NEW ORLEANS COTTON NEW ORLEANS, Sept. 16.—Sellin out of long contracts, mixed with heds selling and offerings from traders wh figured that the market was due for prolonged downward reaction, key cotton depressed from the opening t the close today. Last prices were th lowest, showing losses of 64 to points, October closing at 18.44 cent pound and May at 18.15. It was a active session, but there was an ab sence of the aggressive support th market has been getting in many ses

The weakness of Liverpool was the main cause of the lower opening an in the early trading prices lost about $2 a bale. Frequent small recoveries punctuated the trading, but after most of them there were sags, which carries prices into new low grounds for th Heaviest selling came in the las half hour of trading and muca of appeared to be inspired by a privat bureau report on condition of 44.7 pe cent of normal which, it was claime included the damage done to the Texa crop by the storm of last week. Thi was considered, reflected only not mal deterioration. The weather over the belt was considered highly favorable for picking being warm and dry, and this ed some selling. After the middle of th day reports of easier spot markets i the south increased offerings. Spot here were 50 points lower, which re duced middling to 19.00 cents. About the only really strong upturn of th day occurred toward noon, following private bureau report, placing the condition of the crop at 38.5 and the indicated yield at only 6.400,000 bales.

movement, however, embraced almost as many issues, including many former favorites, notably U. S. Steel, which was among the leaders throughout.

There were no developments of outwere rallies of some 15 or 20 points was among the leaders throughout.

Shortly after the call on rumors of low private condition, figures including reports from New Orleans that an assobased mainly on increasing signs of re-bulge met increased offerings with the market soon becoming nervous and unsettled. Breaks of 48 to 58 points from ever, being most vulnerable to prescent. last night's closing figures were checked by covering early in the afternoon.

Otherwise, there appeared to be very little demand, however, and the failure tends of the general to pressure. Gross gains of 1 to 2½ points were much impaired or entirely cancelled in the obvious profit-taking of the last hour. The feature of an otherwise confuslate more buying probably encouraged ing foreign exchange market was a the afternoon selling. Much of the pressure was attributed to the liquidation of scattering commission house action of scattering commission house accounts and increased southern selling able. Sterling was firm, but francs hovers was reported on the late break to 18.67 for October and 18.85 for January. These prices were within 30 to

NEW YORK, Sept. 16. - Further 1.36 pected during the movement of the .00 pound in a few days, disappointed longs .00 naturally liquidate. It is this latter .00 force which has proven to be the balance of power and put the market lower. The bullish fundamentals remain unchanged. One of the chief pointers in this direction is the forwarding of 54,000 ales from Liverpool to Manchester spinners during the week. in the year these same spinnrs were receiving only 15,000 to 25,000 bales weekly. The American Cotton association is credited with having published a condition report of 38.5 per cent and calculated the crop at 6,400,000 bales. The remainder of larges and calculated the crop at 6,400,000 bales.

Aside from this on a market which has fallen over 2 cents per ter spinners during the week. It will be recalled that week after week early bales. The remainder of longs necessarily will have to be patient if profits are to be realized on purchases higher up. But unless all signs fail a very builtsh condition report by the government October 3 may be expected and by or before that time another stam-pede of buying should develop. ORVIS BROS. AND CO.

NEW YORK, Sept. 16 .- Cottonseed oil made some response early to the decline in cotton, but subsequently firmed up through short covering on the advance in lard and scarcity of crude offerings. Closing bids were 12 to 18 points net higher. Prime crude 8.00; prime summer yellow spot 10.00; October 10.05; December 9.65; March
