NORSE BARK SIRDAL HAD TERRIBLE TIME ON ATLANTIC

QUEENSTOWN, Jan. 12 (Correspondence Associated Press) .- The hardships of the Atlantic sailing vessel in mid-winter were shown by the experience of the Norwegian bark Sirdal which gave up the attempt after spending 75 days at sea and has returned to this port with her bulwarks stove in and much of her canvas in rags. Most of her crew were either ill or worn out by fatigue and exposure

Neither vessel nor men were fit for further conflict with angry seas. The Sirdal left Christianssand as far back as October 22, bound for Barbados and carrying only ballast. Almost from the start she encoun-

Captain Collings sailed the seas for many years; then he sustained a bad double rupture that soon forced him to not only remain ashore, but kept him to not only remain ashore, but kept him bedridden for years. He tried doctor after doctor and truss after truss. No results! Finally, he was assured that he must either submit to a dangerous and abhorrent operation or die. He did seither! He cured himself instead.

Fellow Men and Women, You Don't Have To Be Cut Up, and You Don't Have To Be Tertured By Trusses."

Captain Collings made a study of himself, of his condition—and at last he was rewarded by the finding of the method that so quickly made him a well, strong, vigorous and happy man. Anyone can use the same method; it's simple, easy, safe and inexpensive. Every ruptured person in the world should have the Captain Collings book, telling all about how he cured himself, and how anyone may follow the same treatment in their own home without any trouble. The book and medicine are FREE. They will be sent prepaid to any rupture sufferer who will fill out the below coupon. But send it right away—new—before you put down this

What's In a NAME?

A lady and gentleman driving out in the country near Wilmington came across a log hut in front of which was standing an old black mammy with a little pickaninny clinging to the old black mammy's

The travelers stopped for a chat and the lady finally asked:

"Mammy, who is the little boy and what is his name?" "He muh gran'chile and he name 'FERTILIZER'—yes, mam."

said the lady. 'Fertilizer!' "

"What a queer name—why did you give him such a name as that?" "Well, you see hits dis way, honey: Mur ol' man's name is 'Ferdinan,' muh name is 'Liza' an' as him is th' onliest gran'chile we alls want him nam' fur bof un us, so we jes nachully calls 'Furtliza.'"

When you think of it, there's a WHOLE LOT in a name—Rockefeller, Morgan, etc., and when you see J. Hicks Bunting on anything out of a drug store YOU KNOW, without further thought, that it is A1, o. k., etc., and when a prescription or other medicine is dispensed at our store YOU KNOW that it can be relied upon.
