WILMINGTON MORNING STAR, WILMINGTON, N. C., MONDAY, MARCH 5, 1923.

MUTT AND JEFF-Bath tub bathing has its advantag es after all.

Sunday School Teams Close Their Schedule

With Saturday's games at the Y. M. With Saturday's games at the Y. M. (C. A. the regular schedule of games in the Junior Sunday school basketball league came to a finish. When the fi-nal whistle blew for the last game the results showed that in the southern di-vision of the league the First Baptist team and the St. Paul Lutheran team results snowed that in the southern di-vision of the league the First Baptist team and the St. Paul Lutheran team were tied for first place.

That will make it necessary to play off the tie to find out which team will 6-1, 3-6, 6-4. play the winer in the northern division. In this match Mile. Lenglen's boast play the winer in the northern division. The St. Andrew boys have earned a

The Lutheran game was the first on come the bill and although the First Bap- final. tists were handicapped by the loss of Miss Ryan, according to the experts, Foster Edwards and others, the brand had playing too much tennis. Today of ball put up by the Lutherans was almost good enough to have defeated any of the teams at their best. The score was one of the highest of the season, 52 to 20. Lawrence Haar at leading 4-3 in the last set; but Suzanne day, with nine field baskets. All of the Miss MacKane's and was all over the Lutherans contributed to the score by court to win the last game on Miss shooting and by their intelligent floor Ryan's service.

The second game was won from the Trinity team by the Presbyterians by the score of 20 to 15 with Lacy Hunt doing most of the scoring for the Presbyterians. Wm. McGloughton with 5 out of 7 free tries had the highest percentage in that department. In the northern division, the most important game was the one between

British Woman is

Lambert-Chambers and Miss MacKane that she and Miss Ryan never, had lost a set since they began to play together and lost 2 games all season. They will three years ago was shattered. The three fore have to play the winner of Franco-American pair was defeated in one set and barely managed to the three for the set of the s come the English women and take the

Miss Ryan, according to the experts,

For Baseball Season

DURHAM, March 4 .- With 45 candi-

Plans Finished for Thursday Ring Bout

Final arrangements were completed yesterday afternoon by Promoter Cates for Thursday night's boxing card which will be offered at the Victoria theater and which will be staged under the direction of the boxing commission which is to be appointed by Mayor Cowan Monday, it was anounced last

Golf Winner Sunday MONTE CARLO, March 4.—(By the State) of the swiftest stepping hardest hit-

The preliminary will be between Kid Mintz and Buddy Crosby. A battle royal will precede the regular card.

THIRTEEN CHALLENGERS. NEW YORK, March 4.—Davis cup challengers have been received from six more nations, bringing the total to thirteen, one less than last year's record, the U. S. Lawn tennis association announced today. The latest entrants are, Zzecho Slovakia Rumania, Holland, Denmark, Australia, the first five to compete in the European zone and the anti-podeans in the American zone. AGREE ON HALIBUT SEASON

WASHINGTON, March 4.-The Amer-can-Canadian convention to control halibut fishing in northern Pacific waters was ratified by the senate today just before adjournment. The treaty establishes a closed halibut season from February 16 to February 15, and creates a joint commission to regulate the north Pacific halibut fishing.

MOLLA TO PLAY AGAIN

MENTONE, France, March 4.-(By

MAE MURRAY in BROADWAY ROSE

Opening Today at the Grand opportunity for the display of he provocative beauty, boundless vitality and charming grace. Mr. Goulding wrote the stories of "Peacock Alley" and "Fascination." In "Broadway Rose" he has surpassed himself, providing a thrilling interest which would have been notable in itself, reproduction, "Broadway Rose," opens gardless of star, costumes and set-

-:-

"THE SNOWSHOE TRAIL"

The producers of "Broadway Rose" Lashed by a blinding blizzard; cut have not been content to rest on the laurels of the previous productions. and jammed by the ice-clogged river; strugling in the s rging rapids with They aimed to surpass, and have suc-ceeded in surpassing, the high stanevery last ounce of courage and strength in their exhausted bodies, a dards which were set in those producman and girl are swept to the very tions. In the gorgeousness of the settings, pens after that is best observed upon its dramatic detail she would have to undergo great haz-ards if she appeared in the picture, but she was so impressed with the dra-matic qualities of the story that she said, "Let's go. I'll take a chance."

"THE RADIO KING" COMING When the Universal scientific serial, "The Radio King," directed by Robert F. Hill, opens next Friday at the Bijou theater, there will be presented on the screen a cast rarely assembled in a serial production. In the starring role is Roy Stewart, hero of innumer-able features in the past. Playing the feminine lead is Louise Lorraine, ador-able and vivacious, whose versatility and dramatic ability have brought her

MOVIE CHATS

A Big Comedy

Sparkle! -purify the blood Dr KING'S PILLS -for constipation ACADEMY PICKERT STOCK COMPANY Presents

Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday Matinee Wednesday "HUMAN HEARTS" Thursday, Friday, Saturday Matinee Saturday "DR. JEKYLL AND MR. HYDE" The prize of $10.00 offered for a name of the play written by R. W. Chambers, will be given Mon-day night. Performances Begin Night8:30 Matinee8:30

Children 10c at Matinee. Any Seat Except 200 Reserved at Matinee screen, have players been compelled to as a character player. Others in the risk their lives so often as in the mak-ing of "The Snowshoe Trail." Miss Novak, it is reported, was warned that Fontaine LaRue, Clark Comstock. Slim Fontaine LaRue, Clark Comstock. Slim Whitaker, Helen Brunneau, D. J. Mit-soras, Marion Faducha, Ray Taylor and Joseph North.

FIVE

the St. Andrew and the Grad Method-Idates ou ist teams. If the Methodist boys had lege and a few more trickling in at succeeded in winning they would have each practice, Coach Steiner will splie been tied for first place and as a re- his candidates into two squads tomorsult the efforts of both teams resulted row. The nine letter men who are in one of the hardest fought contests back on the campus will be sent for of the day. The St. Andrew boys led workouts on Hanes field under the suof the day. The St. Andrew boys ied workouts on Hanes field under the su-in accuracy in shooting and seemed to pervision of Captain "Red" Ormand. have the edge on the others in passing and in floor work, but the Grace boys worried them somewhat by their foul shooting in the first half. For a while this department of their activities kept the recuts Steiner expects to have a them within speech of a min but in the batter opportunity of selecting the bat them within reach of a win, but in the better opportunity of selecting the best second half the increased speed of the material from among the freshmen red-shirted team was too much for them. Warren Smith was high man for the winners of this match with five field baskets and two penalty shots. In the Episcopal-Calvary game the Wade Lefler, probably the greatest

In the Episcopal-Calvary game the Episcopal team was somewhat handi-capped by the ineligibility of several of their players and were not capable of benefit of his baseball knowledge and their usual game. The final score was himself getting in practice for the to 6 in favor of the Baptists.

The date for the play-of between the er he was graduated from Trinity Lef-St. Paul and the First Baptist team has ler was age-player for Jack Dunn's not been set but it is sure to provide Orioles. He will complete his law the fastest of the games for the seateam for the city championship will be played. The date for that also has not Johnson, one of the best looking have

WIN $1,000 AT GOLF.

MIAMI, Fla., March 4.-Gene Sarasen national open golf champion, and Jock Hutchison, former British open champion, defeated Mike Brady, western open champion and Leo Diegal, 2 and 1 n an 18 hole exhibition match at the local Cilutry club for a purse of $1,000.

French champion, and Mrs. Molla Bjurstedt Mallory, the American title holder in tennis singles competition, is considered practically arranged during the Mentone tournament which begins omorrow. The draw was kind to the Riviera tennis enthusiasts who have been looking forward to a match between the vomen champion with an eagerness that has only been increased by their disappointment at the failure of the rivals to get together at Monte Carlo Both Lenglen and Mallory were in the upper half of the draw and both drew byes in the first rub.

Seemingly only a miracle can pre vent Mrs. Mallory from reaching the quarter finals, where she will meet Mlle. Lenglen.

BABE IS STYMIED HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 4.—Babe

which were for diversion; Boston, 152

lina stock second, it was stated.

coming season. For several years aft-Ruth, home run king, chafed today under his physician's orders to remain indoors in order not to run the dan ger of a slump in his perfect average Course at Trinity this spring. Who will cop first base honors is the against influenza. Warm sunshine flooded the golf links and Bob Shawkey and other New York American bailers in the freshmen class, is being given a try for this berth, but logically he is a catcher. Birmingham sought his services in this department last year. Freshman Deal, a brother to the Deal who was quite a pitchin generation.

that point.

Deal who was quite a pitchin gsensa-tion at Trinity last year, shows signs From Carolina Points of developing into a first sacker. He has the length for a good reach and something may be made of him. Should no new contender show up sufficiently well for first Neal may be given this position, Capt. Ormand sent PINEHURST, March 4.- (By Associ-ated Press.)-During the 1922 season back to second and an outfielder se-cured from the ranks of the unknown

Basketball Tourney. Pays First Dividend

ATLANTA, March 4 .- The all-southmythical basketball five was tonight selected by sport writers attending the southern inter-collegiate basketball tournament which closed here last night.

The selection: Perkins, Mississippi Aggies, and Smith, Mercer University, forwards: Redd, Chattanooga, Center; Gatchell Aggies, and Roane, Georgia

July and the early part of August show reach guards. Receipts for the tournament amountthat Boston, Philadelphia and Wash ed to $15,000 and expenses $12,500. ington received more cars of peaches from North Carolina than from any other state during that period. It was the first time a dividend had been paid in the history of the annual tournament.

RED SOX TRAINING

HOT SPRINGS, Ark., March 4 .-Frank Chance, "peerless leader" of the old Chicago Cubs and now at the helm of the Boston Americans, arrived to-day with a string of players and an-nineteen times as many as were old Chicago Cubs and now at rived to-of the Boston Americans, arrived to-day with a string of players and an-nounced that active training would shipped three years ago. In 1919, the total movement from this state was 77

Nonneed that active teams, here for start tomorrow. Members of other teams, here for preliminary training, today took moun-tain hikes, and played golf, but Chance will put his men into uniform from the start and anounced that they will get all of their work on the dia-word 257 cars and Eagle Springs mond

al. a

Associated Press).—A fourth meeting between Mile. Susanne Lenglen, the and in the absorbing interest of the story and the life which it depicts, 'Broadway Rose" surpasses "Peacock Alley" and "Fascination." It deals with the career of a Broad-

THEATRICAL

"BROADWAY ROSE" TODAY

today at the Grand for a three-day run.

The anxiously awaited Mae Murray way favorite as she moves among the scenes of New York's night life. It shows the lavish haunts of society, the playgrounds of the idle rich, the luxurious settings wherein jaded men and vomen seek sensational relief from their boredom.

There is great curiosity throughout the country about the glittering restaurants and cabarets of Broadway. People are always interested in the homes of Fifth Avenue millionaires.

This picture develops among such scenes which are reproduced with ab-solute fidelity. The settings have been unusually costly but they have contributed to give the finished picture an impression of reality not often achieved:

In the story of 'Broadway Rose'' Edmund Goulding has created for Miss Murray a photoplay which gives every ) in Jane Novak's most recent drama of the big snows. "The Snowshoe Trail,' now occupying the screen of the Royal theater as the featured attraction for

ROYAL

Buying Her Off-She did not understand at first; then the truth struck her like a slap. . . . To this lawyer Hugh's father had sent, she was-well, just another of his girls. . . . If you would see Broadway life from the inside, see Robert Z. Leonard's presentation of Mae Murray BroadwayRose Today at 11, 1, 2:45, 4:30, 6:15, 8 and 9:40 Matinees 35c -:- Nights 50c GRAN "A Little Saved Is a Lattle Earned" An Extraordinary Opening of our Forty-first 25c Series and Seventh $1.00 Series Saturday having sold around 1,000 shares This series will remain open for a few days. All those who have not secured shares may do so yet Progressive Buildind & Loan Ass'n "Nothing But Building and Loan" 218 PRINCESS STREET O. E. Todd, Sec.-Treas. W. N. Harriss, President