SIDE GLANCES

"If we don't win that barn dance contest tonight it won't be because we didn't have enough practice."

HEATING SYSTEM
CLEARWATER, Fla., Feb. 22.—(AP)—G. Kelleher, managing director of a hotel (Clearwater Beach) here confirmed today a trade publication's report of his heating arrangements in the recent cold wave and added the practice will be resumed whenever needed.
 The trade paper said the hotel in the January freeze. "... Offered to each guest... a bottle of rye, scotch or gin as a means of maintaining the heat to which every person in Florida is entitled... It is understood that guests were found praying for a continuation of the arctic wave."

REPLY DELIVERED
LONDON, Feb. 22.—(AP)—Britain's reply to the United States note of Dec. 8 declaring illegal the British blockade of German exports carried on neutral ships was delivered today, but was not made public. When the United States protest was made, British authorities countered with the comment that Britain's action had sound basis in international law.
