Decision For Dempsey But Gibbons is Strong End of Fifteenth Round

Tommy was clinched and sidestepped until the saving grace of the final bell.

Dempsey Never in Danger
 Dempsey was never in danger in a round of the fight. Although Gibbons out and slightly blackened the champion's right eye in the opening round and Dempsey brought blood once or twice from the challenger, there was marked to any appreciable extent.

A majority of the newspaper experts at the ringside gave Gibbons a shade in the fifth, 11th and 13th rounds, the remaining 12 being accorded Dempsey without argument.

Neither the champion nor the challenger were ever off their feet, although once Gibbons nearly fell through the ropes and was helped back by Dempsey. Although Gibbons was the undoubted favorite of the crowd, no amount of dissipation was heard over Referee Dougherty's decision. It had been rumored about that if, by any chance, the fight went the limit, there would be a riot if the decision went to Dempsey. State and local police and many deputy sheriffs were on hand, but there was no disturbance at any time.

Tom Smiles At Victor
 Gibbons, his face blood-smear and lips and nose bruised, smilingly extended his hand to Dempsey. Then he trotted to his corner where he received a deafening ovation and the crowd's Gibbons admirers rushed toward the ring. The police and deputies did not attempt to interfere as it was seen that everyone was good-natured and all merely wanted to get a close up glimpse of Tommy.

While the championship battle was a surprise to the fight fans, it was more than amazing to Jack Kearns, Dempsey's manager. Kearns was stunned after the five or six rounds had demonstrated that the champion was unable to handle the challenger. The manager, as well as every member of the champion's camp, were sure Dempsey would whip over a knockout in four or five rounds.

Gibbons played a hit and run game, fighting a remarkable defensive fight throughout.

Box Receipts $201,485
 While there were barely eight thousand persons at the fight, the ginning of the championship battle, it was but a few minutes until approximately 25,000 were crowded as near as they could get to the ringside. The reason was that spectators would not pay the prices asked and just before the fight Kearns decided to raise the price of the best seats more than fifty percent.

The approximate total of gate receipts at the Dempsey-Gibbons heavyweight title bout this afternoon was $201,485, according to figures made public tonight by Ed Ramothsen, Montana collector of internal revenue.

RICKARD WANTS DEMPSEY
 NEW YORK, July 4.—(Associated Press).—Tex Rickard announced tonight that he will start negotiations at once to match Jack Dempsey with the winner of the Luis Firpo-Jess Willard bout for a world's title fight, probably at Bolye's thirty acres, Jersey City, in September of October.

Willard and Firpo, who will battle at the Jersey City arena on July 12, have signed an agreement that the terms of which the winner will be matched with Dempsey, Rickard said.

Honors in Preliminaries
 In the preliminary bouts, Jack McDonald, of Seattle, knocked out Ernie Sayles, of Rochester, Minn., in the second round of the eight round contest and Bud Gorman, of the Gibbons training camp won an eight round decision over Harry Drake, of England, one of Dempsey's sparring partners.

There were to have been three preliminary bouts, but the promoters were unable to find the money to pay for the third contest, Jack Kearns even having to guarantee the two fights that went over.

Jack Kearns, manager of Jack Dempsey, obtained almost all of the $100,000 which he took out of the first receipts of the gate for the bout today, he said late this afternoon.

"About $30,000 was obtained just before the fight when he sold the remaining tickets for $10 each," he said. "The balance was taken in at the gate today and at fight headquarters yesterday."

How Nuxated Iron Helped Put Me In Such Superb Condition As To Enable Me To Whip Tom Gibbons

JACK DEMPSEY "TIGER OF THE RING"
 Tells A Secret Of His Training—Advises People Who Are in a Weakened, Rundown Condition To Use Nuxated Iron To Increase Their Strength, Vigor and Vitality

And Retain the World's Championship

Today, recognized as the physical superior of any living man, the superman of the age, Jack Dempsey, heavyweight champion of the world, explains below the part Nuxated Iron played in helping to prepare him for the three supreme tests of his career. First he used Nuxated Iron as a part of his training to increase his strength and endurance in his decisive victory over the mighty Willard who had never before been knocked from his feet. In this battle Dempsey displayed a dynamic overwhelming strength and power never before known in the history of the ring; and then again in his phenomenal victory over Carpenter he displayed that same indomitable force and nerve never before seen in any human being. Now once more in his smashing victory over Gibbons, he demonstrates the great advantage possessed by an athlete whose blood is rich in iron. The fact that Dempsey took Nuxated Iron as part of his training for the fight with Willard and Gibbons is convincing evidence of the importance he attaches to keeping his blood rich in strength-giving iron, and the high regard in which he holds Nuxated Iron as a master strength and blood builder.

It should occur to every thinking person that if a man as physically fit as Dempsey should consider it advisable to take Nuxated Iron, in training for his battles, how much more important it is for the average man or woman to see that there is no lack of iron in the blood or nerve force in the nerves. Thousands of men and women are weak, rundown and old before their time, their nerve force shattered and their health wrecked simply because they have allowed worry, overwork, grief, constant nervous strain and excesses of various kinds to sap the vital nerve fluid from their nerve cells and the iron from their blood. In such cases one may not only suffer from terrible physical tortures such as great nervous irritability, heart palpitations, indigestion, splitting headaches, pains across the back, dizziness, sleeplessness, extreme weakness, etc., but the mind is naturally more or less affected, the memory becomes poor, and the judgment bad.

Important Statement of Jack Kearns, Manager of Dempsey
 "Knowing the benefits that Dempsey had derived from the use of Nuxated Iron in training for his contests with Willard and Carpenter, I strongly insisted that he must again use this product as part of his regular training for his battle with Gibbons, and from the results which Dempsey has obtained from the use of this product in his three phenomenal victories over Willard, Carpenter and Gibbons, I strongly advise people who are in a weakened rundown condition to try this wonderful strength and blood builder."

After that time whenever I felt rundown I used Nuxated Iron to help build up my physical condition; and when I started to train for the international championship bout against Carpenter I resumed the regular use of Nuxated Iron, feeling positive that it would help give me that rugged strength, endurance and power that are of greatest importance in contests of this kind, because, other things being equal, victory always goes to the strongest man. In this I was not mistaken as Nuxated Iron again came to the front at the time I most needed it, and I am sure that it played an important part in getting me into such fine physical condition as to enable me to win so quickly and easily in my battle with Carpenter. Before the fight I had heard so much of Carpenter's great skill and the ease with which he had defeated all the noted heavyweights of Europe that I felt I might have a battle royal on my hands; but I found him even easier for me than Willard and I felt practically as fresh after the fight as when I started. This year in training for the fight with Gibbons I felt that the basis for all my other work was to be sure that I would possess that stamina and power that is impossible unless one's blood is rich in iron. Just as in preparation for all my previous championship fights, I took Nuxated Iron faithfully all through my training. The result proves that I possessed all my old time strength and punch."

usually take. Nuxated Iron may therefore be termed both a blood and nerve food as it feeds strength-giving iron to your blood and the principal chemical ingredient of active living nerve force to your brain and nerve cells.

MANUFACTURER'S NOTE: From the above article the reader must not infer that Nuxated Iron will make a giant in strength or a world champion of the pygmy race; but Nuxated Iron will improve the red blood corpuscles and by so doing greatly create your strength, power and endurance, and supply increased nerve force to the starving nerve cells. You can try Nuxated Iron on our absolute guarantee that if it does not increase your strength, power and endurance in two weeks' time and five days perfectly satisfactory results your money will be refunded. Beware of substitutes. Look for the word "Nuxated" on every package. Nuxated Iron for the blood and nerves is sold by all druggists.
