"Shipping News"

(A Maritime Paper)

Here is the record of their splendid days:

The curving prow, the tall and stately mast, announce the birth of a new ship.

And all the width and wonder of their ways

Reduced to little printed words, at last.

The Helen Dover docks, the Mary Ann departs for Ceylon and the Eastern trade.

Arrived the Jacque, with cargoes from Japan.

And Richard Kidd, a tramp, and Silver Maid.

The narrow print is wide enough for these:

But here: "Reported Missing" . . . the type falls.

The column breaks for white, disastrous seas.

The jagged spars thrust through, and flapping sails

Arrive at silent ports, and leave no more.

—David Morton in Contemporary Verse.

Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Small of 319 Greenfield street, announce the birth of a son on February 15.

Mr. Ralph Borling of Elizabethtown spent several days in Wilmington last week and Mr. C. Hester was here on business for one day.

To Become Cabaret

On Tuesday evening at 9 o'clock the Bluebird cafe will become the Bluebird cabaret and like Cinderella, will be gay until the stroke of 12.

The decorations will fittingly honor the first president's birthday and Miss Rosa Thompson will again take the part of the little bluebird soubrette.

Miss Hilda Reinhardt as America will give an original dance and there will be many other attractive features.

A special dinner is to be arranged but each cover will be seventy-five cents, and the guests may order as they wish.

James Robbins of Wilmington is on a visit to relatives near Elsie.

Lenten Recital

Following is the program of the second of the Lenten organ recitals which will be given each Monday evening at 8 o'clock at St. James church by Prof. Paris H. Myers.

1—Fantasia, Touris.

2—Minuet, Douglas.

3—The celebrated Largo, Handel.

4—Swedish Wedding March, Lodenman.

5—Variations on an American Air, Flagler.

6—Andante, Hayden, from Surprise Symphony.

7—Overture to Stradella, Flotou.

By special request the choir is to sing "Behold the Days Come," or "Send Out Thy Light," the former by Woodward, the latter by Gounod.

Entertains Friends

Miss Maud Etheridge Westbrook of Wrightsboro delightfully entertained many of her young friends at a party given at the home of her aunt, Mrs. J. A. Price, 514 South Front street.

The diningroom was attractively decorated in pink and white and when the large cake was cut, for this was Miss Maud's birthday, Mrs. J. A. Westbrook found in her slice the dime betokening great wealth.

The color scheme was attractively carried out in the refreshments, delicious ice cream and bananas.

Little Miss Westbrook received many lovely presents from her young friends.

The young folks who played games and frolicked from 3 to 5, were Misses Jennie Johnson, Hazel D'Orange, Dorothy, Caroline and Katherine Cunningham, Doris and Atha Trask, Ruth, Mabel and Ethel Hall, Gladys Johnston and Lillie Schroeder and J. A. Price, Jr., E. P. Cunningham, Jr., J. A. Westbrook, Jr., Frank Abbott, Jr., E. R. Herring, Jr., Louis Larson, Watson Hall and Charles Cox.

Mr. and Mrs. Julian Morton announce the birth of a son, Hugh MacRae, on February 13.

Mrs. F. J. Johnson and little daughter, of Rowan, spent a day in Wilmington this week.

Her many friends in this city will be delighted to know that Mrs. Burkhead of Whiteville has arrived in Wilmington to spend a week with Mrs. W. H. Nye, at her home on South Fifth street.

Another Dinner Dance

Those of the younger set who attended the Valentine dinner dance, last Monday, at the Bluebird cafe, will be delighted to know that Tuesday night, February 22, there will again be held another of those delightful affairs, in the form of a Washington birthday dinner-dance.

New entertainers are promised, and the music will again be furnished by West's orchestra, which made their initial appearance at the last Bluebird dance.

Mrs. Chas. H. West, and children, and W. M. Hurst, have gone to Lexington, Ky., on a few weeks visit to relatives and friends. Before returning they will visit friends in Georgia and South Carolina.

The International Association of Machinists will give a benefit dance at Lakeside park pavilion, Monday evening, 8:30 to 11:30. There will be several dance contests, and a good time is assured all who attend. Music for the occasion will be furnished by West's orchestra.

Judge C. E. Godwin, of Lexington, who has been living at Southport while conducting extensive timbering operations, was in the city last night, en route to Lexington on business.

GOVERNOR MORRISON GIVES RECEPTION NEXT TUESDAY (Special to The Star)

RALEIGH, Feb. 19.—Governor Morrison's reception to the members of the general assembly and their families will be given at the executive mansion next Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Charles E. Brown arrived last night from High Point, to join her husband, who is city editor of The Star. Mr. and Mrs. Brown will make their home at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. D. A. Huggins, 204 Nunn street.

Ellis-Leonard

K. J. Ellis and Miss Essie Leonard were married yesterday afternoon at the Marine hospital, where the brother of the bride is stationed. Rev. J. A. Sullivan, pastor of Calvary Baptist church performed the ceremony.

Get Fortunes Told

What is your fortune? The girls of the Sample club of the Y. W. C. A. found out last Monday night at a very delightful Valentine party given by their leader, Miss Nell Durham, at her home in the Carolina apartments.

After a business meeting, at which plans for making money for conferences were discussed, the girls conferred with Master Chi Chi to find out just what Dame Fortune had in store for them. Some hopes were revived and a few disappointments were foretold.

Valentine's day being a time when one's fancy naturally turns to matters of the heart the guests were pleased to find one in their number who could read palms and could help solve many problems.

Who got the ring out of the cake? Who got the button and who got the dime? It seemed quite fitting that Miss Virginia Callahan should have drawn the dime since she has strated a savings account as a result of a study of thrift the club had taken up a few weeks ago.

The club members left feeling that the future had much in store for them and that the club was on the happy road to success.

Y. W. C. A. CLUBS MAKING PLANS FOR MARCH ACTION

Forty girls from the junior and sophomore classes at the high school met in the Y. W. C. A. gymnasium immediately after school Wednesday afternoon. Greater strength and unity are secured in this way and a school spirit rather than a class spirit is developed.

Bigger things can be accomplished and the continuity of the club from year to year will be secured. The advisers for the club are Miss Ethel Smith, Miss Norma Styron, Mrs. Senior and Miss Marjory Solomon. The following officers were elected: President, Carolyn Price; vice-president, Mary Lena McNair; secretary, Gertrude Moore; treasurer, Dorothy McNair.

constitution committee composed of Barbara Senior, Mary Parker Fryer, Virginia Cathell and Madeline Kellum was appointed. The club will meet again for lunch and a discussion meeting next Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

The girls of the freshman class will meet in gymnasium at 4:30 Wednesday afternoon to organize a freshman girls' reserve club.

Thursday at 3:30 the Goldenrods will meet with their adviser Mrs. Ben Dunham, Jr. At their meeting last week new officers were elected as follows: Scout chairman, Annie King; outings and innings chairman, Lillian Weaver; service chairman, Nellie Capps.

New officers for the Bluebird club are: Scout chairman, Jessie Lee Merritt; outings and innings chairman, Betty Singletary; service chairman, Alma Pridden. The club will meet at 4:30 next Thursday and go for a hike to Hilton.

A very delightful Valentine party was given by the Gladheart club Friday night. A number of the girls' boy friends were invited. The gym was decorated with hearts and red crepe paper which gave a festive appearance. Very delicious refreshments were served which consisted of cake, coffee, and ice cream with a red heart in the center. About 25 were there and all had a nice time.

The Gladhearts will meet at 3:30 next Friday afternoon.

The Sorosis will meet at 12:15 next Saturday to go on a hike. Each girl is to bring her own lunch.

Rainbow club will meet at 3:30 at the Delgado club room next Saturday afternoon. This is a very important meeting.

Miss Dock Entertains

Miss Elizabeth Dock very delightfully entertained a number of her young friends at a Valentine party given at her home on Wrightsville sound Tuesday evening.

There were two boxes of candy given to the boy and girl getting the most words from Valentine. Miss Adrian Hamby winning the prize for the girls and Farley Wells for the boys. Miss Dock's guests included: Misses Tille Munn, Adrian Hamby, Kathrine Schnibben, Esther Silverman, Virginia Cathell, Sirlam Canady, Dorothy Pickard and Neld Davis and Martin Pearsall, Edwin Cathell, Farley Wells, Eugene Pickard, Victor S. Williams and Dudley Humphrey.

Many games were played, after which refreshments were served.

Birthday Party

Nita McDonald, charming, little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel B. McDonald, 910 Chestnut street, celebrated her third anniversary Thursday afternoon and invited quite a company of little folk to her home. Cream and cake were served and each guest was given as a favor a basket of homemade mints. The children attending the happy event included Mildred and Elizabeth Robbins, Mary Elizabeth Foster, Ruth Davis, Myrtle Pope Stevens, Mildred Badon, Mary Southland, Herbert McDonald, Sam McDonald, Jr., Jack Cramer, Edwin Wilson, Lloyd Woodcock and Clarence Davis.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Holmes and small daughter, Doris, are spending some time in this city.

B. Y. P. U. Oyster Roast

One of the most enjoyable events of the season, was an oyster roast given by the Craig union of the First Baptist church Thursday night on Greenville sound. Those in the party were: Miss Jennie Dodson, Mr. Koefler, Miss Ruby Larkins, Frank Profeter, Miss Mary Hatch, Robert Bell, Miss Mary Marshall, L. S. Sharpless, Miss Effie Rhodes, P. K. Hanson, L. A. Coresea, D. Smith, A. E. Maynard, Miss Mary Clair Peterson, Mrs. Dr. W. C. Ferguson, George E. Niblock, Lila Woodcock, Ira Autry, Pauline Williams, Miss Grady, Miss Cornelia Brady, William Hartfield, L. H. Reinhardt, R. Biandon.

The young people were chaperoned by Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Foville.

Schoenthaler-Niblock

Yesterday at 2 o'clock at the parsonage of the Southside Baptist church Miss Harriett Schoenthaler, of Lakewood, was married to George Niblock, originally of New York, but now of Wilmington, were married by Rev. W. G. Hall.

To Attend Wedding

Mrs. Oscar Hamilton, of Goldsboro, formerly Miss Elsie Emerson, of this city, and Miss June Hubbard of Forest, Va., sister of Clifford Hubbard, have arrived in Wilmington to attend the marriage of Miss Jane Emerson to Clifford Hubbard, formerly of Forest, now of Alberene, Va., which will take place on Monday. Clifford Hubbard and younger brother, Dexter Hubbard will arrive this morning. Miss Eleanor Hubbard, first cousin of the bridegroom, will also attend the marriage.

Mrs. C. M. Butler and daughter, Miss Marie, have just returned from Washington, where they have been on a short visit to Mr. Butler's nephew, Maj. H. C. Maddox, U. S. A.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hill on February 9, a son.

James Meiers and Eugene Turrentine left Friday to attend the mid-term dances at the University of Virginia.

Special Feature Supper

The Sons and Daughters of Liberty of the New Hanover Council No. 6 will give a George Washington birthday supper in their lodge rooms 19 South Second street, on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock. The committee in charge is composed of Mrs. D. H. Barnett and Mrs. W. M. Bentcliff. The members of the lodge and the general public are cordially invited.

Born to Mr. and Mrs. William E. Tusch, February 17, a son.

Democratic Dance

A most delightful dance was given at Port Caswell on Friday evening under the auspices of the American Legion, and everyone had a splendid time from the highest ranking officer to the newest recruit.

The grand march was led by Miss

Beatrice Carson and Capt. Harold Bliss. Miss Carson, a trained nurse who is at present living in Southport, was the only feminine member of the Legion present.

The dancing began when the Sawyer had made her 8 o'clock trip from Southport. She docked at Caswell wharf had gone down to Southport by car. A goody representation from Southport and a trio from Wilmington, Messrs. Herbert O'Neill, Davenport and Gray Hicks.

Bladen Journal, February 17: "Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Sanderlin spent two days this week in Wilmington. L. F. Squires and son, Restored, were in Wilmington one day this week. Miss Clara Frederer, of Wilmington, was accompanied home Sunday by T. M. Sullivan."

When a Woman's Fancy Fondly Turns to Thoughts of Clothes

THE first whiff of real spring weather and winter clothes immediately seem cumbersome and out of date. For a day of balmy air and sunshine you feel you must have spring clothes.

WHEN you begin to wonder what to have for spring, why just turn your steps this way; all the styles, fabrics and colors are here for your selection; suits and coats for every occasion, and every need.

And although style is the all important thing on these bright spring days, the far-sighted woman insists on high quality, too. We insist on giving it to you—in WOOLTEX TAILORMADES.

They give you a correctness and excellence of tailoring, a fineness of fabric that will take you through and beyond this spring and keep your garments trim and good looking for many, many months.
