BURRIS FACES BIG BATTLE IN MIXUP WITH LARRY AVERA

When Ken Burris is sent against Larry Avera in their schedule eight round bout at the Academy of Music on next Thursday night. October fourth, he will face the toughest battle of his life because Avera is one of the feeters and eleverate walter. of the fastest and cleverest welter-weights in the south, standing second only to the great Battling Budd, his former side kick and sparring partner. However, Burris' sensational win over Cole Miller in Florence on Labor Day, has given him the necessary confidence to meet and hold his own with the best, in the opinion of his manager, who thinks Avera should not prove as big a stumbling block in the path of the local boy as did Miller.

Burris has progressed wonderfully since his last bout here which was with Bobby Wood and fans will hardly recognize him as the same man. His speed is absolutely dazzling and marked improvement is also shown in his ability to hit hard with either hand ability to hit hard with either hand and from an angle.

Avera, because of his experience and ring generals up may stop Burris but friends of the Dry Pond boy don't think so. They believe that Avera, despite his reputation and admitted ability, will travel the same route that the others before him have gone and that the end of the fight will find nothing between Burris and the welter-weight championship of the south but Battling Budd, the far famed Atlanta boy. Burris' win over Cole Miller gave him the felterweight championship of the Carolinas and he holds the Ameri-can Legion belt for the same territory. Tickets to the bout will be placed on sale at Starkey and Kerr's Front street billiard parlor on Saturday and will be limited to one hundred. No change will be made in the admission price although Avera is being brought here at big expense.
