Society News

Miss Athalia Bunting, Editor, Phones 61 & 558-J

They were met at the altar by the bridegroom and his best man, Dr. E. F.

rendered, after which Mendelssohn's

The bride was lovely in a suit of midnight blue with grey accessories and carried an arm bouquet of Bride

The bridegroom is one of Goldsboro's

Several prenuptial events have been given the bride, followed by a reception at the home. The happy young couple left on the noon train for an extended bridal trip to New York and Canada, after which they will be at

The out-of-town guests for the wedding included Mrs. F. F. Butts, Mt.

Olive; Mrs. M. W. McIntire, sister of

Batchelor, Raleigh; Miss Annie Snell,

Tarboro; S. F. Sasser, Wyoming; and

Stewart-Nutt

Episcopal church, Miss Sarah Rebecca

Stewart became the bride of James

Dickson Nutt, the ceremony being performed by Rev. Robert E. Gribbin, friends had gathered to witness the marriage which was characterized by

of the bride being Miss Elizabeth Nutt, who entered with the bride. They

The bride wore a navy blue suit of tricotine, with accessories to match and her bouquet was of Bride roses

The, maid of honor wore dark blue

Following the ceremony Mr. and Mrs.

SOLEMNIZED AT FLORENCE

FLORENCE, April 7 .- A wedding, beautiful in its simplicity, took place

Lutheran church, when the Rev. H. E.

Beatty performed the ceremony that made Miss Leah M. Stooks and Martin

The bride was very lovely in a gown of baronet satin of porcelain blue, and carried Bride roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by her sister, Mrs. Fred Mayer, who wore brown friends of each bride and bridegroom, and a few members of each family be-

Mr. and Mrs. Schnibben left on the ta, Charlotte and other cities, thence

Mrs. Schnibben is a nasive of Elmira, N. Y., but has lived in Florence

Mr. Schnibben, although a native of vice of the A. E. F. forces during the Upon their return to Florence Mr and Mrs. Schnibben will make their

From Past and Present

It will be of especial interest ! to those who read Dr. Sprunt's article yesterday in which the old plank road tollhouse was mentioned, to know that the tollhouse itself is still standing in ground on which it had been built the it serves admirably as a floral work-and England and is an "ace."

ler, on West Evans street.

STOOKS-SCHNIBBEN NUPTIALS

F. Schnibben man and wife.

groom and his best man, D. C. Love.

An unusually large number

Wednesday at 6 o'clock at St. John's the bride, Wilmington; Miss Margaret young business men and has a wide recessional march was played.

circle of friends in the state.

W. E. Hughes, Philadelphia.

rector of St. John's church.

and fresias.

ing present,

"To a Wild Rose" was softly with

I looked through others' windows On an enchanted earth, But out of my own window-Solitude and dearth.

And yet there is a mystery I cannot understand-That others through my window See an enchanted land. -Jessie B. Rittenhouse.

Miss Lois Toomer will attend the annual meeting of the national league of nursing education, Kansas City,

Miss Katie Lou Meredith has returned from a visit of several weeks to her sister, Mrs. J. H. Hightower, Mrs. Ronie Barnhill and little daughter, of Atkinson, visited Mrs. Barnhill's mother, Mrs. Alice Harrell, at Rowan last week.

Mrs, Benjamin Washburn and little daughter. Louise, arrived yesterday to visit wee Miss Washburn's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Worth. The Wineca Missionary circle of the First Baptist church will meet this morning at 10:30 o'clock with Mrs. Clayton Grant, 904 Market street. The Woman's club of Winter Park will meet this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. L. J. Beringer.

Tme Rosary Everyone who has so often heard of this motion picture will have an opportunity to enjoy it this evening at 8 o'clock at St. Mary's school hall, corner of Fifth and Ann streets. This picture has been endorsed by the press, clergy and laymen throughout the world. Each reel is brimming with interest, pathos and gratifying entertainment and the picture is as interesting as the spoken drama and the book itself.

Miss Williams Several days prior to Wednesday jade beads, a dark blue hat trimmed original little invitations reading as with jade green ribbon and carried a follows were sent to a number of friends of Miss Catherine Williams, bouquet of yellow snapdragons tied with yellow tuile. whose marriage to Gilbert Feard will Nutt left for points north. They will take place April 12: "I know a lady soon to wed and be gone for a week after which they she is anxious to make good bread. will be at home at 1800 Chestnut street. ilso wishes to bake, boil and stew, to make puddings and cakes and good pies, too, so, on April the sixth when the clock strikes four, I will ask you to be at my front door. Among your mother's receipes blease look and bring one to write in the bride's cook book!

"MRS. WILLIAM LATIMER." As the clock was striking 4, the guests were lifting the brass knocker, and came in armed with recipes ranging from mother's mustins to grandmother's sally white cake and "tater pone." A very convenient loose leaf book was waiting and as the recipes were written on various sizes taffeta and pink rosebuds. B. W. Butof paper, it was very interesting to ler was best man. The marriage was find which would fit well enough to be a very quiet one, only a few intimate pasted in at once and which would have to be copied over. Each recipe was signed by the name of the giver and some cleverly written in rhyme evening train for a honeymoon of ten days or more. They will go to Atlan-

Following the written refreshments, fruit punch was served and a delicious ice course, daintily carried out in a to Wilmington to visit Mr. Schnibben's color scheme of pink ....

Mrs. Latimer's guests were Miss Catherine Williams, Mrs. Allen Jones of New York, Mrs. William Johnston for the past two years, making her of Asheville, Mrs. W. A. Benton, Mrs. home with her sister, Mrs. Mayer. Her E. Hooper, Mrs. Charles F. Green, lovable disposition and charming per-Mrs. Robert Williams, Mrs. J. Holmes sonality no less than her beauty have Davis, Mrs. Frederick Willitts, Mrs. made for her a large circle of friends W. O. S. Southerland, Mrs. Broadfoot, and admirers. Miss Katie Foard, Miss Meta Rountree. Miss Mary Wright Taylor, Miss Kate Wilmington, is claimed by Florence Faison, Miss Julia Faison, Miss Alice as one of the most progressive young Walker, Miss Lucy Murchison, Miss business men. He is manager of the Gertrude Bell, Miss Katherine Elliott, opera house and is making a signal Miss Margaret Lippitt, Miss Margaret success of his undertaking, "Snibs," Kingsbury, Miss Florence LeGrand, as he is affectionately known to his Miss Lossie Cotchett, Miss Mary Giles | many friends, was in the aviation ser-Bellamy, Miss Essie Harriss, Miss Laura Parsley, Miss Jane MacMillan, war, spent much time in both France Miss Adelaide Worth.

MISS WATERS IS BRIDE OF MR. SASSER AT GOLDSBORO home at the residence of B. W. But-

Special to The Star) GOLDSBORO, April 7 .- One of the prettiest weddings this spring was solemnized at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Waters Wednesday at 10:45. when their daughter, Ethel, became the bride of M. Vance Sasser, of this city. The house was beautifully decorated with ferns, smilax and baskets of Mrs. E. J. Moore's garden, 1506 Marwhite carnations. Preceding the cere-mony Miss Margaret Batchelor, a stu-toll house was moved back and on the nied by Mrs. C. W. Waters, Jr., at the piano. To the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march the bridal party entered, first the maid of honor, the bride's sister, Miss Mary Lou Waters, gowned in a lovely black lace dress with picture hat carrying an arm box. sang "God Made You Mine," accompawith picture hat, carrying an arm bouquet of pink Killarney roses, descended the stairs into the east parlor, followed by the ring bearer, little Ernestine Waters, niece of the bride, dressed in white organdie, carrying the ring in calla lily. Next came the bride on the arm of her brothes C. D. Waters.

WHAT'S YOUR HURRY?

-:THE:-VANITY PARLOR

302 Southern Building Open After 6 P. M. by Appointment

Argentine Sheep Hands Form Bands and Devastate the Southern Country

BUENOS AIRES, March 7 .- (Corre- their religious duties. spondence Associated Press) .- The far Pope, of this city. The vows were spoken under an improvised arch pines, ferns and white carnations. The officiating minister, Rev. Geo. T. Watkins, united them in the holy bonds of wedlock, the ring ceremony being > territory of Santa Cruz, dissatisfied the government. with the humdrum life of sheep shearing and sheep tending, which is the occupation of the great majority of the people in those remote regions, converted themselves into a band of bushrangers and commenced to hold up the inhabitants in the best Jesse James style. Their example was quickly followed by their fellows on many other establishments and among them they soon "mobilized" formidable gangs of desperadoes which terrorized the hest at over 1,000. The bandits, who were well armed with rifles and mounted on the best jured. horses, raided all the likeliest estaber and his employes in a helpless po- | known, says the report.

the cutting of boundary fences. The panic they caused among the sheep farmers and others was so great that utmost simplicity, the only attendant The police had more than one endefeat with many casualties. were met at the chancel by the bride-The Argentine government finally sent cavalry to deal with the bandits. Some of the milder spirits among the "rebels" gave themselves up while others numbering about 200 took to the mountains and still others fled to the adjoining territory of Chubut where canton crepe embroidered in green they are reported still to be making trouble.

> INDIAN RELIGIONISTS FIGHT OVER THE INCOME OF SHRINES

persons were killed, was restricted to doors remain the same, however, and Tuesday at the rectory of St. Luke's after a period of 70 years, the heavy timbers seem as sound and sturdy as they were when old Aunt Becky Nixon, now dead, but then a little ginghamfrocked pickaninny, used to ride on the seat by the coachman when the W. A. Wrights drove to their home on the sound, and little brown Becky shivered with fear at the old man folks had to pay to let them by.

The rioters were described as old

Sikhs and reformers, the former of whom included the managers of important and richly endowed shrines. That at Nankana is the wealthiest of them, its annual income, derived largely from landed estates, amounting to tens of thousands of pounds. The Mahants, who are in charge of such shrines, regard themselves as life tenants of the estates and secure in their possession as long as they discharge

The reformers opposed this view. south of the Argentine republic has They alleged that deplorable abuses been the scene lately of a series of exist in connection with the shrines. adventures, the account of which reads The revenues, they contend, belong to as though it had been lifted from the Sikh community and should be adsome United States story of the "wild ministered under their control. But to west" in its palmy days of lawless- the reform party, says the report, there have attached themselves a num-Peons of some of the ranches of the ber of thickes as well as enemies of

The attacks on what is termed the vested interests of the old Sikhs began with the occupation of certain shrines at the Golden Temple of Armistar. The incumbents there gave way. They submitted also to being ousted from some minor shrines at other places.

But at the end of January a serious fight occurred at Tarn Taran in the Armistar district. A band of reformparts of the territory with absolute ers which suddenly appeared there sucimpunity. Their number was estimated ceeded in getting possession of the shrines only after losing two lives. Some 25 persons altogether were in-

The old Sikhs held a meeting at Lalishments, burned the buildings, stole hore the day before the attack at Nanall the valuables to be, found, and kana which, it had been rumored, had obliged the employes to join their been impending for some time. Apranks. Even when they omitted this parently the reformers numbered about last outrage they would leave the own- 200. Just how the fight began is not sition by carrying off all the horses. The deputy commissioner who start ed his investigation the day that the In certain instances they did a great fight occurred, was told that the Madeal of wanton damage such as the hants had been victorious. The fight wrecking of shearing machinery and had taken place inside small shrine enclosure which was commanded by houses on all sides.

"The inquiry into the facts," conmany of them abandoned their cluded the report, "was hampered by crowds of excited Sikhs from all parts of the Punjab who accused the Moslem counter with the "enemy" but suffered neighbors of the shrine of having :ssisted the Mahants."

WHAT'S YOUR HURRY?

meeting of the Advisory Council of Sepa Grotto, No. 79, M. O. V. P. E. R., Friday, April 8, at 8 p. m., in the Scottish Rite Hall of the Masonic Temple. This is an im-portant Meeting in which every member is inter-LONDON, March 23 .- (Correspond- ested and, therefore, every member of ence Associated Press).—The fighting the Grotto is not only invited, but ex-Nankana, India in which about 130 pected to be present. Arrange you dates accordingly.

By order of the Advisory Council.

S. L. BOYD, Clerk.

WILMINGTON SCHOOL OF 314 Grace Street Enrollment starts now, in the fol lowing branches:

Vocal, Piano, Violin, Elecution, Sight
Reading, Musical History, Harmony,
Organ, China Painting, Italian, Spanish, French and Glee Club.

Call or Phone 2387-L2 for Appointment

OUR ANNUAL BARGAIN WEEK SALE March 28 to April 2

PORCH CHAIRS!

PORCH CHAIRST

An opportunity to buy your summer wants at a bargain. Painted or unpainted. $7.00 reed seats and $8.00 large porch chairs for ...... $8.50 large porch chairs

The C. W. Polvogt Company 127 Market Street

The Little Gown Shop

Temporary Location: 507 Southern Building

WILMINGTON, N. C.

Sale of Women's White Silk Hosiery Friday and Saturday

Our entire stock of Van Raalte and Triple A White Silk Hosiery will be on sale today and tomorrow only at very low prices.

* * *				7	M. A. Bai
$1.50 White S	silk Hosiery .	remote a contract	Q	9	1.00
$2.00 White S	silk Hosiery .				1.50
$2.50 White S	lik Hosiery .			9	2.00
$3.00 White S	Silk Hosiery .	ations and of		9	2.50

D. Brown Company

"Right In Quality, Style and Price"

Mail Orders Solicited

Today and Tomorrow are bargain days at this store, and the first bargain will be all remnants at one-half the original price. New rémnants have been added daily.

Friday and Saturday Millinery Special

Choice of Hny Hat in the House

$16.50

Sport Hats and Leghorns Not Included

The lady that hase been waiting for the big reduction can, at last, secure a wonderful hat of Salingers, Harmony, Johnson, or perhaps, a Blossom, Cupid or Belnor. Some that have been selling at $32.50. Today and tomorrow only at

After Easter Sale Spring Hats

Some very clever new creations; lots of them; $8.50 and $10.00 values. Today and tomorrow only

$2.85

Collars 39c

Special for these days we will sell one lot of organdy and lace collars at 39c that were values up to $1.50.

Rompers 69c

Children's rompers and creepers: odds and ends: values up to $1.69. Materials, Kiddie cloth, ginghams and chambray; all colors.

Figured Voile 59c

All the newest figures and color combinations. Regular price 89c per yard.

Philippine Gowns $2.95

Hand-made Philippine gowns and teddies, made of the finest materials with beautiful designs. Values to $4.00.

Jersey and Homespun Spring Suits, Special $18.75

Brand new-just out of their wrappings. All pure wool-tested materials. There are many attractive styles for street, for sport, for traveling, at only ......