Society News From Over the State :.

Fayetteville

 Fayetteville

** ***

A splendid meeting of the J. E. B. Stuart chapter of the United Daughters of the Confederacy was held at the Confederate women's home on Fort Confederate women's home on Fort Rite resigned the office of president, Kite was given a rising cepted. Mrs. Kite was given a rising cepted. Mrs. Kite was given a rising cepted with their mother Mrs. B. L. Townsend of appreciation by the daughters yote of appreciation by the daughters for her efficient work during the past for her efficient w vote of appreciation by the daughters for her efficient work during the past year and a half as president. Mrs. w. C. Marsh of Petersburg, Va., came home Saturday to spend the Xms believes the chapter has had, and during her administration the chapter has grown both in strength and numbers. Miss Margaret Broadfoot was unanimously elected president to succeed Mrs. Kite. Miss Broadfoot is the daughter of the late Col. C. W. Broaddaughter of the late Col. C. W. Broadederate soldiers. She was formerly leader of the childrens' chapter, and nomination was received with de-by the daughters. Among other washington, Ga., were married one of the bride's fabride of Graham Stephenson of Angier. The Graham home was artistically decorated in ferns, chrysanthemums and potted plants, a color scheme of green and white being carried out. The ceremony was performed in the presence of the bride's fabride of Graham Stephenson of Angier. The Graham home was artistically decorated in ferns, chrysanthemums and potted plants, a color scheme of green and white being carried out. The ceremony was performed in the drawing room by Rev. W. L. Maness.

Monday afternoon at five o'clock at the Riverside Methodist church. Rev. W. C. Ormond performed the ring ceremony very quietly in the presence of only a few intimate friends. After their marriage, the couple left for a wedding tour to the western part of North Carolina and on down to Atlanta. They will make their home in Washington, Ga., where Mr. Norman is a crising young lawyer.

Mrs. Walter McCanless, of Salisbury, house guest of Mrs. O. G. Dunn, was the recipient of many social favors during her stay in New Bern. Mrs. John of green and white being carried out. The ceremony was performed in the washington, Ga.

drawing room by Rev. W. L. Maness. Ward gave her a small sewing party; only relatives and a few intimate and Mrs. John Dunn gave a bridge friends were present. There were no attendants. The bride wore a modish Miss Burke Nicholson was guest of sonality, she has many friends party given by Miss Louise-Brooks in throughout the county. Her education Ghent. After an enjoyable game of auction bridge at two tables, delicious refreshments were served. lege for Women, and Kings Mountain Business college. For the past two years she has been stenographer and bookkeeper for the Cumberland General hospital, in which capacity she leaves and cut flowers were used as beautifully decorated in masses of holly, attractively arranged. The glow from many red tapers in silver candelabra shed a soft light over the entire scene. The suggestion of the approaching holiday season was artistically carreid out in the decorations, the tea table and the score cards. An interesting game of bridge was entire in the city recently in the interesting game of bridge was entire in the city recently in the interest of the Girl Scouts. She spoke at an informal gathering of scout mothers at Centenary church, then later to the Mr. Cro interesting game of bridge was enjoyed at 14 tables until 5 o'clock, when it was found that Mrs. A. M. Huggins had made top scores. She was presented with a Dutch silver tea caddie. To the guests of honor were given lovely colonial bouquets. At 5 o'clock the receiving line formed for a lovely tea and was composed of Mrs. Chandler, Williamson, Miss Kate Gaster, Mrs. Milton Bacon, Mrs. Archer Googher, Mrs. Barrett C. Cothran, Mrs. John W. Gainey, Mrs. Phillip Haigh, Mrs. Harvey Oliver, Mrs. S. Ruffin Horne, Mrs. Claude W. Rankin, Mrs. Lew Sumner Mrs. Will Robertson, Mrs. Joseph Strange Huske, Mrs. James S. McNeill, Mrs. Floyd B. Souders, Mrs. C. C. Mc-Allister, Miss Nannie Campbell, Miss Frances Green, Miss Mildred Sedberry, Miss Emma Troy King, Miss Hallie Irwin Williamson and Miss Virginia men's club held their regular monthly meeting Tuesday. At this time R. W. egun for the Salvation Army, Mr. tifully arranged with Christmas flowfunds for the drive. The club voted to observe Saturday as tag day for this agin a Husband' was given which was but amusing and interesting. Mrs. E. A. Howes Jr., won the prize, a lovely for the promotion of more reading of the Bible in all public elect was presented with Block Name. Herring being chairman for receiving ers. burpose. The club went on record as heartily endorsing the movement now heartily endorsing the movement now on foot for the promotion of more schools of the Bible in all public schools of the city and state, and for this purpose a committee was appointed to meet with the Parent-Teacher association and confer as to what steps might be taken. A motion was made and carried that the club take care of the children of some needy family at Christmas.

A. Howes Jr., won the prize, a lovely all with the prize, a lovely all with the prize, a lovely and the children the promotion of more sliver thimble, Miss Western the bride clect was presented with Black Narcis-to the course luncheon. A delicious three course luncheon was served. Little Miss Phooe Faye the dining room dress-to the community as of Lohengren's wedding march, she called the thimble, Miss Western the bride the clect was presented with Black Narcis-to the course luncheon was served. Little Miss Phooe Faye the dining room dress-to the community as of much interesting. In the course lovely the prize, a lovely and was beautifully and artistically decorated his beautifully and artistically dec proaching marriage will be read with much interest by their friends in the state. The date of the wedding has not been anonunced.

Fair Bluff

he ladies of the Methodist church will give a Sacred concert Tuesday evening December 18 at 8 o'clock in the Methodist church. The public is most cordially invited to attend. evening December 18 at 8 o'clock in the Methodist church. The public is most cordially invited to attend.

Mr. L. M. Bell of Currie spent Sunday here with Miss George Franklin Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Vance of Wilmington spent last week end here with Mrs.

Otis Rich.

Miss Stella Rymer of Elizabethtown on last Thursday held her regular monthly meeting at Hickory Grove school house.

Rev. E. W. Hearst today holds regular services at the Methodist church.

A. D. Cromartie made a business trip to the control of the cont

ay for Bules Creek where they will

New Bern

Miss Burke Nicholson, of Stephens, tems of interest and business trans- Ga., a member of the New Bern city items of interest and obtained the send Christmas schools, and Mr. Eeale Norman, of greeting cards to all the Confederate washington, Ga., were married here veterans in Cumberland county, on be worder with charter Mrs. B. T. Diet.

traveling suit of midnight blue with honor at a pre-nuptial party given grey accessories and carried a shower Thursday night of last week by Mrs. of bride's roses and sweet peas. Mrs. C. F. Ellison. Mah Jongg was played stephenson is one of Cumberland's at three tables and a salad course was most popular young women. Of a served. Miss Nicholson was again enlovely disposition and attractive pertertained Friday night at a bridge decorations. Bridge was played at the has excelled. Mr. Stephenson is a na-tive of Angier, and is a prominent usual four tables and chicken salad, decorations. Hridge was played at the young business man of that town, He is also interested in farming on an extensive scale, and is held in highest setem by a wide circle of friends. Following the ceremony a delicious salad course was served, after which Mr. and Mrs. Stephenson metored to Raleigh, where they took a train for a trip to northern cities.

A reception of unusual charm and beauty was given by Mrs. Benjamin R. Huske, Jr., at the Country club has changed its name to the Art Study club. At a business meeting the delightful social time was enjoyed. The Art Department of the Women's club has changed its name to the Art Study club. At a business meeting was decided to limit the membership of the club to twelve active members bridle, Mrs. Caldwell Huske of Annapolis, Md., Miss Emma Tyler of Hickman, Ky., and Miss Jessie Sheperd of Middletown, Del. The club rooms were beautifully decorated in masses of holly, attractively arranged. The glow for the care in the principal event of the wint be the principal event of the club. The local chapter of Colonial Dames and historical program, a decorate meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. Owen Guion. After a business and historical program, a club has changed its name to the Art Study club. At a business meeting was enjoyed.

The local chapter of Colonial Dames and historical program, a decorate in meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. Owen Guion. After a business and historical program, a club has changed its name to the Art Study club. At a business meeting Monday afternoon with Mrs. Ellzabeth Congdon, it was decided to limit the membership of the club to twelve active members between the club to tea was then served in Mrs. Congdon's an informal gathering of scout mothers Tuesday for Bennettsville, S. C., where noon with Mrs. John Guion, the subject being "The Americanization of Edward Bok" and "A Man From Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Caldwell Huske, Miss Tyler, Miss Shepherd. Assisting at the tea table were Mrs. Robert O. Burns, Mrs. David Currie, Mrs. Hanks

Edward Bok" and "A Man From Maine." After an interesting program arranged on these two splendld books, Miss Dorls Hough spoke on the Girl Burns, Mrs. David Currie, Mrs. Hanks Maine." After an interesting program arranged on these two splendid books, Scout movement. Tea and cake were afterwards served by the hostess. Mrs. Belle Hyman gave a bridge and Mah Jongg Party Monday afternoon in honor of Mrs. H. Davis, of Georgia, who is visiting Mrs. Charles Slover. Prizes were awarded Mrs. Davis and Mrs. J

Atkinson

Dunn. A salad course was served.

were joint hostesses at a miscellaneous shower Friday afternoon given at the of the former, complimenting Herring appeared before the meeting iss Mazell Western, whose marriage and asked the aid of the club in the to Mr. Starley Johnson will be solom-completion of the financial drive just ized December 25. The home was beau-bert Long last Sunday made a visit to the home of Mr. Otis Rich at Dublin. Mr. L. M. Liles, made a business trip Fayetteville on Monday of last

Rev. R. E. MacClure returned last Monday from Bolivia, where he held a series of religious services. Mr. Ed. Rich has returned from Dub-n where he visited his brother, Mr.

Kinston

new departments have been extensive year's program in its history. One of the new departments is to be deone of the new departments is to be devoted to art, with Mrs. Ethel Parrott Hughes, a well-known painter, as the chairman. Another will devote its efforts to library extension. The third is to be formally known as a parent-teacher department, a reorganization of an association which existed here for several years and ceased to function a few months ago. Mrs. James A. Powers is chairman of this branch, built extere in front of his home.

the club for the coming year.

Miss Orie Moseley is the new president of the Woman's Auxiliary of the American Legion here. Miss Moseley has served as district committeeman in the state organization. Assistants to Miss Moseley are Mrs. George P. Fleming and Mrs. Vance Peery. Mrs. Fred Taylor is secretary, Mrs. Joseph Dawson treasurer, Mrs. Thornton Hood chairman of the hospital committee, Mrs. Jack Temple historian, and Mrs. John W. Goodson chaplain.

Mrs. N. J. Rouse entertained the Music club at her residence Thursday afternoon, with Mesdames Robert Rouse, Fred M. Taylor and W. A. Rawles as joint hostesses. . Mrs. Simon C. Sitterson was in charge of the program, in which Mrs. Dan Quinerly, Mrs. Geachy Mrs. K. Wooten and others her home at Washington after a two week's stay here as the guest of Miss osephine Copeland.

Mrs. Dan Quinerly was hostess at the meeting of a bridge club on a re-Mrs., W. F. Stroud and children, of Birmingham, are guests of relatives here, and will remain through the Miss Kate Herndon was hostess at a party on a recent afternoon complimenting Mrs. .Quincy Hart, a recnt. bride. Guests numbered about 40. Miss Leah Hines has been the hon oree at numerous affairs here recently. Miss Hines will become the bride of Booker Cunningham, of Wilson, Tuesday. She is the daughter of Mrs. Lovit Hines and a member of a leading social set. The prospective bridegrom formerly lived in Kentucky. The wedding will be the principal event of the month here, and will attract scores of daughter motored to Rowland Sunday and Mrs. Charles Carroll, the hostess to visit friends and relatives.

family were Whiteville visitors re-

Mrs. R. F. Covington of Evergreen spent Sunday here with relatives. Mr. and Mrs. George B. Cromartie and sons, George Laurens and Hollis, left Tuesday for Bennettsville, S. C., where daughter, Jane Johnson, spent the week-end in Whiteville. A number of persons from here attended the funeral of Mr. L. V. Grady

Mr. and Mrs. R. I. Walter recently.
Mr. and Mrs. O. I. Floyd and family and Mrs. Claud Ashley were in town Either prepare the recipe at home or Sunday.

Lumberton Monday night.
Mr. and Mrs. T. M. Rogers and famly visited relatives in Whiteville Sunools of the city and ool of the city and spurpose a committee was appured to meet with the Parent-Teacher sociation and confer as to what steps sociation and confer as to what steps shaw entered that the club take care of add carried that the club take care of and carried that the club take care of a miniature bride to and a miniature bride to and a miniature bride to and holly, the whole to represented the follow the ribbon. At the end of the follow the ribbon attacked, she was told to the festive air of Christmas tides. A large and beautiful birthday cake, with all its dainty and lovely decorations, was cooked and presented by Mrs. E. A. Alred, of Long View, The guests for the occasion were: Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Alred, of Long View, Mr. and Mrs. I. W. Finley, Mr. H. M. Humphries, Misses Sudie Leonard and Alice Carter.

Kelly

Carland

Garland

Carland

Carland

This wedding march, sne and holly, the whole to represented by the follow the ribbon. At the end of the follo were in Elizabethtown ist Monday and appeared before the board of road com-missioners petitioning for the state highway to extend from Elizabethtown via Burgaw on to Jacksonville, N. C. This road is badly needed. Mr. and Mrs. Wadus Kelly, Mrs. Charlie Potter and Mrs. Guthrie

SULPHUR CLEARS A PIMPLY SKIN

Mr. and Mrs. T. D. Vance of Wilmington spent last week end here with Mrs. E. D. Bartley. From her Mr. Vance went to Proctorville on a hunting trip.

Mrs. C. W. Harper and little son, Tom Who have been visiting Mrs. M. D. Elvington, left for their home in Florida Thursday p. m.

Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Spivey and Rachael Spivey of Marion spent Sunday here with Mrs. Spivey's mother, Mrs. J. H. Bartley.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Coleman left Thurs

Sular services at the Membrotist charter.

A. D. Cromartie made a business trip to Clinton one day last week.

Rév. R. E. MacClure this morning fills his regular apointment at South fills his regular apointment at South fills his regular apointment at South church.

River Presbyterlan church.

River Presbyterlan church.

River Presbyterlan church.

Last week at Hickory Grove school house both boys and girls basket ball house both boys and school teams with the teams planed match sames with the darket the place of sulphur as a pimple remover. It is harmless and inexpensive.

Mr. and Mrs. C. J. Coleman left Thurs

Master Thurman Rawls spent the week end with his aunt Mrs. R. S. Wilburn.

Mr. and Mrs. L. M. Porter were in Elizabethtown 1st Monday, Mrs. Porter to added to the Community club, largest attend a meeting of the county council organization of women here, and the club early in 1924 will begin the most spending the week in Anslow county at the home of Mr. Rawls' father.

for several years and ceased to last ter the mercantile business, its built a store in front of his home.

Powers is chairman of this branch, built a store in front of his home.

Mr. R. S. Corbett has his old stand the Cross Roads recently oc-Powers is chairman of this branch.

Powers is chairman of this branch.

Mr. R. S. Corbett has his one state.

back at the Cross broads recently occupied by Cecil Corbett. He however, cupied by Cecil Corbett. He however, bas put up business in their Carter store. Mr. A. L. Carter of the lower cross Roads section, has put in an extra fine stock for the Xmas holidays, in fact all the merchants are getting ready for Santa Claus.

Crumple Smith killed a very large hog Wednesday, having weighed 322 Mrs. Jasper Kelly recently visited friends in Wilmington. Great preparations are being made at the school for the Christmas entertainment and Christmas trees which he young folks will have in their different rooms. A Christmas tree is also in view at the church and altogether the little ones are living in high anticipations of Santa Claus. The bird hunters are enjoying the season hunting the partridge in the Miss Majorie Hoyt has returned to fields. The reports of guns der home at Washington after a two quiet often. Mr. John Peterson in on a visit to his brother, Mr. Claud Peterson. Mr. Hufham Blodworth and family of Aak nson spent Sunday as the guest of Mr. A. J. Blodworth.

Mr. Carmer Clifton of Garland and Miss Jessie Flynn, of Carnetuck, were married Friday after Thanksgiving.

Warsaw

Missionary society of the Metho-dist church at her attractive new home Monday afternoon. The special business of the afternoon was the election of officers, with the following results: President: Mrs. Parke Pridg-en; vice-president, Mrs. John, Middleton; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. Lee Moore; assistant secretary-treasurer, Mrs. E. B. Hinmanfil recording secre-tary, Mrs. W. F. Pickett; superintendent of young peoples' work, Mrs. G. S. Best; superintendent of children, Mrs. P. H. Barfield; superintendent of so-cial service, Mrs. J. J. West; superintendent of publicity and mission study Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Tudor and family Mrs. Will Moore. During the social and Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McKellar and hour, assisted by Mrs. Parke Pridgen

Misses Jessie and Mildred Griffin, Mrs. Claude Best and children and Alma Baldwin, Myrtle Thompson and Mrs. Bob Best spent last week-end at Wilson. Mrs. Shade Wooten has gone to La-Grange for a visit.

Mrs. Faison Peirce spent Tuesday in Wilson and Gildsboro. The Woman's auxiliary of the Pres-byterian church held a very successful bazaar in an empty store Thursday afternoon. There was a sale of fancy articles, and hand-made Christmas gifts, which were attractively ar-ranged on a Christmas tree, while the

YOUR HAIR DARK

Mrs. C. F. Covington, Mrs. Della
Johnson and Mrs. Rhetta Stokes have returned to Bennettsville, S. C., after a visit to Mrs. W. S. Brewer.

Mrs. C. F. Covington, Mrs. Della
the advantages of a youthful appearance, Your hair is your charm. It makes or mars the face. When it fades, turns gray and looks streaked, fades, turns gray and looks streaked. Mr. and Mrs. Cutler Moore and little just a few applications of Sage Teason, Cutler Jr., of Lumberton, visited and Sulphur enhances its appearance a hundred fold.

Sunday.

Miss Anna Mellette, a very capable get from any drug store a bottle of "Wyeth's Sage and Sulphur Comand efficient nurse, has been in town during the past week nursing Carolyn, recipe improved by the addition of the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs.

Lloyd Price. Lloyd Price.

Quite a number from here attended tion, because it darkens the hair beauthe play, "Huckleberry Finn," given in tifully, besides no one can possibly tell, as it darkens so naturally and evenly as it darkens so naturally and evenly. You moisten a sponge or soft brush with it, drawing this through the hair, taking one small strand at a time. By morning the gray hair disappears; after another application or two, its natural color is restored and it becomes thick, glossy and lustrous, and you appear years younger.—Adv.

Mrs. Ella Mullins

Beauty and Health

Go Hand in Hand Here is Sound Advice for All Women

Covington, Ky.—"For a long time I suffered severely every month with headache and pains in my back and limbs. Then I began using Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription and I can testify that it gave me much relief and that it has been the same great benefit to my daughter for similar trouble. All women who suffer with trouble of a feminine character should try Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription."—Mrs. Ella Mullins, 2037 Center St.

Start on the road to Health and Beau-

Start on the road to Health and Beauty by obtaining this "Prescription" of Dr. Pierce's from your neighborhood druggist, in tablets or liquid. Write Dr. Pierce, president Invalids' Hotel in Buffals, N. Y., for free medical advice.

Gifts that last

As a token of sincerity and thoughtfulness, nothing surpasses JEWELRY as a its adornment. Quality and practical because it is long remembered. Jewelry is the appropriate gift. Our display of CHRISTMAS JEWELRY is complete in every detail.

Come in early and make your selection.

Geo. W. Huggins Company

JEWELER

PLUS OR MINUS-WHICH?

It takes twice as much energy to make a plus sign as it does to make a minus sign.

It's much easier to TAKE FROM your capital than to add to it.

Putting money into a HOME is adding to your capital. Building up your capital now is insurance against poverty in your old age.

Start that HOME now, and show further good judgment by SPECIFYING the better grades of CLARK-LYNCH lumber!

Clark-Lynch Lumber Co.

Famous for Service

Read the Star Classified Ads