Society News From Over the State :.

Whiteville

itertained the senior class of the high Miss Sudie Rhodes were guests. shool at their home Friday night with most delightful party, complimentary their sister, Miss Maggie Maultsby, who is a member of the class and who y the way, is the only member of the lass who made the honor roll for the past six months.

The guests were met at the door by Misses Elizabeth Maultsby and Pollie Davis, dressed in white, ornamented little red hatchets. From the ights dropped red hatchets and they were found decorating various other parts of the room, to emphasize the fact that it was a Washington's birthday party. There were several contests, one beng written on red hatchets, the winners of this being Miss Eunice Black and Howard Gore. Another contest, requiring some skill, was the making as many words as possible from the letters in George Washington's name. The first prize for this was given to Miss Vista Fuller and Ivey Hickman. delightful refreshments were served, the favors consisting of attractive little red crepe paper baskets, filled with mints.

Miss Ella Doswell, who was a memher of the school faculty last year, is being warmly welcomed by her many riends here. She is visiting here for

Miss Kate Pullard, who is teaching at Clarkton, has been spending some time here, with her sister, who is con-valescing from an attack of influenza. Miss Foy Corbett, a student at Queens college. Charlotte, is spending a few days at home with her parents. Miss Corbett is recovering from an attack

Miss Lorena Lewis, sister of the late J. Lewis, died on last Friday at her nome in Fairmont, after a long illness. Her remains were interred in the Whiteville cemetery Saturday, funeral services being conducted by Rev. W. E. Merritt of the Whiteville Methodist

Mrs. Roy Walter of Boardman and Mrs Harry Morris of Wallace were re-Mrs. Rone Lewis.

J. R Gurganus has moved into his beautiful and commedious bungalow on Madison avenue. W. G. Prevatt has moved into Mr. Gurganus' former resi-

Brick is being placed for the new home of Mr. and Mrs. August Kraknke on Franklin street.

Daughters Confederacy, held a meeting at the home of Mrs. E. W. Jordan Thursday afternoon of last week. Neessary business was attended to. It was decided to give a bridge tournament at an early date for the benefit of the Jefferson Davis Memorial fund. A collection was taken for the Confederate Woman's home. Placing markers at veterans' graves was discussed. The hostess, assisted by Mrs. W. C. Owen, served sandwiches and tea.

Mrs. John Dunn was hostess to the missionary society of the Methodist ly meeting at her home Monday after-noon. After the routine matters were disposed of, it was voted to hold a mmage sale in connection with the sale of ice cream. It was also deter-Plans for presenting the Tom Thumb wedding were also discussed. Mrs. Em-ily Nixon assisted Mrs. Dunn in serving hot chocolate, sandwiches and wafers, Mrs. Will Moore is spending the week in Greenville.

Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Cooper and chil dren spent last week-end in Raleigh. Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Pierce, A. B. Baines and B. C. Sheffield attended the funeral of Dr. W. D. Crocker at Luama last Saturday.

Bladenboro

Mrs. Henry Bridger, Jr., was hostess to the Thursday club. The program consisted of papers and compositions of musical composers. Mrs. J. L. Bridger ead an interesting paper on Chopin, after which Mrs. Henry Bridger, Jr., layed a plano solo, "Scherzo," by him, Mrs. S. N. Watson read a paper on the life of MacDowell and Miss Sudie khodes played "To a Wild Rose" and To a Waterlily," compositions by Mac-

After this contest they were invited present.

into the dining room where frozen saiad was served, followed by plum pudding and hot tea. The hostess was assisted in serving by Mrs. J. Freeman. Be-Misses Marrie and Zelma Maultsby sides the club members, Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Fleacher of McColl, S. C. and > Mrs. J. L. Bridger was the charming hostess at a most elaborate Valentine party. About 30 guests were present. Many delightful Valentine games were played, after which an elaborate collation was served in the dining room, consisting of salad and an ice course. Mrs. M. C. Bridger is spending several weeks in Atlanta.

Mrs. Moore and Mrs. Fletcher of Mc-Coll, S. C., are guests of Mrs. J. L.

Sunday of Mr. and Mrs. N. M. Single-tary, at which time they enjoyed a tur-

Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Freeman are movng next week to Councill. Their many friends here regret to give them up. C. B. Buie and J. A. Bird are in Raligh attending legislature.

Mr. Strew, of the tSate college, is here for a few weeks to observe the work of the various departments of the high school. Mrs. M. C. Edwards has returned from an extended visit to her sister in New York city. Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Bridger, Jr., were in Wadesboro a few days this week. Karl Jansen gave an enjoyable entertainment at the school auditorium Thursday evening.

ton Wednesday shopping.

Miss Mamie McGill has a position in the store of the Bridger corporation.

Mrs. R. C. Bridger was in Wilming-

Cerro Gordo

T. E. Barden, former county treasurer, who has been quite sick with high blood pressure for the past several months, is again able to be on the streets, his many friends throughout the state will be glad to learn.

Miss Kinnie Inman, who resigned a position as bookkeeper for the bank of Cerro Gordo, a month or so since, has been succeeded by Mrs. Edith G. Hucks, of Chadbourn.

R. B. Stevens of Raleigh, president of the Cerro Gordo Brick sompany, of this city, was in town the first of last week. On his return to Raleigh he was ac-companied by Mrs. Stevens and children

Roberts Welch spent Friday of last week in Hartsville, S. C. Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Brown, of Bolton spent Sunday with Mrs. Brown's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nance, near

C. W. Harrelson, manager for the Farmers Cash Store company, was a ousiness visitor to Wilmington Tues-The James Kenan chapter, United day.

The James Kenan chapter, United day.

Dr. Fleyd Johnson, county health officer for Columbus, was in town Friday > afternoon. Wyatt Rouse, eight-year-old grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Luke Green, of the Cedar Grove community, sustained a broken collar bone Wednesday afternoon while playing "pop the whip" at Miss Agnes Griffin, of Elizabeth City, was a recent visitor in town. here for a number of years, and is one Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Nance, and of Wallace's most prominent citizens Mrs. Shafter Hammond and Miss Minta were Whiteville visitors Mon-

Chadbourn

Russell Sheppard, of Wilmington, spent a few days last week with his sister, Mrs. Roy Hand. Mr. D. M. Carter spent Saturday and Sunday in Fair Bluff with her mother.

Miss Dorothy Land, teacher at Rennert, spent last week-end here nert, spent last week-end here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Land.
Mrs. Harry Hudson, of Proctorville, was in town one day last week.
Richard Phelps, of Florence, S. C., was in town Tuesday.
Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Land, Misses Grethel Harpe and Annie Hall motored

o Fayetteville last Saturday.
Miss Bernice McDonald, of Freeman, spent last week-end with her sister, Mrs. J. F. Blake.

The eighth grade home economic class, with their teacher, Miss Annie Hall, gave a picnic February 23. Those enjoying the outing were the eighth and ninth grade girls and boys. The party hiked two and a half miles to Mineral Springs. On arrival a camp-fire was built. They were served boil-ed ham, boiled eggs, hot cocoa and toasted marshmallows, besides lots of good things carried by the home economic girls.

The Tom Thumb Wedding given un-The hostess then had each one go der the auspices of the Ladies' Aid of the "photograph gallery" and their the Methodist Episcopal church at the profile was drawn, hung up and the school auditorium Tuesday evening, an was in guessing "who was who." was quite a success and enjoyed by all was engaged in. Each one was requested to form an anagram, from the word "Martha Washington." This re-sulted in W. E. Stone winning the prize, "A Little Book of Verses," by Eugene Field. Following this came a contest which created much merriment. contest which created much merriment. Each person, in turn, was blind-folded and requested to provide "Billy" with wkiskers.

Old-fashioned games were then enjoyed, after which delicious refreshments were served, consisting of block ice cream, cake and candy.

Mrs. W. E. Stone entertained the members of the Boardman Book club at her home Thursday afternoon. This was the first meeting of the year and was in the hands of the home demon-stration agent, Miss Lillie Lankford, who gave an interesting talk on rug and basket making, and also gave a

A room at the armory has been of-fered by the managers of the Butter's will be held monthly in this place.

Messrs. Tom McQueen, of Dunbar, C., and Norment McKellar, of Rowland, visited friends here recently. Mr. Ross Ashley and Dr. R. P. Brunson were Bladenboro visitors Sunday.

Messrs. Clyde and James Edwards, Charlie Herrin and Clayton Nobles vis-

Friends of Mrs. Sam D. Scott were grieved to hear of her death at Fair Bluff and many of them attended her funeral.

spent the week-end with Mrs. W. S.

Thursday afternoon, at her home and successful business men.

Mrs. Eugene Boney, who has been ill manner in which the young people spent Friday in Wilmington. played their parts. A good amount was cleared which will be used for the ninth grade's library.

On the afternoon of February 22, the birthday of Washington was duly celebrated by the Society of Children of the Revolution, of which Mrs. N. B. Mr. and Mrs. D. V. Turbeville and the Revolution, of which Mrs. N. B. Boney has charge. The society was entertained by Miss Mary Eunice Wells, an interesting and instructive program being given by the members. minuet was danced by the young folks, in colonial costume. Refreshments was served by the hostess.

On the evening of the same day Mary Eunice entertained a number of her friends in honor of the same occasion tained a crowd of her young friends Wednesday evening at her home here. the occasion being her 16th birthday. Games dear to young people were played, and dancing was enjoyed. A delicious refreshment course was served. In the center of the table in the beautifully decorated dining room was dles lighted on it. Mrs. James Wright and little daugh-

Boardman

Mrs. W. S. Brewer entertained a her home the past few years. Mr. and number of her friends Friday evening Mrs. White will reside at the home of from 8:30 to 11:30 o'clock. Little Dr. and Mrs. Pollock for a time. The Misses Margaret McKellar and Mary bridegroom is well known here. Mrs. Elizabeth Brewer greeted the guests at the door. An interesting contest ville.

Old-fashioned games were then en-

with whipped cream, cake and hot

Lumber company for the use of the club and from now on the meetings Mrs. Harry Morris, of Wallace, has phanage. been visiting her sister, Mrs. R. I.

R. I. Walter made a business trip to Charlotte recently. During his absence Mrs. Walter visited friends and relaited friends in Bladenboro Sunday. Mr. and Mrs. Owen Toon, of Richmond, Va., visited Mr. and Mrs. George B. Hooker recently.

Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Edwards visited relatives in Bladenboro Sunday.

Miss Bennie Usry, of Evergreen,

Wallace

here, Mrs. Isaac Margolis charmingly entertained a large number of friends with a floating reception in honor of her sister-in-law, Mrs. H. J. Margolis, recently arrived in Wallace. She and Mr. Margolis were married two weeks ago in New York, the home of the bride, and have just returned from an extended bridal trip. Wallace welcomes Mrs. Margolis and is glad that this will be their home. Mr. Margolis has been in the merchantile business here for a number of years, and is one

Friends will be glad to learn that

The minstrel given by the Ninth grade of the school Friday night, was a great success. It was under the distriction of Misses Harris and Rose, and both deserve much credit for the on, manner in which the young Deoble search Friday in Wilmington.

Miss Lankford, of Whitville, the classic dance, "Red Riding Hood." Childhood is ever appealing and all one could think of was fairyland, so dainty, so like a fairy did this attractive little girl execute her dance.

Misses Lankford, of Whitville, the classic dance, "Red Riding Hood." Childhood is ever appealing and all one could think of was fairyland, so dainty, so like a fairy did this attractive little girl execute her dance.

Misses Lankford, of Whitville, the classic dance, "Red Riding Hood." Childhood is ever appealing and all one could think of was fairyland, so dainty, so like a fairy did this attractive little girl execute her dance.

Misses Lankford, of Whitville, the classic dance, "Red Riding Hood." Childhood is ever appealing and all one could think of was fairyland, so dainty, so like a fairy did this attractive little girl execute her dance.

Misses Lankford, of Whitville, the classic dance, "Red Riding Hood." Childhood is ever appealing and all one could think of was fairyland, so dainty, so like a fairy did this attractive little girl execute her dance.

A salad course, was served.

Miss Mary Elizabeth Johnston enter-ter, Alice Gibson, of Wake Forest, spent a few days with Mrs. J. W. Carroll this

Kinston

The engagement of Miss Muriel Hadley and S. Phil. Hines has been an-ber manufacturing concern and a son of the late Lovit Hines. The families are among the most prominent in this part of North Carolina. A number of parties will be given for Miss Hadley during the next few days. Mrs. James P. Lynch entertained at timore. Miss Richardson has been the recipient of numerous social attentions during the past few weeks. Mrs. John C. Poe was hostess Thursday afternoon at an enjoyable affair given for mem-bers of the Mamie Webb auxiliary of Queen Street Methodist church. Many young people attended a party at Grainger high school on a recent af-ternoon. This affair was given by the C. Henry society. Misses Hattle Wilson, Grace Vanlandingham and milzabeth Dunn and others rendered a Miss Daisy Lee Rider and Gilliam Parker were married here recently. The ceremony was performed by a magistrate and was witnessed only by ridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs

C. W. Parker, well known residents of Grainger, N. C. Mrs. Parker is the daughter of Mrs. M. E. Rider, of Kin-

Mr. and Mrs. Norman White have been on a brief honeymoon trip the past few days. Miss Rose Ella Scott and Mr. White married the latter part musical program.

bridge party recently, honoring her sister, Miss Helen Richardson, of Bal-the birth day cake with the 16 can-formed by Rev. C. K. Proctor, paster of Queen Street Methodist church, at the residence of Dr. and Mrs. John A. Pol-Mrs. Frank B. McCallum entertained recently in honor of Misses Adelaide Randolph and Muriel Hadley, who will become brides shortly. Mrs. McCallum was hostess to 40 or 50 friends at a well-appointed luncheon and bridge party. Bridge prizes were awarded to

Rose Hill

Miss Elizabeth Grady, of Goldsboro, was the week end guest of Miss Vir-

Friends of Miss Leanna Geddic, who has been seriously ill at Canton, where demonstration. The hostess, assisted by Miss Helene Hobbs, served gelatine know she was able to return home with her mother this week.

Mrs. Henry Fussell and son, Norwood, and little daughter, Lois, spent several days with her daughter. Miss Estelle Fussell, in Raleigh where she holds a position at the Methodist or-

Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Bradshaw, of Hamlet, spent several days here this weeks, guests of Mr. Bradshaw's sister, A. Cox.

Miss Raeford Hatcher, who is a student at Meredith college, spent the week-end with Mrs. Ward Farrior. Mrs. Willie Wells spent Thursday light and Friday in Raleigh with her brother D. C. Fussell

Ray Fussell spent Thursday in Goldsoro with his mother, who is a patient at a Goldsboro hospital.

Louis T. Moore, son of Mrs. Mary C. Moore, who died Friday evening at Sanford, was laid to rest in Concord cemetery Sunday morning following services held from the residence at 10 o'clock by Rev. A. L. Brown, of the Baptist church.

S. B. Newton, who has been at the bedside of his father for the past few weeks, returned to his home in Augusta. Ga., Saturday. Miss Ruth Murray is spending the week-end with friends at Meredith col-Wednesday afternoon at his home on Main street, Master Paul Newton, Jr. was host to a number of his little friends in celebration of his sixth birthday anniversary.

Howard Auger, of Mullins, S. C., spent last week-end in our town, visting friends and relatives Miss Beth Troy, of Wilmington, spent the week-end here with her mother, Mrs. Troy.

T. S. Memory, of Whiteville, was a visitor here last week.

Mr. and Mrs. S. M. Newell very delightfully entertained last Wednesday evening in honor of their son Ellis' 17th birthday. A number of interesting and enjoyable games were played, Mrs. Eugene Boney, was somewhat imfor the past ten days, is somewhat imafter which refreshments were served.

Miss Lankford, of Whitville, the

> Miss Lela Meredith left Friday afternoon for her home at Armour to > motored to Fair Bluff last Saturday afternoon. They returned Sun-J. H. Callihan, of Tabor, spent the > week end with his family here. Rembert Williamson, accom accompanied by his mother, Miss Smith, Mr. and Mrs. O. B. Davis and children, all motored to Mt. Tabor last Sunday.

ANNUAL PURIM BALL IS HELD AT HARMONY CIRCLE

The annual Purim ball was held at Harmony Circle club room, from 4 to Thursday and proved a most In the afternoon dancing was en-joyed and at 8 o'clock an interesting program was given.

Slides of the geography of the Holy Land were shown, accompanied by a lecture explaining in detail each picture as it was flashed on the screen. The "Judgment of Solomon," an interesting play, was given by all of the children of the Sabbath school of the Temple of Israel.

Miss Eleanor Solomon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Solomon, gave a most beautiful interpretative dance, "The Bubble Sprite." She wore a beau-tiful costume and all through the dance toyed with a big balloon. poses and steps were exquisite. In response to a tremendous encore she danced an attractive little novelty nounced here, the wedding to take place March 10. It will be a principal social event of the local season. The prospective bride is the daughter of Mrs. E. T. Moseley and a popular mem-Free to Asthma and ber of a leading set here. Young Mr. Hines is the president of a large lum-

Free Trial of Method That Anyone Can Use Without Discomfort or Loss of Time.

Hay Fever Sufferers

We have a method for the control of Asthma, and we want you to try it at our expense. No matter whether your case is of long standing or recent development, whether it is present as Chronic Asthma or Hay Fever, you should send for a free Trial of our method. No matter in what climate you live, no matter what your age or occupation, if you are troubled with Asthma or Hay Fever, our method should relieve you promptly.

We especially want to send it to those apparently hopeless cases, where all forms of inhalers, douches, optum preparations, fumes, "patent smokes," etc., have failed. We want to show everyone at our expense, that our method is designed to end all difficult breathing, all wheezing, and all those terrible paroxysms.

paroxysms.

This free offer is too important to neglect a single day. Write now and begin the method at once. Send no money. Simply mail coupon below. Do it Today—you even do not pay

FREE TRIAL GOUPON FRONTIER ASTHMA CO., Room 76 Y Niagara and Hudson Sts., Buffalo, N. T.

Ensemble of Art in Millinery

We have set aside for featuring three groups of hats applicable to the needs of the moment and of the immediate future, at-$7.50

Sport and afternoon hats, distinguished in style and color, as determined for the coming spring, at— $10.00

Above the commonplace in theme; these hats are equally appropriate for semi-formal

$15.00 A collection of Pattern Hats, copies of Parisian models, which but emphasizes the union

HATTIE TAYLOR SCHILLER

ART IN MILLINERY

114 Market Street

Next on the program was a little four-year-old, Janet Bear, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Bear. The little child appeared, costumed in a beautiful cape and hood of red and danced the classic dance, "Red Riding Hood."

and formal wear, at-

of economy with beauty.

The general rule for skirts seems to be that they be long and slim of outline, and any fullness is best in treduced in the front.

Laundry Work for Ladies.

is a specialty in which we excel and in which we take particular pride. No home work can equal ours in daintiness of finish or in care in handling. Garments entrusted to us will be returned immaculate and perfectly ironed and with no trace of injury even to the most delicate fabric. Shall our wagon call?

CITY LAUNDRY COMPANY

The bathroom is one of the hardest parts of the house to keep sweet and clean. The tub shows grease and dirt more quickly than any other fixture.

Grease and Stains

RED SEAL Lye makes unpleasant cleaning jobs easy. Keeps the washstand, toilet, tiling and floor spotless. Cuts grease from drain-pipes and acts as an efficient disinfect-

Write for booklet-describes many every-day uses. Full directions in each can. Be sure and buy only Paris is enthusiastic over lace cut-outs. This is a patentvamp, gray ooze cut-out quarter with a gray covered Junior Louis heel A Spring Beauty-All Sizes and Widths

Petersons Rulls

"The Home of Good Shoes"

202 N. FRONT ST. WILMINGTON, N.C.

Free Dirt!

on Princess Street, between 10th and 17th. Send your wagons, trucks, etc. See CAPT. DOOLEY,

Tide Water Power Company

Wedding Invitations Announcements

Monogram Stationery Reception, Acknowledgment and Visiting Cards

> SAMPLES AND PRICES SUBMITTED UPON REQUEST

J. P. Stevens Engraving Co. 103 PEACHTREE ST. ALSO 47 WHITEHALL ST.

Atlanta, Ga.