A PICTURE
The stooping larch o'erhangs the cliff. Imag'd in waters below, stalacities point to the hazy tribes Disporting themselves for show.

The lilac leaves broad wave to the breeze. And change the vision quite. Chameleon-like, and instanter. They turn from green to white.

The goshawk with short flapping wings. Vents forth his piercing "shree." A warning sounds to lesser birds. A primal note, decree.

The climbers green ornate the walls. Of ancient cliff and crag. A-bearing upward to the sky. Like peaks of Brobdignas.

The gentle wavelets 'grin to break. Against the heavy cliff—
Lo! Ion comes like fairy maid. Borne by a phantom skiff.
—Frank Monroe Beverly.

Miss Mabel Eure has returned to her home in the city after a stay of some time in the western part of North Carolina.

Mrs. W. H. Wiley, of Birmingham, Ala., is spending some time in the city and section as the guest of friends and relatives.

Miss Levy Grissett and Miss Follie Grissett have returned to their home at Lynchburg, Va., after visiting friends here and at Little River, S. C.

Midshipman Louis Goodman, of the U. S. S. South Carolina, arrived in the city yesterday to spend a few days with his brother, Arthur Goodman, manager of the Bon Marche. Midshipman Goodman is a member of the class that will graduate from Annapolis next spring and his ship is one of the fleet that compose battle squadron two of the Atlantic fleet which has just returned from a practice cruise of three months, on which many European countries were visited. The young men will go to Norfolk within a few days to spend a short while with their mother.

Mr. and Mrs. Landon Robertson, of Danville, Va., are spending a few days in the city as guests of Mr. Robertson's brother, L. C. Robertson, Jr., on South Fifteenth street.

To Visit in New York
Mrs. Henrik Gahn left last evening for Washington to spend a few days while enroute to New York to visit her two sons, Paul and Erik Gahn, the latter being an auditor of the Standard Oil company who just recently returned from a trip of a year to Athens, Greece, and Sofia, Bulgaria. He will leave about the middle of this month for Vancouver, from which port he will take the "Empress of Asia" for Shanghai, China, where he goes on business. On her return to Wilmington, Mrs. Gahn will stop for several days at Washington with friends and relatives.

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas H. Wright who have been spending the summer at their Wrightsville Beach cottage, will return to their home in Winona Terrace this week and early next week will leave on an automobile tour of the western part of North Carolina.

Misses Rosa and Sadie Shaw have returned from Washington and New York where they spent their vacation.

Philatelic Class Tonight
The Philatelic class of the First Baptist church will meet tonight at 7:30 with Mrs. John Hanby, on the beach. A full attendance is desired.

Cool in Mountains
Herbert McClammy has returned to the city after a visit of a few days with his family at Lake Junaluska, in the western part of the state. The McClammy family has been spending the summer in the mountains and Mr. McClammy stated yesterday that last Friday and Saturday evenings he enjoyed the summer novelty of sitting before a comfortable open fire. He returned by Durham, where he was interested in a bit of litigation.

Miss Cowan Hostess
Miss Katherine Cowan, daughter of Mayor and Mrs. James H. Cowan, was hostess at an enjoyable affair at Wrightsville Beach Tuesday evening in honor of Miss Mary Allen Skelding, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Skelding, who leaves today for Charlotte, where Mr. Skelding is manager of the Southern Public Utilities company.

The occasion was a wicker roast, a fire being built out on the beach to do the roasting. Later the party returned to the Cowan cottage where delicious ice cream and cake was served by the hostess, after which the honoree, Miss Skelding, was presented with a pretty patent leather hand bag.

Those present included Miss Skelding, Miss Nannis Burr, Miss Esther Elliott, Miss Josephine Hinton, Miss Betty Willard, Miss Josephine Metts, Miss Lillie Dickerson, Miss Virginia Dickerson, Miss Frances Crane, Miss Louise Bolles, Miss Beverly Northrop, Miss Maggie Cantwell, Miss Louise Dock and Miss Elizabeth Parsley.

PLEASANT HOUSE PARTY
AT "MAYWOOD LODGE"
STANTONSBURG, Aug. 31.—Beautiful "Maywood Lodge" near this place, country home of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Yelverton, was the scene last week of much enjoyment when Mr. and Mrs. Yelverton entertained at a house party for the younger set.

Watermelon parties, motor trips to nearby towns and dips in the "old swimmin' hole" were a few of the many things that added enjoyment to the party. All agreed they had a most delightful time and the Yelvertons are charming hosts.

Included among the visitors were Misses Mary and Linda Warren of Greenville; Lucile and Julia Dixon of Norfolk; Gertrude Taft of Greenville; Lillian Chesson of Plymouth; Helen Yelverton of Goldsboro; Jonathan Daniels and Frank Daniels of Raleigh; Ruby Bagley of Wilmington; Haywood Lane of Wilson; Walter Wooten and Milton Barrett of Stantonburg, and Mr. and Mrs. Grandberry Dixon of Norfolk.

In Honor of Mrs. Lucas
Charlotte Observer, August 31: "Mrs. Josephine McLaughlin entertained at a family dinner party Monday evening in compliment to her mother, Mrs. Montie Lucas, the occasion being Mrs. Lucas' birthday. The guests were Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Watson, Mr. and Mrs. John Paul Lucas, Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Lucas of Wilmington, Miss Montie Boyette of Chatham and an attractive heavy of grandchildren. In addition to receiving the congratulations of her four children who were present, Mrs. Lucas received telegrams and letters from three absent sons, Mr. H. G. Lucas of Brownsville, Tex.; Dr. R. T. Lucas of Shreveport, La., and J. T. Lucas, of Denver, Col."

Miss Collins to Akron
After a visit with her parents here Miss Eliza Collins has gone to Akron, Ohio, where she will assume the duties of city executive in the girls' work department of the Young Women's Christian association.

Holland-Renniger Wedding
GOSPORT, Aug. 31.—A pretty marriage took place at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. A. B. Holland, Monday evening at 8 o'clock, the happy young couple being Miss Alice Holland and Paul Renniger, of Wilmington. The house was beautifully decorated in flowers and palms by the members of the Sunday school class of the bride. The maid of honor was Miss Elinora Holland, sister of the bride, Rev. G. T. Adams officiated. Mr. and Mrs. Renniger left for Washington, D. C., and other points north. They will make their home in Wilmington.

CRUISE OF DOG YACHT GETS YELPING RESULTS

City Dog Cart Begins Collection of Untagged Canines

The dog pound at the city stables was inhabited early yesterday morning when the dog cart went in operation to pick up all unlicensed dogs found on the streets. The pick-up movement continued through yesterday afternoon with resultant augmentation of canine evidence at the city stables.

The dogs picked up can be re-claimed by their owners provided they are called for today. The impounding fee and costs, plus the license tax, $2, must be paid before Bruno, Fido, et al., as they say legally, can be re-gained.

The pilot and first mate of the canine craft encountered no rough seas yesterday, but the motive power did give them cause for concern after one cruise. One leg of the mule pulling the cart was thought to be swollen and the craft was put in dry dock until a veterinarian could make an examination. He gave the motive power a clean bill of health, announcing that a permanent growth caused what appeared to be the swelling.

The voyage was resumed with telling and yelping results. Dog owners who have missed their purps are urged to go to the pound and reclaim their property during today, as the law empowers the authorities to kill all dogs after they are held for 24 hours. The best plan to be pursued is to pay the tax and put the tag on the dog. That is the best form of insurance known in police circles.

MR. RHETT IS PLEASED—AND PINCHED IN A PACKARD SIX
H. S. Rhett, with W. D. MacMillan, motor cars, has been conducting an economy test with the Packard Single Six in and around Wilmington, and Wednesday became so absorbed in watching the work of the new Packard model that he forgot to keep his weather eye on his speedometer, running at a speed of 60 on Scott's Hill road. Mr. Rhett cheerfully paid his ten and costs and says that what he has found out about the Packard Single Six is well worth the price.

He demonstrated that the small model Packard will give over 20 miles to gallon of gas in this territory, although a Texas demonstrator has made 28.9 to the gallon.

NEWARK SHOE CONTEST
The returns from the Newark Shoe company's popularity contest being held at Delgado last night were: Miss Elsie Pittman, 105; Mrs. S. Mintz, 75; Miss Daisy Batchelor, 65; Miss Mary Taylor, 35; Miss Nellie Russ, 30; Miss Lillie Baker, 30; Miss Maxine Holt, 25; D. O. Hewlett, 25; Quincy Durdan, 25; Miss Gladys Russ, 20. The final results will be announced Saturday.

We Repeat It Can't Be Done

When a store sells high and medium grade furniture at lower prices than any other store in the city, handles the best values, has the most complete stock to select from, like the Peoples Furniture Company does, it is impossible to keep the fine suits of furniture that they arrange for display.

Watch our store, see our truck on the street and you will know that we are unable to keep furniture at the low prices that we have marked on them.

Lovely New Silks for Autumn

There's a carnival air about these new silks for fall! New weaves and colorings pass in a gorgeous procession—a procession that includes brocaded chiffons, velvets and satins, metal cloths and Panne velvets for evening wear. Glossy, pebbly finished crepes and heavy meteor satins are equally smart for afternoon apparel!

Intricate threads of shining metal interweave gorgeous patterns on some new colorful brocades.

Carmen and Genoeve red, Ivy green and Sorrento blue are a few of the rivals of the ultra smart black.
