This Is Told In Confidence
I have a table, cot, and chair And nothing more. The walls are bare.
Yet I confess that in my room Lie Syrian rugs rich from the loom.
Stand statues poised on flying toe, Hang tapestries with folk a-flow As the wind takes them to and fro.
And workman fancy has inlaid My walls with ivory and jade.

Thought: Opening on a New York street Full of cries and hurrying feet, My window is a fairy space That gives on each imagined place:
Old mine lost in desert peace;
The broken fane and shrines of Greece;
Aegean islands fringed with foam;
The everlasting hills of Rome, Troy flowing red with skyward flame,
And every spot of hallowed fame.

Outside my window I can see The sweet blue lake of Galilee, For, if my landford once but knew My attic fetched so large a view, The churl would never rest content 'Till he had raised my monthly rent.

A Winter Fete
The following whimsical paragraph appeared in The State, Columbia, S. C.: "Dame Nature, wearing a costume of pale gray trimmed in crystal fringe, yesterday gave the first real winter fete of the season. Every body enjoyed it as an occasion of rare beauty, and many of the most studly entered with seat into the exciting contests of keeping erect upon ice sheeted pavements and dodging ice showers from the low hanging trees. The more cautious folk were content to be spectators, enjoying the fun through frost framed window panes.

"For a while all electric lights were turned off and only the natural day light, shaded by clouds to conform to the prevailing color scheme of wintry gray and white, were used.
"Frosted roses, with here and there some exquisite crystallized fruit blossoms, supplemented the lavish decoration of ice coated evergreens and stark trees, and during the entire time an abundant ice course was served."

Mr. and Mrs. Tom de Rossett, and two small daughters, who have been visiting Mrs. Fred Dick, will leave tonight for their home in Baltimore.

Miss Emma Thompson, of Southport, well-known here. Mrs. Canaler, who was Miss Nell Wisdom Cave, attended Hollins college and has several friends in this city:

"Miss Charlotte Abbott entertained charmingly at bridge at her home in Colonial Heights Thursday afternoon, in honor of Mrs. Edwin T. Canaler, Jr., who prior to her recent marriage was Miss Nell Wisdom Cave, one of Charlotte's most popular young ladies."
"Miss Abbott received her guests in a frock of bronze lace. Mrs. Canaler wore midnight blue dupstyn trimmed with little silver buckles, and with touches of peacock blue. Her hat was of black velvet, beaded.

"At the conclusion of the game, Miss Abbott served a salad course with accessories, and an ice-course."
"Those playing were Mrs. Canaler, Miss Catherine Gilmer, Miss Julia Baxter Scott, Misses Corinne and Rogers Gibbon, Miss Elizabeth Miller, Miss Judy Draper, Miss Mary Stuart Alexander, Mrs. David Clark and guest,

Southport Circus
Southport is noted for its community spirit and the Army and Navy club is often the scene of gay and attractive entertainments given by everybody in town for everybody else to enjoy.
"The following is a contributed account of the circus which was presented on last Tuesday night:
"The circus was killing—a great success. The rugs were taken up—the doors covered with pine straw to deaden the sound. The writhing row was used as the side show. On a table in a cage was the wild man from Borneo—Mr. Cavenaugh—who gnashed his teeth, howled, tore at the bars of his cage until the large ring in his nose trembled. Next to him were the snake charmer, Miss May Phelps—the tattooed man, the fortune teller, Miss Boren of New York—the Siamese twins, the fat woman—Mrs. Arthur Doshier, and the bearded lady. Charlie Gause was ring master. The trained bears were caught, one of the clowns started at Doshier's bridge and the beaver dam.
"The music never ceased a moment.
A clown with a megaphone urged us to buy the hot-dogs that were for sale —boys peddled red lemonade, peanuts and popcorn.

"There were all kinds of animals—a huge camelopard, trained horses, who skipped the rope, monkeys—and athletes. Dr. Boyette's daughter brought down the house as a tightrope walker. The Bollettis quartette sang to the air of Reuben. I Have Long Been Thinking" and their songs contained lots of local hits.

"The audience was requested to dress like country people and the children and people were a sight to behold."

M. Edward Keathley, formerly of this city, but now residing in Philadelphia left yesterday after spending a short vacation with relatives and friends.

John Carter left last night on a business trip to Raleigh where he will spend the week-end.

can Tobacco company is spending the week-end in Wilmington.

A delicious salad course was served after the game.
Those playing were: Miss Mary Nixon Darden, Miss Mary Giles Bellamy, Miss Lucy Murchison, Miss Laura Parsley, Miss Miller of Stateville, who is visiting Mrs. J. O. Mann, Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. Julian Morton, Mrs.
Robert Strange, Mrs. Andrew Harris, Mrs. Harrison Symmes, Mrs. Charles Farnale, Miss Sue Northrop, Miss Helen Menzies, Miss Marguerite Bellamy, Mrs. Charles Grainger, Jr., Mrs.
J. Goddett Thornton, Mrs. W. L. Smith, Jr., and Mrs. Graham Hobbs.

Scales-Bryant Wedding
A quiet but unusually beautiful wedding was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Scales in Irving park last evening when their daughter, Elizabeth Walker Scales, became the bride of Victor S. Bryant, of Durham.

Owing to recent bereavements in both families the usual formal pre-wedding functions were omitted and only relatives and few intimate friends were present at the ceremony but the large family was so liberally represented that the spacious home giving brilliant to an occasion which in other respects was distinctly subdued.

The decorations were of pink and green throughout the home. A lattice of amaranth and palms formed the background of a beautiful altar and tall candelabra and vases of Columbia roses were placed effectively. The mantels were banked with ferns, pinks and roses and an artistic arrangement of similar flowers gave perfection to a scene of unusual beauty.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with Valenciennes lace and her veil was held in place by a wreath of orange blossoms.
Miss Katherine Manning, of Washington city, was maid of honor and wore a Nile green sash trimmed in silver. The bridesmaids, Misses Frances Scales and Matilda Bryant were dressed in pink chiffon. Miss Mary Leigh Scales and Miss Julia Dewey Bryant were the flower girls.
Groomsmen were Douglas Taylor Scales, Master Nathaniel Scales, Scales and Master Archibald Henderson Scales.

The ceremony was performed at 9:30 o'clock by Dr. Charles F. Myers, and the unusual service was recorded by a brief but delightful musical program.
Miss Katherine Johnson sang, "My Heart at Thy Sweet Voice," and Mrs.
Cummings Mebane, Schubert's "Sera-nade," both accompanied by the O.
Henry orchestra.

A reception followed the ceremony and the happy couple left at midnight for the honeymoon in Florida and Cuba.

The bride is a young woman of rare charm and gracious personality and has a multitude of friends in North Carolina and adjoining states by whom she is warmly admired.—

NEW ENGLAND RAILS TURN DOWN 12 MILLION DOLLARS WASHINGTON, Jan. 28.—New England railroads offered but refused a "gift" of $12,000,000 from truck line executives to protect the former's credit. The Interstate Commerce commission was told today by W. H. Williams, chairman of the Wabash railroad, testifying at hearings on a revision of joint freight rates between carriers east and west of the Hudson river. Mr. Williams said the New England carriers turned down the offer on the ground that it would not meet their needs.

Mr. Williams said that he with Presidents Rea, of the Pennsylvania, and Maher, of the Norfolk and Western, representing the lines west of the Hudson, had conferred with Presidents Pearson of the New York, New Haven and Hartford, and Hustis of the Boston and Maine, with an idea of effecting an immediate settlement of the differences.

114 EGGS A DAY NOW INSTEAD OF 25 A DAY
This Means About $126 Extra Income Per Month for Mrs. Ropp.

"I have 200 hens, including late pullets, not old enough to lay, and had been getting 25 to 30 eggs a day. Then I tried Don Sung and am now getting 107 to 114 eggs a day.—Mrs. Essie B.
Ropp, R. H. Zittler, Ind.

This increase of 7 dozen a day in the middle of winter, at 60c a dozen, makes $126 extra income per month. Don Sung for her 200 hens cost about $230.
It paid her, and we guarantee it will pay you.

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and puts you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-increasing) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don-Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $2c (includes war tax) for a package by mail prepaid. Bur-

Ben Franklin's Advice

"A Penny Saved Is Two Pence Clear A Pin a Day's a Groat a Year"

WE offer you an opportunity every day to save your pennies and your dollars. Our cash or charge plan is based on the idea that each person should pay for merchandise purchased and service received. It does not cost as much to sell for cash as it does on credit. Therefore, we deduct 5 per cent from our prices if you pay cash.

You will also find that our cash prices are as low, and frequently lower, than those at strictly cash stores, because our overhead expenses are less than theirs. For example, compare any 98c article at a strictly cash store with the same article in our store and you will find it marked $1.00 in our store, but if you pay cash at our store you get it for 95c, or three cents less than you do at the strictly cash store. Let us help you save your pennies.
