

Announcement

John I. Chipley, formerly part owner of the Jones Motor Sales Company, authorized Wilmington dealers in Ford Cars, Fordson Tractors, Parts and Supplies, has acquired the entire interest held in the company by C. H. Jones, who is no longer connected with the firm. J. Ben White, who has been managing the business for the past several months, will continue with the company and will be in active charge. Temporarily, the old name of the Ford representatives—Jones Motor Sales Company—will be continued.

Jones Motor Sales Company

SALES AND SERVICE

INHERITANCE TAXATION IN STATE OF NORTH CAROLINA

By WILLIS SMITH

Inheritance Tax Attorney, Raleigh

Paper Read July 6 Before the North Carolina Association of Superior

ourt Clerks, in Session at Wrightsville Beach.

ontrary to the general idea in- , had allowed to pass, and which eritance taxation is not a new device must recognize and protect. form of taxation, either in North heavy progressive rates of tax are them away entirely." 'arolina or in the world at large. Rather it is a very old principle that imposed, and this is done not merely as been in use in a great many coun- for the amount of tax that may be again upheld in the cases of State vs. | law. The law with respect to personal $237.07. And I might pause just here ries of the world and in a great many derived, but also to aid in the break- Bridgers, 161 N. C., 246, and Norris vs. property had been in the statute books to say, that the first item of $6.45 was states of the American union. It has ing up of large estates. It is now Durfey, 168 N. C., 321. The first of and a very dependable source of reve- recognized by most all economic au- these cases also determines certain imposed a small tax on both direct and the superior court of Johnston counfrom times of antiquity, and it is thorities that inheritance taxation is questions as to the methods of apsaid that it is one of the forms of a form of tax that is less burden- praisements and collection of the tax taxation in practice by the Ptolomies some to those who have to pay it, and also as to the meaning of the law any, attention was paid to its enforcef Egypt. Furthermore, Gibbon in his than any other form of tax. The ex- with respect to exemptions, and con-Rome says that it was in- emptions to dependents are usually strues the in loco parentis part of the of 1901, chapter 9. Then at the sestroduced into Roman law by Augustus, very liberal and in this way hardship statute. This case also settled the sion of 1905 the legislature amended and was employed as a means of sup- is avoided. It is a means of reduc- question that where there is a differ- the law so as to make it operate on ing the Roman army The tax is a source of revenue in and those who have to pay the large os of the civilized countries, known amounts never really miss the tax the time of collection, the first law the act, which was continued through Ferent names in the various paid. Of course it could be a dang- will control as to the rate and amount the acts of 1907 and 1909. It seems n'cles England adopted it in 1780, erous instrument in the hands of radi- of tax, and the statute in force at that both the attorney-general and it has been highly developed cals who have no respect for the the time of collection, as to the meth- the state treasurer had construed and particularly in the Au- rights of private property. The grad- ods of appraisment and collection. It was first introduc- uated and progressive rates establish-United States by its employ- ed in many jurisdictions including our 1846, taxed collateral kindred and law was turned over to the state taxe Pennsylvania in 1826. There- own, recognize the principle that the strangers, except widows of deceased commission, and this case was made was adopted in Louisiana. son of the poor man who is left bare- at 1 per cent. and Maryland, and then in ly enough with which to start off in years after Maryland, North | life, this inheritance being the re- supreme court construing this statute. passed its first inheritance sult of labor and saving on the part the first of which was in the case of to realty as well as personalty, and There are several decisions of his hard working parents, ought Huner et al vs. Husted, 45 N. C. 141. that the construction placed on the preme court involving this not to pay proportionately, the same This decision settled the question so law by administrative officers of the aw, and its amendments, which as those children of fortune whose often asked by persons not thoroughly state were not binding on the courts. hereafter. This every whim and caprice can be satis- familiar with the inheritance tax law, The estate in this case then paid to its various changes and fied by the riches left them, without remained the law in this any effort on their part. When inheritance taxation is con- the estate of the deceased. This is still, amount paid by any single estate up the until its repeal in 1874. from time until 1897 North Carolina silered as a property tax, if, of course, the law in this state, as the tax is to that time, except the estate of sing to a great many pershall be applied equally as to its estate tax. have thought that inherittaxation was a new fangled de- burdens, and its application shall be this state. The law has been mended very materially since 1901, there have been numerous decis- tax, but a tax on the right to pass transfer of property within this state the case having been decided onfundamental principle of the in mind and when considering inheri- our law today. that a man cannot carry with ly in mind when considering inherit-into the next world the posses- ance taxation laws. he has acquired in this world. protected by the law of the ndation principle it must be re- ty. It has been such a long time since Carolina.

the creature of positive law. The right C. 141 involved the question as to become and remain a dead letter for so inheritances taxes received by the to give or take property is not one whether or not an executor was to be long, I do not know, but when the state, every year, from 1901 to 1920; as pedient to deny it.' Justice Brown, in re Mann's estate, 138 N. C., said:

"The right to take property by dewould escheat to the government or and the several amendments thereto. this tax $603,229,92. fall to the first occupant. The au- The next question determined by our thority which confers such rights may supreme court was in the case of Nor-In some states and countries very impose conditions upon them, or take ris vs. Durfey, 168 N. C. 321, and it The constitutionality of the law was that gave new life and effect to our received by the state the sum of collateral heirs. It seems, though, that not much if ment, and it was amended by the act each year, these collections being ing the patrimony of the idle rich, ence between the law in force at the both personal and realty. There was alty not contesting the law as to the

This decision was really the begin-sion authorized the state tax commission then employed assistants and attorneys in various parts of the state.

decedent's death, and that in force at some slight defect in the wording of these acts to exempt real estate, and The act of 1846 chapter 72, laws of just afterwards the enforcement of the

There were several decisions of the court from Wake county. that the tax is paid by the legatees or the state taxes to the amount of more

This is probably violates the fundamental and uni- on the takers of the property, and not George W. Vanderbilt which paid the versal requirement that all taxation on the estate tax, as is the federal tax on realty as well as on person-The next court decision in this realty.

uniform and not discrimnatory. But state, in re: Alvany vs. Powell N. C. 50, inheritance taxation is not a property in which it was determined that a ning of the law's strict enforcement. Fourts which I will treat, and receive property either by descent by a non-resident decedent was tax- February 24, 1915. Immediately or by will. This must be kept clearly able under the law of 1846, and such is thereafter, the legislature, then in ses-

Then the case of Barringer vs. sion to emply special assistants or Cowan, 55 N. C. 436, where it was held counsel to enforce the law, the com-" Of course the inheritance tax law that a bequest to a church and to a pensation to be on a commission basis, must leave such posseg- has not passed without many a chal- college may be taxed. This is the not to exceed 5 per cent of the lenge, the first of which was, as might status of our law today as to such in- amounts collected. The tax commisunderstand thoroughly the be expected, as to its constitutionali- stitutions without the state of North

The next question presented to the but only a few of those employed ever state succeeded to all the property inherit, or to devise or bequeath his court was in the case of State vs. did any real work on the proposition. possessions of a decendent. The property that the average man for- Brim, 57 N. C. 300, in which it was Everywhere the law met with opposilege of taking property by will or gets that it is by the exercise of held that a resident next of kin was tion, and in some cases defiance, and a descent is not one of the inalien- power by the state that these rights not subject to the law where the de- great many local attorneys of course are guaranteed him, and that he had cedent died a non-resident, and his did not feel justified in stirring up the

of those natural and inalienable rights chargeable with the tax on valueless state tax commission took charge of shown by the reports in the state which are supposed to precede all currency that was left on his hands as the matter, and the legislature of auditor's office. government, and which no government a result of the war of 1861-65 and the 1915 provided the commission . with can rightfully impair. There was a court held that it depended on whether means of enforcing the law, a source time, at least as to gift by will, it did or not the executor was required to, of revenue of tremendous importance not exist; and there may be a time make good the valueless currency in was opened up, and today this is one again when it will seem wise and ex- his setlement with the legatees. Of of the main sources of the state's course if the legatees received full revenue. In the year 1914 the state value instead of the valueles currency, collected from inheritance tax to the then the tax would have to be paid. extent of $19,898.19. In 1915 it col-The above cited cases together with lected $31,495.06, and this was the vise or descent is not one of the the case of Pullen vs. Commissioners year that the enforcement was really natural rights of man, but is the crea- hereafter mentioned constitute all of begun. The following year there was ture of the law. Should the supreme the decisions of our court prior to collected $153,759.18, and during the law abolish such rights, the property those cases involving the law of 1901, fiscal year 1920 the state received from

The tremendous development of this means of revenue can be realized. was really the decision in this case when it is seen that in 1901 there was since 1897, chapter 168, and this law collected by W. S. Stevens, clerk of ty. During the years 1903, 1904, 1909 and 1913 the state collected from to that part of the statute placing $12,000 to $16,000 in round numbers, > swelled by several large estates pay- allowing such the lowest rate of tax, ing the tax on personalty at the time of settling the estates. The following schedule shows the

NORTH CAROLINA BONDS FOR SALE

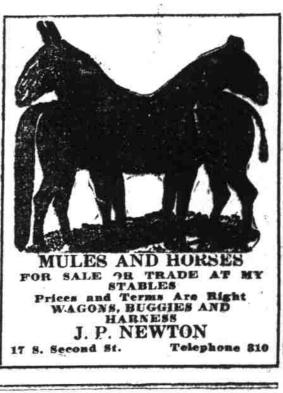

BUY A BOND

Bids open in my office in Raleigh at 12 o'clock, Friday, July 15th. For building good roads and educational and charitable institutions North Carolina is issuing bonds in denominations of $100, $500 and $1,000. a test case, and went to the 'supremo You can buy a $100 non-taxable 5 per cent band for $100.00 and accrued in-The court held that the law applied terest, which amounts to $100.21. This beats a 6 1-2 per cent tax-paying investment. Bids for $500 and $1,000 bonds will require a check for 2 per cent of the amount bid. With a $100 bond no check is required. There is distributees, respectively, and not by than $9,000 which was the largest no better way to invest your savings. Apply to me for further information. B. R. LACY, State Treasurer. Jul. 8-10-12-14.

1901 .....$ 237.07 1902 ..... 4.240.69 1903 12.578.82 ....... 16,000.26 1904 ...... 1905 ..... 5.325.14 1906 4.673.41 ..................... 7,792.06 1907 ....... 1908 5.533.60 14.795.87 ....... 6.159.80 1910 9.822.32 1911 ...... 1912 5,264.65 ...................... 16.672.33 ..... 19,899.19 1914 31.495.06 1915 ..... 153,759.18 1916 296,951.90 1917 ..... 376,437.72

..... 595,681.94 1919 1920 ..... 603,229.92 One of the troublesome questions that has presented itself has been as those who stood in relation of child to the decedent in the first class and along with lineal issue, direct ancestors, husband, wife and adopted child. This part of the statute was construed by the court In Re: Estate of John H. (Continued on Page Twelve.)

666 cures Malaria, Chills and Fever, Bilious Fever, Colds and LaGrippe, or money refunded.— Adv.

Announcing the Opening of THE ART SHOP OCEANIC HOTEL, JULY 9

Art Laces, Chinese Silk and Canton Crepe Kimonas, Embroidered Linen, Chinese Slippers, Oriental Perfumes and Novelties

PAY US A VISIT

A. J. FARGO

BUY YOUR GASOLINE AND OILS

Where Service Serves

Both the law of and the law of descents are no such right inherently. In the case estate was also outside of North Caro- animosity of some of their county's Fatures of the statute law. Without of Pullen vs. Commissioners 66 N. C. lina. The mere fact that the next of most prominent citizens. One of the statutes property would pass, 361, it was held by our court that such kin was a resident of North Carolina chief reasons for so much opposition the death of the owner, to the a law was constitutional. In the did not subject him to the tax. was that those employed were inimmediate occupant, or escheat opinion in that case. Justice Rod- In the case of Attorney-General vs. structed to investigate all settlements "But we do not regard the tax in revised code was construed as to the of the law, and this meant that in the state. man says: But in order that there might be orderly condition established in question as a tax on property, but payment of the tax by the executor or some cases the tax was collected many lized society the right was given rather a tax imposed on the succes- administrator into the clerk's office, years after an estate had been settled. a dying person to dispose of his sion; on the right of the legatee to at the time of settlement with legatee. This did not mean, however, that in-"Beessions by descent or by will, take under will or of a collateral dis- The tax on a legacy or bequest in nocent parties were made to suffer, as inasmuch as the dying person tribution in the case of intestacy-Is remainder after a life estate was held the collection of the tax was made ad to rely upon the power of the there any reason why the state shall to be taxable and due immediately and from the parties who owed the tax, disposition, it was but natural sion, whether it be by gift inter vivos trator's bond was called upon. that the state should feel that it was or by will or intestacy? Property it- 240." Anutiled to some part of that which it self as well as the succession to it, is The case of State vs. Brevard, 62 N. Just why the law was allowed to

Pioneer Service Station

(Formerly Y and F Service Station)

NEAR WILMINGTON HOTEL

FISK TIRES—SUNOCO OILS—CARS WASHED—ACCESSORIES