize, a lovely necklace of beads.

A tempting fruit salad was served with cocktails, hot rolls, crackers and candies.

Those attending were: Mrs. William Hogue, Mrs. Harriet Harris, Mrs. J.
P. Robertson, Mrs. Will Broadfoot, Mrs. John L. Hammer, Mrs. Alex Worth, Miss Lott, sister of Mrs. Hogue, and Mrs. Robert Williams.

Mrs. Griffin Gives Tea

From the Raleigh Times: Mrs. B. H.
Griffin will give a tea at the Yarn-borough Wednesday afternoon in honor of the wives of the members of the general assembly. This is the second of the series of teas that Mrs. Griffin will give during the session of the legislature.

Receiving with Mrs. Griffin will be:
Miss Ida Morrison, Mrs. T. W. Bickett, Mrs. W. N. Everett, of Rockingham; Miss W. Clement, of Asheville; Mrs.
Townsend, of Dunn; Mrs. Mendenhall, of High Point; Mrs. Varner, of Lumberton; Mrs. Carlton, of Roxboro; Mrs.
Walker, of Spray; Mrs. Long, of Burlington; Mrs. Wright, of Greensboro; Mrs. Lewis, of Winston-Salem; Mrs.
Long, of Halifax; Mrs. Broese, of Asheville, and Mrs. Heath, of Asheville.

Mrs. Theodore S. James

Mrs. Theodore S. James charmingly entertained several friends yesterday at four tables of bridge, in honor of Miss Alice LeGrand. At the conclusion of the game Miss LeGrand was presented with an attractive gift book and lingerie bows of pastel shades.

Mrs. James served delicious refreshments consisting of fruit salad, nut bread, cheese-balls, hot chocolate, mints and nuts.

Postponed Convention

Announcement is made that the play, "The Old Maid's Convention," which was to have been given by the Ladies' Aid society of Epworth Methodist church tonight, has been postponed until next Monday night, January 31.

Dance Leaders Chosen

CHAPEL HILL, Jan. 27.—In preparation for the social activities at Easter and at commencement, students at the University of North Carolina have within the past week elected leaders of all the dances and chosen marshals. William D. Carmichael, Jr., of Durham, former captain of the basketball team and editor-in-chief of the

Italy Recognizes Mexico

MEXICO CITY, Jan. 27.—Italy today extended formal recognition to the Mexican government when the Italian legation delivered to the foreign office an autograph letter from King Victor Emmanuel.

City Manager Form Urged at New Bern

NEW BERN, Jan. 27.—The impetus given the city manager form of municipal government here is gradually coming to a head. A meeting was scheduled for yesterday afternoon, but the actual results have not materialized yet. At this meeting, composed of a member from each ward in this city, of which Larry I. Moore is chairman, was called to formulate the petition calling for an election on the proposed change of government. The chamber of commerce and the Rotary club have been active in this movement, while both local papers have continued a program of education to present the people with the facts.

The securing of the necessary signatures will be placed in the hands of a member from each precinct taken from this committee, which has been in existence for quite a while. Advocators of the change believe that the hardest fight will develop after the election has been called as they feel confident of securing the necessary number of names. The opponents of the city manager plan have not taken much real action in the campaign to reverse the arguments and facts of the opposition but seem to have adopted an attitude of "watchful waiting" comment of the measure's defeat.

Training at Goldsboro for Community Chorus

(Special to The Star)

GOLDSBORO, Jan. 27.—The music-loving people of Goldsboro have been busy this week in organizing and practicing, the new chorus being organized at the Community Center by Prof. J.
Oliver Brinson and wife, of New York City who will spend several weeks here. Prof. and Mrs. Brinson have been engaged for several years in community song work. They came here from Richmond, where they had been engaged for several weeks at the Community Center in directing a large chorus. The people here have always shown deep interest in the song service at the Community Center, and will more so now that they have a well directed chorus of singers.

Friends in this City

Friends in this city, the home of the popular groom-to-be, are in receipt of the following: "Mr. and Mrs. Paul Lee Grant, request the honor of your presence at the marriage of their daughter, Leah Aiden, to Mr. John Edmond Underwood, on the afternoon of Saturday, February 5, 1921, at 5 o'clock, at the Methodist church, Rich Square, North Carolina."

Notwithstanding the inclement weather, a large number attended the joint debate at the Women's club, on Thursday evening between Mr. S. P.
Emory, of the Goldsboro High school faculty, and Mr. Cecil Best, a well-known attorney also of this city. The subject was "why did you vote for an electoral vote, instead of directly for the Presidential candidate?"

Miss Virginia Borden

Miss Virginia Borden was hostess on Wednesday afternoon to the Whist club, in honor of Mrs. Henry McKinnon and Miss Lillian Merrimon. A most delightful afternoon was spent.
Among those present were Miss Lillian Merrimon, Mrs. Henry McKinnon, Mrs. Arnold Turner, Mrs. H. L. Lee and others.

On Tuesday afternoon Mrs. William Smith entertained at bridge at her home on West Walnut street. Refreshments consisting of a salad and ice cream was served. Among those present were Mrs. R. B. Miller, Mrs.
Robt. Powell, Mrs. P. V. Baumgardner, Mrs. Matt Allen, Mrs. E. Graham, Mrs.
Eugene Hines, Mrs. Paul Borden and Mrs. W. H. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. C. Rucker Adams

Mr. and Mrs. C. Rucker Adams, of Chicago, are in the city on their way to Lakewood, Fla. While visiting in this city they will organize physical culture classes for both men and women.

Mrs. W. H. Griffin delightfully entertained a large number of children at the Community Center on Thursday afternoon, in telling stories that the young folks love to hear. These storytelling parties every Thursday afternoon are growing in interest, from 60 to 75 children being present.

Italy Recognizes Mexico

extended formal recognition to the Mexican government when the Italian
legation delivered to the foreign office an autograph letter from King Victor Emmanuel.

ball manager for the commencement dances, the traditional post of honor; J. Harper Erwin, Jr., of Durham; Wade A. Gardner, of Wilson; William Ruffin, of Louisburg; John D. Shaw, of Charlotte; J. Saunders Willamson, of Burlington, and Isaac Thorpe, of Rocky Mount, will be assistant ball managers. The junior class chose Robert Griffith, of Charlotte, to lead the junior prom, with Robert Proctor, of Lumberton, and W. W. Williams, of Durham, as assistants. For the sophomore dance, Marsden B. deRossett, of Wilmington, will be the leader, and J. J. Wade, of Dunn, and Allan McGee, of Goldsboro, will assist him. The Germanic dance will be under the direction of George Wimberly, of Rocky Mount; A. B. Wright, of Winston-Salem, and R. P. McClamroch, of Greensboro.

News of Society

(Special to The Star)

Mrs. Norvin C. Smith entertained the Entire Sous club on Wednesday afternoon at her home, 1508 Orange street, after an important meeting of the club. Fruit salad, cake and sandwiches were served.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shepard left last night for New York on their way to Kansas City, Mo., where they will visit Mr. Shepard's mother. Mr. Shepard has finished a two-year engagement with the Atlantic Coast Line and the many friends of Mr. Shepard and his family will regret to see them leave Wilmington. Mrs. Elizabeth Kenfrow, Mrs. Shepard's mother, and Miss Mary Renfrow Shepard will remain at the Orton for ten days before leaving for New York City.

The following item is by special correspondence from Kingston: Miss Fannie Foxman and Dora Diamond have returned here from Wilmington, where they attended the marriage of Miss Beatrice Evanson and Morris Kaminsky. The wedding was an elaborate affair. The bride wore a handsome gown of beaded chiffon over fuchsia satin, and carried white roses.
The bridesmaids were attired in apricot satin and carried bouquets of roses.
Persons in attendance from various points in North Carolina, Florida, South Carolina, Georgia, Maryland, Canada and Washington, D. C. A reception and dinner followed the ceremony.

City Manager Form Urged at New Bern

Ward Leaders Named to Press Issue Before People of City

(Special to The Star)

given the city manager form of municipal government here is gradually
coming to a head. A meeting was

Five inches of snow covered this city yesterday afternoon when the snow turned to sleet and finally to rain. The snow which began falling at 1:30 a. m. yesterday has been heavy, and extended to Beaufort at the coast from information brought to this city last night. A heavy rain is gradually melting the slushy streets and sidewalks.

Two Norfolk-Southern trains, travelling at a pretty good speed, met in a head-on collision yesterday morning at 10:45 at Bishop's Cross, between Pine-ton and Beaufort, overturning both locomotives and only causing minor injury to the train crew and passengers.

The engine crew avoided possible harm by jumping before the smash came, while the shock of the collision threw passengers about in their seats.
No official report has been received here as the accident happened on the northern division. The tracks were cleared by night. The cause of the wreck is attributed to a misunderstanding of orders.

Joe Jurjerson and Fritz Hanson are scheduled for the coming bout Wednesday night, Jurjerson having wrestled here last season and being credited with plenty of brawn, brain and skill.

A good match is expected.

A few more days of grace has been extended to local vagrants in which to secure employment, instructions to the police from the Mayor here read, when road sentences and heavy fines will be imposed on those not able to account for themselves. This policy was the cause of the cleaning out of Jenkins Alley here this summer, a place known for nightly disorders.

Ben Franklin's Advice

"A Penny Saved Is Two Pence Clear A Pin a Day's a Groat a Year"

WE offer you an opportunity every day to save your pennies and your dollars. Our cash or charge plan is based on the idea that each person should pay for merchandise purchased and service received. It does not cost as much to sell for cash as it does on credit. Therefore, we deduct 5 per cent from our prices if you pay cash.

You will also find that our cash prices are as low, and frequently lower, than those at strictly cash stores, because our overhead expenses are less than theirs. For example, compare any 98c article at a strictly cash store with the same article in our store and you will find it marked $1.00 in our store, but if you pay cash at our store you get it for 95c, or three cents less than you do at the strictly cash store. Let us help you save your pennies.
