

KIWANIS HEAR SAFETY ENGINEER IN FINE ADDRESS

W. D. Hales Speaks Before Club at Regular Weekly Meeting Yesterday

Tales of the Roman arena, at which we have shuddered, pale into insignificance beside the terrible slaughter in America by reason of carelessness declared W. D. Hales, of Baltimore, in an address before the Kiwanis club yesterday afternoon.

Mr. Hales appeared as official spokesman of the safety week committee of the chamber of commerce, under the auspices of which, safety week is being observed in Wilmington.

Carelessness, he declared is annually stacking up in America as the result of the sacrifices poured into the insatiable maw of the juggernaut that is running rampant over the country today.

Care in the driving of automobiles and in crossing streets, was urged by Mr. Hales as one of the greatest methods of eliminating accidents.

Mr. Hales was introduced by Kiwanian E. R. Christie, chairman of the club's safety week committee.

Capt. L. D. Porter, baby member of the club, was presented by Kiwanian Herbert Lynch, and expressed his appreciation at being elected to membership in a brief address that brought considerable applause.

A. J. Parker, prominent wholesale lumber dealer of Greensboro, and W. M. Robertson, of Maple Shade, N. J., were also guests of the club, the former accompanying Herbert Lynch, while the latter was the guest of W. Munroe.

Bishop Thomas C. Darst, ministerial member of the club, was again present after an attack of influenza. He was welcomed by the club and expressed his pleasure at being able to resume his Kiwanian activities.

Through President French, Kiwanian Dan Hodges expressed his appreciation for the thoughtfulness of the club during the illness of his little son.

Committees for the year were appointed by President French as follows: Education—W. E. Perdew, E. E. Bundy, C. B. Newcombe, J. C. Hobbs, H. E. Boney.

Publicity—P. H. Batte, H. C. Allen, Dr. J. G. Murphy, T. B. Caldwell, F. B. Gault.

Inter-city relations—W. A. McGirt, Thomas Darst, S. G. McMillan, E. E. Kilburn, F. B. Markey.

Public affairs—R. C. Cantwell, Jr., G. H. Bunker, James S. Williams, Nelson MacLae, Augustus Bonaud.

Business methods—C. P. Bales, John Hall, J. H. James, J. K. Bannerman, E. Y. Davis, J. A. Orrell, F. M. Southernland, E. O. Durant.

Law and regulations—G. L. Peschau, W. B. Campbell, C. G. Hogue, L. J. Poisson, R. E. McRary.

Classification—H. Solomon, Chas. M. Lee, Platt Davis, E. T. Hancock, E. E. Hahagen, Jr.

Grievance—J. E. W. Cook, H. H. Springs, C. R. Yopp, J. B. Lynch, W. P. McLaughlin.

Music—W. R. Doshier, R. C. Christie, Ernest Caynaugh, Dr. L. J. Meredith, H. C. Craft.

Program—J. D. Taylor, G. H. Hobbs, W. H. Wells, C. L. Meyers, I. W. Solomon.

Membership—C. C. Chadbourne, R. L. Meares, J. Marion James, W. B. Thorne, H. R. Gardner.

Notification—Herbert A. Lynch, Dr. A. D. P. Gilmour, D. M. Hodges, J. A. Alexis, W. B. Monroe.

Attendance—H. A. Huggins, Wm. Struthers, Sherman Shulken, E. Z. King, E. B. Haraah.

Reception—A. L. Perry, J. B. Hughes, David Oliver, D. B. Jacobi, B. T. Hopkins.

House—E. B. Cameron, W. H. Montgomery, J. C. Prettlow, C. E. Wendlinger, Fred Moore.

Finance—A. M. McCoy, I. W. Solomon, Robert Strange, C. C. Chadbourne, J. R. Matthews.

Legislative—W. B. Campbell, G. L. Peschau, C. G. Hogue, E. P. Williams, J. W. Hughes, C. J. Josenhans.

Health—Dr. J. C. Wessell, Dr. J. F. Robinson, Dr. J. B. Cranmer, R. L. E. Farthing, Dr. J. A. Moore.

Athletics—Walker Taylor, Dr. D. B. Jacobi, Wilbur Doshier, E. F. Brittain, B. M. Tuttle, W. H. Montgomery.

BIBLE AUTHORITY HEARD AT THEATRE

C. A. Wise Speaks Under Auspices of Bible Students Association

C. A. Wise, lecturer of the International Bible Students' association, addressed a large audience at the Victoria theatre last night, using as his subject, "Millions Now Living Will Never Die."

Mr. Wise said in part: "St. Paul states that Satan is the god of this world. World here means the commercial, political, social and ecclesiastical organization of men."

"With the descendants of Abraham, God formed a nation and made a covenant with them and named them the nation of Israel. With this nation he established the true religion. Satan with the nations aside from Israel established the false religion, causing them to worship devils. God warned the Israelites to avoid intercourse with the nations under Satan's dominion. Because Israel disregarded God's warning, he enforced his decree against that nation; and in the year 606 B. C. the nation was overthrown and a gentle nation permitted to establish universal rule in the earth. Satan there became the god of the whole world or order of things. From that time forward his earthly organization is symbolically designated in the Scriptures under the title of 'wild beasts.'"

"God promised to redeem man from death and to restore him to his original dominion. To accomplish this he sent his beloved Son Jesus to the earth. Jesus by his death upon the cross and resurrection provided and presented the great ransom price for the purchase of man. Jesus ascended to heaven and at Pentecost began the gathering to himself of his church. This selection of his church must continue until he returns for them, as he promised. (John 14:1-4). Those who are faithful unto death have the promise of being with him, spirit beings, in the new heavens."

"Jesus' disciples asked him how they might tell when the end of the world should come and when he would be present, and he answered the question. Satan's empire legally ended in 1914 and there Christ, then present, began to oust Satan. Jesus said: 'The way you will know of this is, that the trouble will begin a world war, followed by famine, pestilence and revolution in various places.' The gentle times end August 1, 1914, and exactly on time the World War started. This World War is the great famine that has come since, the pestilence of the Spanish influenza that swept the earth, the revolutions that are now on and have been on for some time in various parts of the earth—all mark the activities of the Lord in overthrowing Satan's empire."

"In Revelation 21:1-6 the Lord gives us a final picture of how his kingdom shall establish such conditions; that all tears of bitterness, suffering, pain and death shall pass away. The earth likewise shall be brought to an Edenic condition."

"The destruction of Satan's empire has begun and is in progress. Let us take courage; for soon it will be fully accomplished and Christ the Messiah will be in control, will in his own good time restore to men the dominion which was lost, and the earth will be filled with happiness."

"The Proof of Innocence" is a picture now being shown at Royal theatre, for it has that fidelity which is possible only in the picture actually photographed in that locality and its realism is further heightened by the featured player, Louise Dupree, who looks and acts the artists model.

"The Proof of Innocence" is a very pleasing entertainment unfolding a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

AMUSEMENTS

"LORNA DOONE" TODAY

A dozen bloody battles could have been fought, in the good old days, with the army of extra actors and actresses who appear in Maurice Tourneur's magnificent picture version of the familiar novel, "Lorna Doone," which is opening today at the Grand theatre.

For weeks during the production of this story, the scenes of which are laid in rural England and the London of the seventeenth century, the lot of the Thomas H. Ince studios, where the picture was made, literally bulged with "characters" and "types." Had it not been for the fact that the Ince lot covers nearly 20 acres the producer

"WHAT'S YOUR HUSBAND DOING?"

"What's Your Husband Doing?" will be the offering of the Pickert Stock company, now playing at the Academy of Music, beginning today and running throughout the week, with matinee on Saturday only. "What's Your Husband Doing?" is George B. Hobart's wonderful farce comedy on original idea of life. There is scarcely a laughless moment throughout the entire show.

Ladies, if you do not know what your husbands are doing, come to the Academy and see what he might do. Miss Pickert will be seen in the role of the trusting wife, who is responsible for the whole mix-up. Mr. Chambers will

Madge Bellamy and John Bowers in "Lorna Doone"

OPENING TODAY AT THE GRAND

would have been hard pressed to find space for the adequate handling of his vast array of "talent."

For years Tourneur has dreamed of filming some tremendous spectacle which would enable him to experiment to his heart's content with some original ideas as to the proper methods of handling crowds. When he undertook the production of "Lorna Doone" he decided that it should be on a scale which would outstrip in grandeur anything previously attempted, for the story furnished an ideal medium for just the sort of thing he had carried in mind.

More than 1,100 men and women were called for to appear in the brilliant court scenes and in the baptism scene in Westminster Abbey, according to the plans which he drew up, while for the thrilling fight scene outside the gate to the stronghold of the Doone fortress he demanded a thousand men and women.

"THE PRICE OF INNOCENCE"

There is always fascination in a picture with a Greenwich Village setting, the Bohemian section of New York city. This fascination is raised to the nth degree in "The Proof of Innocence," a picture now being shown at Royal theatre, for it has that fidelity which is possible only in the picture actually photographed in that locality and its realism is further heightened by the featured player, Louise Du Pre, who looks and acts the artists model.

"The Proof of Innocence" is a very pleasing entertainment unfolding a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Miss Du Pre has had columns of publicity based on her peculiar resemblance to a famous screen star; there is no doubt that her resemblance to that famous star is almost perfect. Her bid for fame need not be based on right and if her performance in "The Proof of Innocence" is a criterion, will win for herself a niche in the affections of the "fans."

Of John Hopkins, in the role of the artist, John Courtney, as well as of the other players in the cast supporting Miss Du Pre, it may be said that intelligent portrayals add to the general excellence of the picture.

When the picture actually unfolds a story which is pretty romance at the outset but which develops into melodrama when a thread of mystery is introduced into its skein, and in consequence it grips with its suspense; for here the artists model shows that the Fates have been kind to her in more ways than one, displaying uncommon sense in her deductions and finally clearing a mystery which brings the story to a happy ending.

Cotton and Tobacco Co-ops Meet Jointly

RALEIGH, Jan. 10.—At a joint meeting of executive committees of the cotton and tobacco co-operative associations for North Carolina, recommendations offered by the state agricultural extension service officials and field workers of the two associations for the union of the 900 units of the two associations for better crop productions and marketing, was approved.

ST. JAMES' MEN'S CLUB MEETS TONIGHT

The regular monthly dinner of the men's division of St. James' church will be held tonight in the parish house of the church at 6:15, the hospitality committee of the club announces.

These meetings are proving to be of great value to the men of the parish, and are doing much for closer fellowship. A large attendance is looked for tonight, as the meeting last month was almost overflowing.

KEEP BRAKES FREE

When forced to come to a stop in heavy traffic, be sure the brakes. Thus, if your car is struck from behind, only its weight offers resistance to move ahead.

SLEEPER to Raleigh can be occupied 10 p. m.; arrive Goldsboro 6:30 a. m.; Raleigh 8:52 a. m. Atlantic Coast Line.

Loosen Up That Cold With Musterole

Have Musterole handy when a cold starts. It has all the advantages of grandmother's mustard plaster WITHOUT the blister. You just apply it with the fingers. First you feel a warm tingle as the heating ointment penetrates the pores, then comes a soothing, cooling sensation and quick relief.

Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other simple ingredients. Musterole is recommended by many nurses and doctors. Try Musterole for bronchitis, sore throat, stiff neck, pleurisy, rheumatism, lambaro, croup, asthma, neuralgia, congestion, pains and aches of the back or joints, sore muscles, sprains, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest. It may prevent pneumonia and "flu." 35c and 65c, jars and tubes.

Better than a mustard plaster.

MUSTEROLE WILL NOT BLISTER

BETTER THAN WHISKEY FOR COLDS AND FLU

New Elixir, Called Aspirinal, Medicated With Latest Scientific Remedies, Used and Endorsed by European and American Army Surgeons to Cut Short a Cold or Cough Due to Cold and Prevent Complications

Every Druggist in U. S. Instructed to Refund Price While You Wait at Counter if You Cannot Feel Relief Coming Within Two Minutes

Delightful Taste, Immediate Relief, Quick Warm-Up

The sensation in the drug trade is Aspirinal, the quick-acting cold and cough reliever, authoritatively guaranteed by the laboratories; tested, approved and most enthusiastically endorsed by the highest authorities, and proclaimed by the common people as ten times as quick and effective as whiskey, rock and rye or any other cold remedy they have ever tried.

All drug stores are now supplied with the wonderful new elixir, so step into the nearest drug store, hand the clerk half a dollar for a bottle of Aspirinal and tell him to serve you two teaspoonfuls. With your watch in your hand, take the drink in one swallow and call for your money back in two minutes if you cannot feel relief coming within the time limit. Don't be haphazard, for all druggists invite you and expect you to try it. Everybody's doing it.

Take the remainder of the bottle home to your wife and babies, for Aspirinal is by far the safest and most effective, the easiest to take and the most agreeable, cold and cough remedy for infants and children, as well as for adults. Adv.

Chilblains ache and pain? MENTHOLATUM gives quick relief.

Ladies Keep Your Skin Clear, Sweet, Healthy With Cuticura Soap and Cuticura Talcum

MEN INSTRUCTIVE FREE BOOK

A RARE TREAT! A chance to see and compare the famous double and understudy of "America's Sweetheart" Mary Pickford, on the screen.

LOUISE DUPREE In Her First Independent Starring Vehicle "THE PRICE OF INNOCENCE"

ACADEMY PICKERT STOCK COMPANY THURSDAY, FRIDAY AND SATURDAY NIGHTS

"WHAT'S YOUR HUSBAND DOING?" MONDAY, TUESDAY, and WEDNESDAY

"THE SEVENTH GUEST" Admissions: Night 25c, 35c, 55c Matinee 10c, 20c, 35c

HOTEL SOUTHLAND TO the traveler, the Hotel Southland offers bright and cheerful rooms in an absolutely fireproof building and REAL service by properly trained employees.

Rheumatism?—banish pain! Apply Sloan's. Restore healthy circulation of blood through congested tissues. Since congestion causes the pain—almost instant relief!

BIJOU TODAY ONLY WILLIAM DUNCAN With Edith Johnson, in "WHEN DANGER SMILES"

A WONDERFUL, WONDERFUL PICTURE Sweeping scenes alive with all the glorious romance and thrilling action of the book. Drama in Lorna's rise from the hidden stronghold of the fighting Doones to the royal courts from which they stole her.

Statement of Condition of The Murchison National Bank of Wilmington, N. C. At the Close of Business December 29, 1922

RESOURCES Loans and discounts 9,252,952.19 Customers' liability acceptances 190,000.00