PLAN FOR FUNDING BRITISH DEBT GOES TO THE PRESIDENT

Is Accompanied By Suggestion of Commission as to Congressional Action.

NEW RUMBLINGS OF OPPOSITION HEARD

Terms Agreed Upon By British and American Bodies to Be Attacked.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3 .- The plan for funding Great Britain's war time debt to the United States was turned over to President Harding tonight by the deft funding commission. Accompanying the plan was a statement by the commission suggesting methods of congressional action translating the results of the commission negotiations into law. The statement was not made

While the commission, in a pro-tracted conference, was formulating its views for transmission to the President, new rumblings of opposition to the plant were heard in both the house and the senate. At the same time Senator Lodge, the Republican leader in the senate, visited the white house to iscuss the situation with President Harding, and Representative Mondell, Wyoming, the house Republican leader, conferred with Representative Burton, of Ghio, a member of the funding committee, as to ways and means handling the settlement legislation in the house.

Present indications are for the President to send the settlement plan, to-gether with a brief message concerning it, to congress early next week, but this had not been definitely determined. The administration appears confident that it can muster all the strength necessary to bring action on the legislation before the end of the present session March 3, but Mr. Hard-Redding, Sadie Johnson; Bella Davis, ing is represented as desiring to have everything done in advance that will speed a final settlement.

settlement plan on the ground they constituted a discrimination. Several of them declared the rates proposed to be applied on the British debt were materially lower than the United States pays on its own obligations.

Administration officials, although admitting that rocks lay in the path the debt legislation, argued insistently that the plan agreed upon and accepted by Great Britain was just and right and predicted that it would be

WASHINGTON, Feb. 3 .- Clarence J Owens, president of the Southern Commercial congress, sent an appeal today to members of congress from the south-ern states urging support of the plan of the American debt funding com-mission for the settlement of the Brit-

The terms indorsed by the commission, Dr. Owens said, were in line with ecommendations of the International Trade commission, of the Southern Commercial congress, which made an extensive survey last year of economic conditions in Europe. The trade com-mission's report, Dr. Owens asserted, was adopted by the Southern Commercial congress at the convention in Chicago last November and the organization stands solidly behind the American debt funding commission's pro-

NEW LAMP BURNS 94 PER CENT AIR

BEATS ELECTRIC OR GAS

A new oil lamp that gives an amazingly brilliant, soft, white light even better than gas or electricity, has been tested by the U.S. Government and 35 leading universities and found to be superior to 10 ordinary oil lamps. It burns without odor, smoke or noiseno pumping up, is simple, clean, safe. Burns 94 per cent air and 6 per cent kerosene (coal oil).

The inventor, S. L. Johnson, 642 N. Broad St., Philadelphia, is offering to send a lamp on 10 days FREE trial or even to give one FREE to the first user in each locality who will help him introduce it. Write him today for full particulars. Also ask him to explain how you can get the agency, and without experience or money make $250 to $500 per month .- Adv.
