TARIFF PASSES HOUSE AFTER HEATED DEBATE BY A VOTE OF 269-112

Handful of Democrats and a Few Republicans Bombard Measure Four Hours

SUBMIT TO SENATE Charge Is Hurdled Back and Forth That House G. O. P. Has Taken "Dictation"

WASHINGTON, April 15.—Republican leaders, supported by all except eight of their own party and by 15 Democrats, pushed the Young emergency tariff anti-dumping bill through the house late today. The vote was 269 to 112, with two members voting present.

Passage of the measure came at the end of a stormy session during which a handful of Democrats aided by a few Republicans had harassed the leaders of the Republican side persistently for more than four hours. Charges were hurled, not only by Representative Garrett, Tennessee, acting Democratic leader, but Representative Manning, Minnesota, and Representative Jones, Massachusetts, both Republicans, as well.

The battle was later continued when Representative Mondell, Wyoming, Republican leader, announced a plan for the house to meet tomorrow to receive a report from the immigration committee. This was objected to by Mr. Garrett, who said the Republican members of the immigration committee had agreed without first to the organization of their committee. Democratic committee members had not been selected, Mr. Garrett asserted. After half a dozen exchanges, Mr. Mondell agreed to wait, and the house adjourned until Monday.

Heated discussion marked the tariff debate, which revealed a wide split in the Texas delegation. Several Louisiana members also supported the anti-dumping program. The discussion was particularly bitter when Representative Connelly, Democrat, Texas, chided his colleague, Representative Hodge, for "desecrating his party."

Besides Mr. Hodge, the roll call showed the following Democrats voting for the tariff: Parrish, Blanton and Jones of Texas; Hodge of Missouri; Martin and Lessor of Louisiana; Smithwick, Florida; Taylor, Florida; Lea, California; Clark, Florida; Campbell, Pennsylvania; Lanford, Georgia and Deal, Virginia.

Mr. Garrett declared the position in which the house was placed by Mr. Fordney's statement as "indefensible," adding that all discussion in the house will serve no purpose. Representative Mann, Republican, Illinois, attempted to smooth the troubled waters but the Democrats kept up a running fire of wit and sarcasm during the rest of the debate.

Mr. Fordney's earlier declaration that no amendments could be attached was followed by the Republicans who downplayed any attempt to make changes and the bill went to the senate.

Watson and Johnson Flay the Treaty With Colombia

California Republican Denounces Proposed Treaty as "Wrong to Theodore Roosevelt"—Senator Lenroot Joins Him in Declaring Treaty a Species of Blackmail—Tom Whallon Makes Maiden Speech Against It, His Voice Shrill

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The Colombian treaty was brought under hostile fire today in the senate. Two Republican senators of the progressive group, Johnson, of California, and Lenroot, of Wisconsin, attacked the pending pact for three hours as a "wrong to Theodore Roosevelt" and "an invitation to every crooked knave in the world to blackmail the United States."

When they had concluded, Senator Watson, Democrat, Georgia, making his maiden speech, turned on administration leaders supporting ratification. He accused Senator Lodge, of Massachusetts, of having changed from opposition to support "because of the baneful position which Secretary Fall has piped into this treaty."

Senator Johnson charged President Harding with preaching economy in his inaugural address and another urging that $25,000,000 be "squandered and thrown away" on Colombia for a "mythical purpose which is yet to be disclosed."

Senator Johnson declared that Senator Lodge had "managed his mind regarding the treaty" but should not ask others to "make every turn of the wheel with him."

He paid special attention to the speech of Senator Forney, of Ohio, a supporter of the treaty. The Ohio senator's long address, Mr. Watson declared, could be "boiled down into one sentence: That we stole something and ought to pay."

As he proceeded, the Georgia senator's hair drifted into his eye and his voice, with characteristic emphasis grew shrill, as he gestured with extended hands while Mr. Watson challenged, pointing at Senator Forney, who with knitted brows made no response. "Even in a Georgia judge when he is on the stand, a thief we ought to be man enough to name him. The senator from Ohio did not name his thief. He also should name the accomplices."

Senator Watson declared that Senator Forney had "made his mind regarding the treaty" but should not ask others to "make every turn of the wheel with him."

STATE DEPARTMENT IS ACHIEVING ITS POINTS WITH FOREIGN NATIONS

Indications Are Allies Will Fall Into Line as Regards Island of Yap

TREATY THE BASIS Harding Administration Likely to Use Both Treaty and League as Foundation

WASHINGTON, April 15.—The United States is slowly winning its way in negotiations with foreign governments. France has acceded to the American viewpoint on the status of the island Yap and there are indications that Japan, Great Britain and the other allies will fall into line and agree to dispose of the controversy by internationalizing the island.

Secretary Hughes is handling the delicate negotiation with splendid tact and perseverance. Although he is not being quoted in the newspapers every day and is careful about the comments that are authorized for publication, he is giving the Washington correspondents a rare example of frankness in dealing with the press.

There has been a great deal of trouble about press agents and public propaganda. There will be no such trouble under Mr. Hughes. He is his country's best spokesman. He grasps the situation to the new of the day and the feels should be given. But his most signal service is in foreseeing possible grounds for misunderstanding. He can use in a question asked by the newspapers further ahead sometimes than the department was soon to be reorganized.

Mr. Hughes appears to be well satisfied with the progress made in negotiations thus far with foreign governments. The department of state has had a difficult job—taking up the threads of a tangled web without situation. But President Harding and Mr. Hughes have talked over the whole field of foreign affairs and Mr. Hughes knows the cardinal principles. With the enthusiasm and vigor which he has acquired his handling of big legal problems in the past Mr. Hughes tackles each question in diplomacy with a rapidity and thoroughness that have already produced a favorable impression throughout the national capital. It is not usual to find early enthusiasms so quickly justified.
