crease the enthusiasm of the people. Since this drive several carloads of the leading business men in the town have been out to the other towns in the county talking to the people of the Methodist church throughout the county, letting them know, what has been done in Maxton and trying to instill into them the same vision and enthusiasm which has been shown in Maxton They have met with a hearty reception and the people of the county possibly know more about Carolina col= lege than they ever did before. It is the hope that $50,000 wil be raised in the county for this dormitory and that the cornerstone for the new dormitory will be laid at commencement this spring.

County Superintendent Poole has made arrangements for a summer school for the teachers of this county and the surrounding counties to be held in the building of Carolina college this year, beginning about the first of June, and it is understood that one hundred or more teachers will attend this school.

tra of the Mission theatre in Salt Lake City. I was just a youngster. I had been going to high school when my father died and it became necessary for me to go to work. I had to give up all my partles-and to go to work from right after school until late at night. At first I hated it. But gradually I came to realize that the discipline was splendid for me. In fact, if I hadn't joined that orchestra I might never have been a motion picture star, for the association with theatricals there engendered, and a subsequent vaudeville tour with a musical act, gave me a poise and experience that helped a lot in preparing me for my work before

"Conversation Circulation"

In the days when "Conversation Circulation" statements were the basis on which the advertiser bought space, the advertising solicitor who put up his story in the most pleasing manner generally got the business. In case the advertiser questions the figures he might possibly go to the newspaper office and look over the circulation records with his own auditors. But neither he nor his auditors knew the intricacies of newspaper circulation records or the possibilities for Circulation differences and arguments caused bitter battles between many newspapers. Ingenious schemes were used by unscrupulous publishers to put up the appearance of a larger circulation than they had. The prevalence of these practices brought out the necessity for a reputable agency to audit and report on circulation matters.

BUILDERS' SUPPLIES

The Audit Bureau of Circulations was started eight years ago by a nucleus of the leading advertisers, agents, newspaper publishers. To day it has a membership of 1,800. The purpose of the bureau is to make fair and impartial audits of circulation records and it is now accepted as the Standard Authority among space buyers throughout the United States and Canada.

Every publisher-member of the bureau is required to make semi-annual statements setting forth the actual net paid circulation. Once a year the bureau sends an auditor to the office of each publisher to check and if necessary correct his circulation statements. Study the A. B. C. reports of the publications you are considering and it will not be necessary to argue about competitive circulation.

The Wilmington Morning Star is a member of the A. B. C. and would be pleased to submit a copy of the latest circulation report

The Wilmington News has applied for membership in the Audit Bureau of Circulations, first audit to be made at the end of the paper's first six month's existence. In the meantime, circulation records are open for inspection.
