Daughter Charged With Burning Father's Home

(Special to the Star.) WILSON, April 18.—Edna Eatman, the thrice-kidnaped 13-year-old daughter of D. B. Eatman, of Oldfields township, who sloped with 18-year-old Richard Ernie Tomlinson, and was married at Dillon, S. C., on February 3, is again in trouble.

Monday night last her father's home with contents was reduced to ashes, supposed to be the work of incendiaries. Tuesday afternoon she, with her husband, was arrested and brought to this city, where she spent the night in jail. Arrangements had been perfected to send her to the state reformatory, but this morning a warrant was sworn out charging her with aiding and abetting in the burning of her father's home. She is being held in default of a $5,000 bond. Young Tomlinson is under heavy bonds for alleged kidnaping. Ernie Tomlinson and his father have each sworn out warrants against Mr. Eatman, asking that he be placed under peace bonds.

Georgette and Suede An attractive hat of tan georgette is trimmed with brown suede trimmings in the form of leaves and flowers.
