The House and the Road
The little Road says, go.
The little House says, stay.
And O, it's bonny here at home,
But I must go away.

The little Road, like me,
Would seek and turn and know;
And forth I must, to learn the things
The little Road would show!

And go I must, my dears,
And journey while I may,
Though heart be sore for the little
House that had no word but stay.

Maybe, no other way
Your child could ever know
Why a little House would have you stay.

The little Road says, Go,
—Josephine Preston Peabody.
