All Dressed for Work

Fires will bother Jerry no longer. When Jerry goes to work in the Southern Pacific railroad yards at Oakland, Cal., he wears overalls on his forelegs. The hind legs can take care of themselves.

Family Game

This Bronx (N. Y.) girls' basketball team should have teamwork down to a science—and they have. The Pryor sisters, playing under men's rules, have a long string of victories to their credit. From top to bottom, they are Helen, Catherine, Amanda, Sarah, Mary and Theresa.

Wife Charged With Shooting

Gives Employees His Business

Henry A. Dix of the firm of H. A. Dix & Sons, New York City, has just given his entire business, which yields a revenue of over $1,000,000 a year, to his employees. Dix and his son have withdrawn from financial control. All profits will go to the workers.

Wanted: A Man

First Co-Ed

Unless Miss Lena Mord gets married within a year, she will lose her naturalization papers, according to a ruling of Judge Joseph B. David of the Superior Court at Chicago. "Anyone as good looking as you," said the judge, "does not deserve to be given more time to get a husband."

Union College, at Schenectady, N. Y., fourth oldest college in the country, has just admitted a girl student for the first time. Union's co-ed is Florence Folger, who is taking graduate courses in electrical engineering.

Ohio Princess Returns to America

Trial Separation for Peggy

London and New York separate Peggy Marsh and her husband, Albert Johnson (inset)—it's a "trial separation" to test the true worth of their love, according to Peggy. She went abroad after Johnson was shot last summer at Jack Clifford's camp, taking her son, the child of the late Henry Field, with her. But Peggy and Albert are heavy contributors to the cable companies' profits.

Gas Low, Mayor Raises It

Cold weather and low gas pressure constitute a civic emergency according to Mayor W. E. Nicodemus of Drumright, Okla. So he gathered a committee of citizens and tapped a private main for general supply. Picture shows the committee at work, with the mayor second from the right.

Welcome Gift

Uncle Sam's birthday present to Rear Admiral Hugh Rodman, above, commandant of the Norfolk navy yard, will be retirement of the admiral Jan. 6 from active service. Rodman will have been in the service more than 47 years when he celebrates his 65th birthday on that date.

Named in Suit

Mrs. N. Elizabeth McCann, above, of Los Angeles, is named by Mrs. Marjorie Weddington, wife of a wealthy resident of Lankershim, Cal., in a suit for separate maintenance. Mrs. Weddington claims her husband asked her to exchange husbands with Mrs. McCann.

Can't Quit

Something new in injunctions: Corunna (Mich.) business men are so proud of the efficiency of their mayor, Forrest B. Perry, that they're going to seek an injunction to make him run again. He gets $50 a year.

She Got "Doc" to Prescribe

But not what you think. Her baby had pneumonia, and the coal-less house was cold and damp, so Mrs. Albert Chapman of Dorchester, Mass., had the doctor prescribe a load of coal. The local dealer filled it, and announced that doctor's prescriptions would be given precedence in the future. Looks as if there might be more "fake" ailments for the doctors to treat.

Christmas on the Sands

It was on drifts of sand instead of snow that Miss Eve Alzman, society girl of Kokomo, Ind., spent her Christmas Day at St. Petersburg.

Can't Vamp the Jury

Here are two women on trial in a Japanese court. They have to wear baskets over their heads concealing their faces. So pretty faces don't move Nipponese judges and juries.

Two-Fisted

Joseph Murphy's the "fighting district attorney" of Nye County, Nev. He fought his way through college by appearing in four-round boxing matches. He won his diploma—and many of the bouts.
