Miss Athalia Bunting, Editor, Phone 61

THE LOVER'S PSYCHOLOGY.

I was apart from you a long, long year.
 And learned to bear the parting. Not that I forgot for one slow moment that dragged by or ceased from longing, ever—but the cheer of youth was with me; and I knew my dear.
 That you were waiting—that our joy drew nigher
 And higher with each day; and I could try the help of patience, and I had no fear.
 But, having met, we've parted for a day,
 And every minute brings a sharp unrest;
 And all my newly-formed philosophies apply
 Has left me; and tomorrow's far away.
 Ah, further than the months when I possessed
 My dreams and hopes of this felicity
 —Ted Robinson, in Cleveland Plain Dealer.

DOES TWICE AS MUCH AS HE COULD BEFORE

Resident Of Clifton Forge, Va., Was Ready to Cash In—Gains Thirteen Pounds

"I used to tell my wife not to fix me any dinner for I couldn't eat anything; but a little while after starting on Tanlac I began to eat a bigger dinner every day," said J. W. Figgers, 78 Rose St., Clifton Forge, Va.
 "I had indigestion, my liver and kidneys were disordered, and my troubles got me in such a tight place I was just about ready to 'cash in.' My back and stomach hurt me so bad it was hard to tell which gave me the most trouble, and I couldn't eat, work, or sleep with any satisfaction.
 "I'm in fine shape now in every way and can do as much work in half a day as I used to do all day long. I've gained thirteen pounds in weight and I am now eating, working, and sleeping fine to make up for lost time."
 Tanlac is sold in Wilmington by R. R. Bellamy and all leading druggists.
