A very important called meeting of Stamp Defiance Chapter, D. A. R., will be held at the W. L. L. armory this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. A full attendance is urged, as matters of importance are to be presented.

One of the most enjoyable holiday events was the progressive ruck party Saturday evening, at which Miss Mary Lane was hostess at her home in Villa View. Prizes for the highest score was won by Miss Estelle Hinton and Mr. Ralph Mathes, the consolation being cut by Miss Margaret Sutherland and Miss Ellen Smith. Those playing the sides the hostess were Misses Estelle and May Hinton, Mary Parker Fryer, Margaret Sutherland, Elizabeth Dock, Ellen Smith, Elizabeth Taylor, Mildred Pearson and Messrs. Ted Taylor, Edward Sutherland, Ralph Mathes and Wright.

Circle No. 1, Fifth Avenue Methodist church, will meet this afternoon at 4 o'clock with Mrs. R. T. Presson, 106 North Fourth street.

Mr. and Mrs. O. K. Fridzen have returned from an extended wedding trip to Florida and will be at home at 605 South Second street.

Mr. Charles V. Thompson, of Polkton, and Miss Emma L. Maulsby, of Winter Park, were married at the home of the bride's sister, 506 South Fifth street, Saturday evening, the Rev. W. G. Hall, of the Southside Baptist church, officiating. Only intimate friends and the families of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony.

K. W. Partin left Saturday, returning to Harrisburg, Pa., after a visit here. He made the trip by automobile.

The Rev. Edwin F. Keever and Mrs. Keever announce the engagement of their daughter, Edwina, to Mr. John Conn Leatham, of New York city.

Harrelson-Grimsley
A quiet but pretty wedding was solemnized at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon at the home of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Grimsley, of Freeman, when their eldest daughter, Ethel Mae, became the bride of C. Leland Harrelson, of Whiteville, the Rev. J. L. Smith performing the ceremony.

Mrs. Harrelson is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Grimsley, and has many friends throughout North Carolina.

Mr. Harrelson is a son of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Harrelson, of Whiteville. Mr. and Mrs. Harrelson left on the 4:30 train for Lumberton, where they will make their home.

The only out of town guests were Miss Pearce Harrelson, and Mr. Ralph Harrelson, of Whiteville.

Long-Gallamore
MILLS RIVER, Jan. 1.—A social event of unusual interest in Mills River occurred on Thursday, December 27, at high noon, when Miss Alberta St. Clair Gallamore and Mr. Arthur Franklin Long were married. Miss Gallamore is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Gallamore and for the past several years has been a successful teacher. She is a refined, cultured and attractive young lady and an accomplished musician, being organist at the Presbyterian church. Mr. Long is a general salesman from the Chicago office of Swift and company and at present is managing salesman in the Wilmington district. He has a host of friends in Wilmington, who will welcome his bride to our city. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. S. Hutchinson of Asheville in the Presbyterian church. Long before the hour the house was filled with neighbors and friends. The ceremony was attractively decorated and was lighted with colored candles. Miss Josephine Gallamore was maid of honor and J. T. Vannerson of Columbia, S. C., was best man, accompanied by bridesmaids and groomsmen. After the ceremony about 50 relatives and close friends repaired to the home of the bride's parents, where a delightful wedding luncheon was served, after which the happy couple left for Columbia, S. C. After visiting points in Georgia and Jacksonville, Fla., they will return to Wilmington.

SUPREME COURT TO RE-CONVENE TODAY

Resumes Hearings After Three Weeks' Holiday; Pierce Butler to Take Oath

WASHINGTON, Jan. 1.—The supreme court will meet tomorrow after a three weeks recess. Based upon the record it made on returning from the former long recess, when by opinions and orders, it removed 78 cases from the docket, court habitues expect another big cleaning up after Associate Justice Pierce Butler of St. Paul has had the judicial oath administered to him by the chief justice, making him a member of the court.

Justice Butler will have the peculiar experience of not occupying the seat at the foot of the bench. Justices of the court are seated in order of seniority of service and it is customary for the member to go to the end of the bench to the left of the chief justice. As the resignation of Justice Pitney took effect today, however, Justice Butler will have stepped up the ladder from the end when he dons robes tomorrow and the chair at the extreme left of the bench will be vacant.

A number of important cases are now up for argument during the week, including the appeals of the American and foreign steamship companies in the liquor cases. These are expected to be reached Thursday. The first argument the court will hear will be upon the motion of the government to dismiss the original case brought by the state of New York challenging the constitutionality of the federal power act. The state contends that the federal government's control over waterways, within its borders is limited to navigable streams, and over them only the matters relating to navigation, while the government insists that the state has failed to present a controversy within the jurisdiction of the supreme court.

Other cases down for argument in advance of the liquor cases included that brought by Malcolm Douglas and others to test the constitutionality of the laws of the state of Washington requiring dentists to pass an examination to demonstrate their right to practice, a number of cases brought by the United States in an effort to recover from C. W. Lane and others owning land bordering on Ferry Lake, La., valuable for oil, an attack by the bankers, trust companies and others upon the penalty tax imposed by Connecticut for failure to include certain information in tax reports, and two cases brought by the United States shipping board to have determined the liability of the emergency fleet corporation to prosecution under state laws for injuries to its employees.

GRAVEN OFFICERS CAPTURE TWO BIG MOONSHINE PLANTS

Twenty Gallons of New Boozee and 1,500 of Mash Destroyed by Sheriff Williams

(Special to the Star)
NEW BERN, July 1.—The "moonshine" manufacturing capacity of this section was decreased by 140 gallons when Sheriff J. D. Williams and Mayor Stonehall Jackson, of Vanceboro, closed in on a plant on Big Swift creek, 15 miles from here, yesterday and captured two 70-gallon capacity copper stills and destroyed 20 gallons of freshly run whiskey along with 1,500 gallons of beer.

The officers spent half a day ranging the woods and swamps along the creek before they located the giant outfit. For several hours more they went through a regular "Easter egg" hunt for bottles and jugs of liquor that had been hidden in hollow logs and stumps as large as a quarter of a mile. All the officers left at the site of the still, however, were the fumes of beer and rum. The plants were brought to New Bern.

Bob Hawkins, general repair man at the city water and light plant, sustained a badly bruised foot, and a truck belonging to the plant was wrecked in a collision with a heavy tank motor truck in a traffic jam on upper Pollock street, late yesterday afternoon. L. Willis, driver of the heavy machine, escaped without injury. The accident was the result of a misunderstanding of signals between the two drivers, the city truck being struck broadside in the mixup.

A second "Tlustown" will be erected on the outskirts of New Bern to solve the problem of permanently housing the negroes made homeless by the fire, if a place attractive to them can be found. H. S. Stroud, who built the first "Tlustown" to take care of Norfolk's homeless negroes a year ago

Madame Bernhardt's Condition is Worse

PARIS, Jan. 1.—The condition of Sarah Bernhardt, whose convalescence from her recent breakdown was halted this morning by a series of fainting spells, was said tonight to continue unchanged, the actress remaining very weak.

Madame Bernhardt's reluctance to obey her doctor's instructions for absolute repose and quiet is greatly hampering her recovery, according to her intimate friends.

QUICK RELIEF FROM NERVOUS HEADACHE

Do you ever start the day with nerves tense, head throbbing, your whole frame taut and "on edge?"

Pure aspirin alone, you may fear to take because it gives you heartburn—but fear it no longer.

TINGLE'S LAXO ASPIRIN, the new perfected aspirin, combines the wonderful pain combating powers of genuine aspirin with a digestant added to prevent this after-discomfort.

Its laxative qualities further benefit the general system, enabling the body to throw off the toxins or poisonous wastes, which when pent up in the system are the cause of headaches and pain.

No aspirin on the market can so readily attack the pain of nervous headaches. Be sure when you ask for aspirin to ask for TINGLE'S LAXO ASPIRIN, the aspirin with the three points:

- It's absorbed easily
- It relieves pain quickly
- It's a gentle laxative
