A pretty event of Saturday afternoon was a birthday party given in honor of little P. H. Batte, Jr., at the home of his parents, 808 Orange street, the occasion being his fifth birthday. The color scheme of pink and white was prettily carried out in the decorations. Several games, including "Planning the Donkey's Tail" contest were enjoyed by the little youngsters. The first prize of the donkey contest was a pretty book, which was won by Wall King. The booby prize, a book of verse and rhymes, was awarded little Mildred Hall. After the donkey contest the little guests were lined up and carried to the dining room, where they were served delicious ice cream, cake and candies. The dining room was beautiful in its decorations of pink and white, which was carried out with pink streamers from the center pole forming their places to each one's favor, which consisted of jacks and baby chicks. Little P. H. Jr.'s birthday cake, also in pink and white, was beautiful with its five little candles, which were blown out by P. H. after three long blows.

After the little one's had enjoyed their ice cream and cake, they were again lined up and marched around to Robert Strange playgrounds, immediately back of Master Batte's home, and enjoyed a peanut hunt, the prize, a harp, going to Master Carl Peiffer for finding the most peanuts. After this they were brought back home and the little guests began to depart, wishing their host many happy birthdays to come.

Master Batte was the recipient of many beautiful birthday presents. Among those present were Clara Davis, Clarice King, Mary B. Bulluck, Annie May King, Margaret Hughes, Mildred Hall, Vera Starling, Louise McClammy, Irene Roycroft, Hortense King, Thomas Brady, Carroll King, John Davis, Edna King, Palmer Laughton, Albert Keels, A. J. Starling, Jr., Owen Pillyaw, Jr., Marvin Armstrong, Lindsay Potter, Kingsley Potter, Eugene Bond, Billie Bond, Carl Peiffer, John Bobb, Edward Johnson, Frank King. GIRL RESERVE HOUSE PARTY
"To the Knights in the days of old Keeping watch on the mountain heights"

Came a vision of Holy Grail, And a voice thru the waiting night Follow, follow, follow the Gleam, Banners unfurled, o'er all the world, Follow, follow, follow the Gleam Of the Chalice that is the Grail."

This song echoed far out over the sound, as a group of Girl Reserves, representing the two cabinets of the W. H. S. club gathered Friday evening, April 13, for a conference at the summer home of Mr. and Mrs. D. R. Foster on Middle sound.

The week end was a joy and inspiration to the twenty-one girls and advisers present, as they met around the big living room fire for their discussions on club problems and plans, and discovered the real value of friendship as they hunted violets and wild flowers on the slopes and in the woods, as they watched the gold fish playing

Be sure to ask for the double strength Othine as this is sold under guarantee of money back if it fails to remove freckles.—adv.

Scientists long ago discovered and combined in Nadinola Cream, elements which bleach the skin and remove tan, freckles, pimples and other discolorations. Of its own peculiar virtues; it rids the skin of impurities and leaves it smooth and beautiful.

"TIZ" FOR ACHING, SORE, TIRED FEET

Just take your shoes off and then put those weary, shoe-crinkled, aching, burning, corn-pestered, bunion-tortured feet of yours in a "TIZ" bath. Your toes will wriggle with joy; they'll look up at you and almost talk and then they'll take another dive in that "TIZ" bath.

When you feel like lumps of lead—all tired out—just try "TIZ." It's grand—it's glorious. Your feet will dance with joy; also you will find all pain gone from corns, callouses and bunions.

There's nothing like "TIZ." It's the only remedy that draws out all the poisonous exudations which puff up your feet and cause foot torture. A few cents buys a box of "TIZ" at any drug or department store—don't wait. Ah! how glad your feet get; how comfortable your shoes feel.—adv.
