DA BOY FROM ROME

To-day ees com' from Rome
A boy ees leave een Rome
An' he ees stop an' speak weeth me
I weesh he stay at home.

He stop an' say "Hallo," to me,
An' w'en he standin' dere
I smil da smil of Eetaly.
Steell steekin' een hee hair,
Dat com' weeth heem across da sea,
An' een da clo'es he wear.

Da peopla bump heem een da street,
Da noise ees scare heem, too;
He ees so clumsy een da feet
He don't know 'wat to do,

He sheever an' he ask eef here
'Eet ees so always cold.
Den een hees eye ees com' a tear—
He ees no vera old—
An', oh, hees voice ees soon' so queer
I have' no heart for scold.

He look up een da sky so gray,
But oh, hees eye ees so
So far away, so far away,
An' 'wat he see I see.
Da sky eet ees no gray to-day
At home een Eetaly.

He see da glada peopla seet
Where warma shine da sky—
Oh, will he ees look at eet
He ees laygeen to cry.
Eef I no growl an' swear a beet
So, too, my frand, would I.

Oh, why he stop an' speak weeth me,
Dees boy dat leave " Rome,
An' com' to-day from Eetaly?
I weesh he stay at home.

There will be a subscription dance at Germania hall on the night of Tuesday, February 2. The Landis-Grainger orchestra will play from 9 to 2 o'clock. The list of chaperones will be announced later.

Monday being the anniversary of the forming of the Germania club, the members will give a dance at the hall on Monday evening. F. K. J. Fuchs is chairman of the committee in charge of the affair.

From the Whiteville News Reporter: Dr. Edward J. Wood, of Wilmington, came over Tuesday night on professional business.

Rev. J. M. Wells, D. D., and Rev. P. W. DuBose, of Wilmington, were in town this week.

J. M. Harvey, Sunday school evangelist for Wilmington Presbytery, spent Sunday in Whiteville.

W. M. Cummins, Wilmington, attended the Progressive Program conference at the Vineland Presbyterian church Tuesday.

Mrs. Kate Babson of Wilmington, is spending a while here. She was accompanied by Miss Nina Mae Packer.

From the Greensboro Daily Record: Miss Mary Wilson left this afternoon for Wilmington to visit Miss Carolyn Northrop.

From the Robesonian: RED SPRINGS, Feb. 1.—Miss Marjorie Russell, of Lumberton, was the guest on Monday of Miss Jane Dixon Vardell of the Conservatory of Music.

In the afternoon an informal tea was given by Miss Vardell in honor of her charming guest. Among the invited guests to meet Miss Russell were Miss Theima Given, violinist of New York, who gave a recital here at night, the Misses Hall, Townsend, Williams, Toon, Dixon, Bitner, Sayles, Williamson, President Vardell, Dean Vardell and R. H. Rice.

Mrs. Edward Cameron Holt and attractive daughter, Miss Dolores Holt, of Burlington, N. C., have arrived in the city. Mrs. Holt to be the guest of Mrs. Robert R. Bellamy at 509 Market street, and Miss Holt to visit Miss Mary Giles Bellamy, 323 South Third. The many friends of Mrs. and Miss Holt will be delighted to welcome them to their former home where Miss Holt spent her childhood.

Mr. J. McClellan Withrow, who for the past month has been traveling in Tennessee and Georgia for the Riegel Sack company, has returned to Wilmington and will be in the city for several days.

Miss Jane Hall, Rev. J. S. Crowley and Rev. J. J. Murray have returned from Southport where they were the principal speakers at a meeting held in the Presbyterian church in connection with the "Progressive Program" of the Presbyterian churches.

Women Voters to Meet

Information has been received in Wilmington in regard to the program of the third regional conference of the National League of Women Voters, which is to be held in Atlanta February 8 and 9.

To this meeting every woman in North Carolina is invited, whether she is a member of an organization or not. There are no official delegates. This meeting will give an excellent opportunity to learn at first hand about the national league, one of the newest and most progressive organizations of women in the country. Many of the misconceptions as to its purposes, its objects, and its work will be corrected, and an outline given of its plans, both nationally and in the state. The programs of the meetings will be most interesting, offering a number of brilliant speakers.

The sessions will begin at 10 o'clock Tuesday morning, February 8, and last through a night session Wednesday, the 9th. There will be diversions in the form of a banquet and tea.

Headquarters will be the Georgian Terrace hotel, where the North Carolina delegation are engaging rooms. For reservations write at once to Mrs. Emily C. McDougald, 87 East Fifteenth street, Atlanta, Ga.

It is hoped that a large number from North Carolina will attend. Every one open to all.

Gives Card Party

One of the prettiest affairs of the week was a card party given by Mrs. Latham Harris at the Cape Fear Country club. The prize for the highest score, a lovely portfolio of blue fitted out with dainty blue stationery, was won by Mrs. Robert Strange.

Following the game, Mrs. Harris assisted by Mrs. W. N. Harris and Mrs. D. M. Williams, served delicious ice cream flavored with ginger, pineapple and various fruits, little cakes iced in pink, sweet wafers and hot chocolate.

Dainty pink baskets were filled with candies and cleverly contrived rebusoids of pink, the stem of each twisted to form the base, held salted almonds.

The guests were: Miss Helen Menzies, Mrs. Mary Nixon Darden, Mrs. D. M. Williams, Miss Adelaide Worth, Miss Mary Giles Bellamy, Mrs. Robert Williams, Miss Essie Harris, Miss Lucy Murchison, Mrs. Robert Strange, Miss Meta Rountree, Mrs. Hargrove Bellamy, Miss Carolyn Northrop, Mrs. Frederick Willets, Miss Jennie Gilchrist and Mrs. Marion Harris.

Jackson Johnson of Winnabow spent Thursday in the city.

Meeting Postponed

The regular meeting of the Monday Evening Card club was postponed until Thursday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Marsden Bellamy entertained the members at the Cape Fear Country club.

PRIZES OFFERED FOR BEST SHORT STORY

Mrs. Howard Rondthaler, president of the Woman's club, at the meeting yesterday afternoon reminded the members of the Sept prize offered for the best poem written in the state, and the Joseph Caldwell prize to be given for the best short story written in North Carolina. These must be in by the first of May.

MISS REESE TO NEW YORK

From the Charlotte Observer: "Miss Margaret Reese left last night for New York to take a course in training at the Presbyterian hospital. She will first visit Dr. and Mrs. R. G. Reese, the former her uncle.

"Miss Reese is the only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Reese and is one of Charlotte's most attractive and popular young women and is exceptionally bright. Her departure is the source of much regret to society."

George Harwicke and Leo Harvey arrived last night from Kinston to attend the Inter-Six dance and spent the week-end with friends. Mr. Harvey is the guest of Mr. Maurice Moore.

Thursday Card Club

Mrs. David Scott charmingly entertained the Thursday Card club at her home 516 South Third street.

Mrs. Joseph Hooper won the prize for the highest score. Following the game Mrs. Scott served a delicious salad course with coffee.

Those playing with coffee: Miss Madeline Corbett, Mrs. Charles Becker, Mrs. Adair McCoy, Mrs. Kirby Smith, Mrs. Fred Little, Mrs. T. E. Brown, Mrs. Duval Scott, Mrs. Octave Higgins, Mrs. J. R. R. Harris, Mrs. Ned Hines, Mrs. William Peck, Mrs. Oscar Peck, Mrs. Joseph Hooper and Mrs. David Scott.

Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Clark, of Tarboro, arrived last night to visit Mrs. Houghton James.

Miss Menzies Entertained

Miss Helen Menzies entertained yesterday at a delightful meeting of the Friday Afternoon Card club at her home in the Carolina apartments. Miss Dolores Holt won a lovely picture frame as a prize for the top score.

At the conclusion of the game Miss Menzies served a grape fruit salad, delicious chicken patties, hot rolls, salted almonds, olives and tea.

The guests were: Mrs. Julia Morton, Miss Anne Saco, Cummins, Miss Jane MacMillan, Mrs. Robert Strange, Miss Sue Hardin, Miss Mary Giles Bellamy, Miss Dolores Holt, of Burlington, Miss Lucy Murchison, Miss Adelaide Worth, Mrs. Latham Harris and Miss Mary Nixon Darden.

Mrs. H. L. Lyon, of Whiteville and Mrs. Joseph F. Brewster, of Washington, D. C., spent Friday in the city shopping.

The following account from the Fayetteville Observer of the marriage of Miss "Mamie" Holt of Fayetteville will be of interest in Wilmington, as Miss Holt has visited here several times and has many friends in this city.

On Wednesday evening at 9 o'clock at the home of her mother, Mrs. Walter Lawrence Holt, in Haymount, Miss Mary de Rosset Holt, in the presence of her immediate family, became the bride of Mr. Robert Owen Burns, of St. John's Episcopal church officiating.

The ceremony was performed in the hall before an improvised altar, made beautiful with candles and Bride's roses, against a background of ferns and palms. As the strains of Mendelssohn's wedding march sounded, the maid of honor, Miss Dolores Holt, cousin of the bride, came down the stairs and stood at the left of the altar. Then the bride, on the arm of her brother, Mr. Walter Lawrence Holt, who gave her away, was met at the altar by the groom accompanied by his best man, Mr. William de Rosset Holt.

The bride was exquisite in a simple gown of chiffon, trimmed with Duchess lace, worn by her mother and great-grandmother, with court train of satin. She wore a tulle veil caught with coronet of lace and orange blossoms and carried a showy bouquet of Bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a string of pearls.

The maid of honor was charming in a gown of apricot georgette, embroidered in crystal, and carried a shower bouquet of sweet peas.

Immediately after the ceremony a buffet supper was served in the dining room, where the decorations were Bride roses and ferns. Mr. and Mrs. Burns left on the 11 o'clock train for New York and Boston and other points.

Mrs. Burns, who has always been known to her friends as "Mamie Holt," is the daughter of the late Mr. Walter Lawrence Holt and Mrs. de Rosset, originally of Wilmington, North Carolina.

Robert Owen Burns is the son of Adjutant General J. E. Burns of the state of Idaho. He graduated with honors at the University of Idaho, where he was a leader of athletics, and later was engaged as a civil engineer and surveyor of the state of Idaho. He saw service on the Mexican border and had 18 months' service as an officer with the American forces in France, where he was cited for bravery.

On his return to the state he was stationed at Camp Bragg, North Carolina, and has now settled in Fayetteville, where he has attained an unusual degree of popularity in both social and business circles.

Mr. and Mrs. Burns on their return, will be at home at 625 Haymount.

Enjoyable Oyster Roast

A most enjoyable oyster roast was given yesterday at Whiskey Creek when Miss Jennie Murchison entertained a number of friends in honor of Miss Beulah Armstrong of Baltimore, the guest of Mrs. Thomas C. Darst, and Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, of New Brunswick, New Jersey, who is visiting Mrs. R. H. Bellamy.

The guests motored down, leaving Wilmington about 1:30. With the piping hot oysters Miss Murchison served delicious Johnny-cake, beaten biscuits, pickles and coffee.

The guests included: Miss Beulah Armstrong, Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, Mrs. Eugene Le Grand, Mrs. Lawrence Sprunt, Miss Mrs. Beverly French, Mrs. Eliza French, Miss Marguerite Walker, Miss Rena Clark, Miss Margaret Bridgers, Mrs. Platt Davis, Mrs. Harlee Bellamy, Mrs. C. W. Bidgood, Mrs. Edward Wood, Miss Lizette Peck, Mrs. Thomas C. Darst, Mrs. A. B. Skelding and Mrs. John Murchison.

BRILLIANT LUNCHEON HONORING DISTINGUISHED D. A. R. VISITORS

From the Winston-Salem Journal: "The General Joseph Winston Chapter Daughters of the American Revolution added another brilliant event to its history on yesterday afternoon at 2 o'clock when they entertained at a luncheon at Hotel Frances in honor of Mrs. George Maynard Minor, president general of the D. A. R., and Mrs. John Laidlaw Buell, state regent of Connecticut. These ladies during their brief visit to the city are the guests of Mrs. William Reynolds, vice-president general from North Carolina.

"Covers were laid for forty-seven, in the private dining room, at a long table which emphasized the D. A. R. in its artistic decorations. In the center was a vase of narcissus resting on the hub of the D. A. R. wheel, which was fashioned of blue silk, the inscription on same being in gold letters. The hub of the wheel was made of pine cones and needles. Down the center of the table graceful greens trailed interspersed with pine cones.

Here six perfectly appointed courses were served. Mrs. George Maynard Minor, toastmistress. Responses were given by Mrs. W. N. Reynolds, Mrs. George Maynard Minor, Mrs. E. R. Carpenter, state regent, and Mrs. John Laidlaw Buell.

Other out-of-town guests present were: Mesdames T. E. Staley, of Bristol, Tenn., guest of Mrs. R. E. Lasater; Sam Hairston, of Wendeno, Virginia, and Mrs. P. R. Jones, of Danville, guests of Mrs. John Gilmer."

19 EGGS A DAY FROM 23 HENS, IN WINTER

Mr. Duni's Hens Increased Every Day. Plan is Easily Tried

"We have 23 chickens and hadn't had an egg all winter. In five days after feeding Don Sung, we got 4 to 5 eggs a day; in three weeks, we were getting 10 to 12 a day; in five weeks we got 15 eggs a day."—John Duni, Box 102, Cherry Valley, Pa.

Mr. Duni started giving Don Sung in January, in zero weather. He now keeps his hens busy in winter when hens usually loaf. A trial costs nothing. Here's our offer:

Give your hens Don Sung and watch results for one month. If you don't find that it pays for itself and pays you a good profit besides, simply tell us and your money will be cheerfully refunded.

Don Sung (Chinese for egg-laying) is a scientific tonic and conditioner. It is easily given in the feed, improves the hen's health and makes her stronger and more active. It tones up the egg-laying organs, and gets the eggs, no matter how cold or wet the weather.

Don Sung can be obtained promptly from your druggist or poultry remedy dealer, or send $5 (including war tax) for a package by mail prepaid. Burrell-Dugger Co., 214 Columbia Bldg., Indianapolis, Ind.—(Adv.)
