THE LOVERS
The girls round the lilac tree
Were bathing in the rain,
Before we knew the cloud had fled,
The sky was fair again.

Before we knew—the young, sweet
With nose was drifted o'er,
The duck had drownded the stream and
The lights along the shore.

The stars were faint—before we knew
The night was on the lawn—
Before we knew—a shadow stirred,
It must have been the dawn.

Scyller's.

Thrower-Todd.
LAURENCE, April 23.—Of interest to a wide circle of friends in this and adjoining counties was the marriage of Mrs. A. R. Thrower to Mr. William K. Todd, which happy event took place at the bride's residence on Main street Sunday afternoon, April 23, at 12:45. A large company of invited guests had assembled in the parlors long before the hour for the ceremony, and while they waited Mrs. Murphy, the youngest daughter of the bride, sweetly sang "Love's Old Sweet Song," accompanied softly on the piano by Mrs. W. L. Fields. Just as this was concluded the bride party, the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march entered and took their places at the improvised altar, where the holy vows were spoken. The pastor of both the bride and bridegroom, Rev. W. G. Hall, of the First Baptist church performed the ceremony in a most impressive manner. The bride was charming in a suit of tan with accessories to match. She wore a lovely corsage of bride's roses.

Immediately after the ceremony the guests were ushered into the dining room for the wedding feast, which was indeed a feast, such as only the bride knows how to prepare.

The popularity of the bride and bridegroom was attested by the many and beautiful gifts.

MOTHER GOOSE SWEATERS

No child's life is entirely complete without a sweater, and this season it may be entirely individual.

The new Mother Goose sweaters have colorful bands wherein practically any nursery rhyme may be pictured, or where the alphabet may run its course. Otherwise they are as plain as the most practically minded child could wish.

Resinol

Don't miss the joy of a brisk rub down because of eczema or some equally annoying eruption which makes your skin burn and sting whenever you touch it. No matter how severe or well established the case may be Resinol rarely fails to produce the desired results.

Resinol Soap and Resinol Shaving stick complete the Resinol trio. Ask your druggist for them.

5000 homes had to go without ARCOLA because they waited till Fall

To 5,000 families in 1921 came a real disappointment. There weren't enough ARCOLAS to fill their orders—and they shivered through the winter with stoves or an old-fashioned heating plant.

Three times as many homes are being built this year as in 1921. And we can make only the same number of ARCOLAS as in 1921 because orders for larger Ideal Boilers have already over-taxed our factories.

The popularity of ARCOLA is tremendous. It is the only satisfactory heating plant for the small home. Gives you a genuine American radiator in every room. Perfect protection for the children against colds and grippe. So economical that it pays for itself in the first few weeks.

Please help us to avoid disappointing you next Fall. Ask your Heating Contractor to give you an estimate now.
