News of Markets—Cotton—Money—Grain—Stocks

COTTON

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—The cotton market was decidedly less active today and fluctuations were irregular. An opening advance was followed by a material decline, but after working off from 28.90 to 28.62 for May, prices steadied on reports of a renewed demand. That delivery closed at 28.75 with the general market closing steady, net 3 points higher to 18 points lower. Old crop positions were relatively steady.

LIBERTY BOND PRICES

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—United States government bonds closing: Liberty 3 1/2, 101.84; first 4 1/2, 88.88; second 4 1/2, 88.10; third 4 1/2, 88.90; fourth 4 1/2, 88.50; uncallable victory 4 1/2, 100.24; United States government 4 1/2, 89.96.

GRAIN

CHICAGO, Jan. 25.—Wheat averaged lower in prices today owing to more active trading. The volume of trading indicated the European situation was still causing a marked curtailment of business and a virtual absence of public interest.

STOCKS

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—Price movements in today's stock market were upward in response to more favorable domestic developments, but the volume of trading indicated the European situation was still causing a marked curtailment of business and a virtual absence of public interest.

NEW YORK COTTON LETTER

NEW YORK, Jan. 25.—While a decidedly reactionary feeling permeates cotton circles today following yesterday's showing of the market and the close of trading today yet with quotations are practically unchanged from the previous closing excepting October which again shows the greatest weakness. The idea that the Texas drought has been broken and the crop prospect consequently improved.

First Bath In 7 Years, So Town Declares a Holiday

It is not the custom in America to declare a holiday, hold a procession and go cheering through the streets, merely because one is going to take a bath. But they do in Poland, Latvia and Roumania, and no wonder, for most of them have not had a chance to get into a bath tub for seven years. Therein lies a great deal of their tragedy.
