Always Another Flight Left
I have failed in a thousand places, But I still have the heart to try;
I am scarred in a hundred places, No darling of Luck am I!
In many a crucial hour I have hoped, and been scorned and kicked;
But never has Fate had power To convince me that I was licked.

I have trusted and been mistaken;
My friendship has been betrayed; I have struggled alone, forsaken By men who have had my aid; I have listened to those who flattered, Their motives misunderstood, But my faith has remained unshattered;
I believe in the ultimate good.

I ask for no unearned, No pathway through flowery lanes;
I offer a full, fair measure Of effort for all my gains; I'll try, though the pace be grilling, Nor think if I'm tripped or tricked, As long as my soul's unwilling,
To let me believe I am licked.

—S. E. Kiser.

Gilbert Murray and sister, Cora,

Proctor-Brown Engagement CHADBOURN, Aug. 20.—The following announcement is of much interest:
"Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Addison Brown announce the engagement of their daughter, Rose M. Proctor, to Edward Knox Proctor, the marriage to take place in October."

Miss Brown has been a frequent visitor at Wilmington and has many friends there. She was educated at Fassifern school and Agnes Scott college. Mr. Proctor received his B. A. degree from the University of North Carolina in 1917. During the World war he served as an officer in the 81st division, afterwards completing his law course at the university in February, 1921. He is from Lumberton where he has located to practice his profession.

CHILDREN STAGE ENJOYABLE
CAKEWALK CONTEST FRIDAY

The annual cawkwalk contest staged at Lumina Friday night under the direction of Miss Laonora Cantwell, in charge of children's dances, proved the most enjoyable and largely attended Friday evening event of the entire Lumina season. Two hundred and thirty couples, the banner number of the season, entered the competition for the two mammoth home-made cakes. The cakes were displayed on a stand in the middle of the dancing floor affording tempting views to the juvenile dancers who kept one eye squinted in the direction of the sweet meats throughout the series of elimination cawkwalk dances which determined the prize winners.

After three eliminations those who entered the finals were as follows: Irma Bonander with Theodore Bremer, Eleanor McDonald with Maggie Cantwell, Marjorie May with Henry Stern-berger, Eleanor Solomon with Lillian Hancock. In the final test Irma Bonander and Theodore Bremer, a couple who figured prominently in all of the children's contests of the season, were awarded the two cakes offered as prizes.

Jimmie McKay and Kenneth Scott added greatly to the enjoyment of the occasion by their clown impersonations, being chosen as leaders giving an exhibition cawkwalk to enable all of the children not familiar with it to follow, resulting in almost perfection for the event.

Miss Lillian Weaver and Miss Florine Weaver have returned to their home in this city after a pleasant visit to their sister, Mrs. C. A. Rainey, at Tampa, Fla. While away they visited Jacksonville, St. Augustine and a number of the popular beaches of that state, and en route home spent some time with their grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Mason, at Waycross, Ga.

Paul Weaver left yesterday afternoon for Waycross, Ga., where he will visit his grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. D. W.
Mason. Before returning to Wilmington he will visit his sister, Mrs. C. A.
Rainey, at Tampa, Fla.

John H. Jones, formerly assistant pastor of Southside Baptist church who is spending the week-end in the city, will sing at both the morning and evening services at that church today.

Mrs. J. P. Stackhouse, of Asheville, is spending a few days in the city as the guest of Mrs. R. V. Kennedy, 310 Walnut street.

Miss Marie Dreher, of this city, has been attending the Young Peoples Federation of the United Evangelical Lutheran Synod of North Carolina, which is holding forth its annual convention at the Salem Lutheran church near Salisbury.

Mrs. Allie Skinner, of Bishopville, S. C., arrived in the city last evening to spend a few days as the guest of her sister, Mrs. J. Davis Robbins, Jr., 219 Walnut street.

WEEK IS AN ACTIVE ONE
FOR GIRLS AT CAMP METTS
The past week has been a busy one for the girls at Camp Metts. A group of girls from Greensboro arrived Monday to enjoy a week at camp. Every minute was full to the brim of good times.

Thursday Mrs. C. C. Covington, president of the Y. W. C. A., came to spend the day with the girls and in the afternoon took them motoring to see the sights of Wilmington.

Thursday night Mr. Williams took the girls in his motor boat to ride the waves of the Atlantic. The sea being calm all heads were able to be up and enjoy the moonlight. Some kind friend was thoughtful enough to send watermelons, so a watermelon party finished a day well spent.

The following are the Greensboro guests. Nora Pope, Grace Earl, Annie Pope, Cora Dumnivant, Elizabeth Dun-nivant, Maddie Barrier and May Lewis.

Married Last Night
Irving Hastings, of Seaford, Del., an employee of the Newport Shipbuilding company, and Miss Lynch, of Sanford, Fla., were quietly married in the presence of a few friends last night at the home of Rev. J. S. Crowley, who performed the ceremony. Mr. and Mrs.
Hastings will make their home at 508 South Front street.

Arthur Goodman left last night on a business trip to Columbia, S. C., and Asheville. He will return late this week.

L. J. Coffey left yesterday afternoon for New York, where he will spend a short time on business.

In Spain a system of aerial fish transport is about to be put into operation whereby the inhabitants of Madrid will be assured of a fresh supply of fish, shrimps and shucked oysters. It now takes 24 hours to reach the capital from the seacoast by rail but the airplane service will deliver the goods in three hours.

The Pittsburgh chamber of commerce proposes to build 1,000 houses at a moderate price this year and sell them to families, on easy terms. Local architects offer their services without charge and material dealers have offered concessions.

A MESSAGE FROM ASHE-VILLE

The present summer has brought many visitors from Charlotte, Wilmington and Columbia into the Bon Marche at Asheville.

Many have made themselves known to us and told us complimentary things about Bon Marche stores in their "home town."

We were glad to meet these visitors and endeavored to be of service to them.

These strangers within our midst from cities where Bon Marche stores operate, do much toward strengthening the links between our stores and open the way for us to join hands in mutual consideration.

If some of your kinsmen or kinwomen from Charlotte, Wilmington or Columbia are in Asheville at this time, drop them a line to call at the Bon Marche. Not necessarily to make a purchase, but just to make themselves known to us.

We feel we have interests akin to one another. The Bon Marche of Asheville awaits the pleasure of meeting you.

Monday the Official Showing of What Dame Fashion Has Decreed in Suits and Dresses for the Fall of 1921

The New Fall
Suits

show new lines of grace with a little flare here and there, revealing more grace than you would think a tailored suit could hold; they are developed in an astonishing number of handsome serviceable cloths and are notable for their faultless tailoring.

The Dresses

boast of their new charm—to every passerby—knowing their triumph in other seasons it seems incredible that the silks for fall could surpass their summer sister—but they do—and their fashion is quite as enchanting as their varied fabrics.

The August Sale of Furs

Furs in the newest winter modes are best chosen in August, when the selections are most interestingly varied and the prices so moderate.

The furs selected for the August sale were chosen by experts—who recognize worthy, pretty and skilled workmanship—and enjoy the designer's appreciation of the most luxurious styles.

20 PERCENT OFF THE MARKED PRICE

And are charged appearing on bills rendered November 1, are the favors extended to patrons of the August sale.

How You Can Save
$150 to $500 a Year

Carbon costs the average motorist from $150 to $500 every 10,000 miles in removal and repairs. Still more money is lost in wasted power and gas.

Carbon is chiefly caused by faulty lubrication—the use of oils wrong in quality or type. Sunoco Motor Oil eliminates hard carbon, as proved by "The Burning Test."

Use Sunoco and you will save the cost of carbon removal and motor overhaul many times. Drive down and let us tell you more about this wonderful oil.
