John L. Throwback
 By SAM RAGAN

Maybe grandpa didn't tell you about John L. Sullivan and maybe your memory only deals with his ring exploits. But John L. was one of these whatcha-may-callit guys out of the ring and the nearest carbon copy of his professional life is the rotund gentleman known as Two-Ton Tony Galento.

The Beer Barrel Piker is one of these rare fellows who seem to always have a good time and never carry a worry in the world. Like John L., Tony operates a bar, trains on the suds and likes to pose for pictures with a mug in one hand, a cigar and a beer keg. That's Tony, the cigar-smoking, beer-drinking, wisecracking gentleman of the prize ring, who has wound his colorful career up to boxing's pinnacle once and is still trying to get back there.

His Original
 The Jersey Nightstick has no competitors. He's original and natural. He's great. And there are some several thousand persons who will bet you right now that the East Orange barkeep will "molder" Max Beer in their bout July 2. Galento will also bet on himself to beat Joe Galento when and if they meet again. Such things like that can't be beat.

At any rate, Tony appears here tonight. This time as referee at the Legion stadium wrestling matches. He insists it's training for the Beer fight. And maybe he's right.

Rookie Field
 An almost unprecedented number of rookies are holding on with major league clubs this season. Last night at midnight the clubs had cut their rosters down to 25 men each of the 16 clubs in the majors 13 have first-year men playing regularly.

Running over the list we have: Lou Brubaker and Ray Mack at Cleveland; Benny McCoy and Al Johnson at the A's camp; Walter Johnson and Bob Swift with the Browns; Bob Kennedy with the White Sox; Jimmy Pofahl with the St. Louis Cardinals; Dick Gossop and John Rucker with the Giants; Charles Gilbert, Peevée Reese and Herman Franks with Brooklyn; Mick McCormick at Cincinnati; Martin Gribble at St. Louis; Chet Toss and Bill Rowell with the Bees; Art Mahan and Bob Bragan with the Phils; Ballesandro and Mattick with the Cubs.

Out of that list we'll name you five who will make the grade in a big way, or we miss our guess. They are: McCoy, Rubeling, Judnich, Young and Mike McCormick. The youngsters do have a chance against the oldtimers after all.

REDS TRIUMPH OVER DODGERS, 5-2

Bucs Held To One Hit As Davids Win, 3-0

FIVE RUNS SCORED IN FIRST INNING

Cincinnati Regains Lead In Loop; Thompson Hurls Five-Hit Game

BROOKLYN, May 15.—(AP)—Cincinnati's raging Reds retaliated for yesterday's defeat by the Dodgers with a five-run first inning today to beat Brooklyn 5 to 2 and return to first place in the National league.

Eleven men went to the plate for Cincinnati in the riotous first inning in which Whitlow Wyatt was unable to get anyone out.

Bill Werber opened the bombardment by hitting Wyatt's second pitch into the left field stands for a home run. Then a walk to Lonnie Frey, a single by Ival Gooden and a pass to Frank McCormick filled the bases. Bill Hershberger promptly tripled to clean them and finish Wyatt's work for the day.

Van Lingle Mungo came to the mound and John Rizzo hit his first pitch for a single scoring Hershberger. This ended the Reds' scoring for the day, although Mungo walked two more men to fill the bases again.

CAROLINA FAVORED IN SOUTHERN MEET

Banks McFadden Not To Compete In Track And Field Meet This Week-End

WILLIAMSBURG, Va., May 15.—(AP)—The annual southern conference track meet to be held here this weekend lost one of its most colorful entries today when word came from Clemson that Banks McFadden, versatile Tiger athlete, would be unable to compete.

McFadden, who smashed records in the South Carolina State meet in the broad jump and high and low hurdles, was unable to arrange his examination schedule to make the trip here and will have to take two of his tests on Saturday.

Bright news came from the University of Maryland, however, that Joe Murphy, conference king of the 100 and 220-yard dashes, had reached his peak after a recent illness and would be out for records in these events. Murphy is now in a six-way tie for the 100 mark of 9.8 seconds.

Carl M. Voyles, William and Mary athletic director, announced today that Forest Fletcher, now on a year's leave of absence as the Washington and Lee track coach, would serve as referee on the meet which opens at 3:30 p. m. Friday with field events and trials in the dashes and hurdles. Finals will be run on Saturday, beginning at 3:30 p. m.

Robert Fetzer, University of North Carolina coach, is chairman of the conference track committee. Col. H. M. Read, V. M. I.; Sumner Tilson, Virginia Tech; Voyles and Fletcher are the other committee members.

North Carolina is favored to continue its two-year reign in the meet with Maryland and Duke slated to furnish the principal competition for the Tar Heel runners and field specialists.

RIPPLE RELEASED
 BROOKLYN, May 15.—(AP)—The Dodgers disclosed today they had given outfielder Jimmy Ripple permission to make a deal for himself with some other major league club.

If unsuccessful he has agreed to join the Montreal club of the International league.

Ripple's departure brought Brooklyn within the 25 player limit effective at midnight tonight.

PHILS TRIUMPH OVER CARDS, 6-3
Prothro's Club Stages One-Inning Spree Of Singles To Win Second In Row

PHILADELPHIA, May 15.—(AP)—Doc Prothro's unpredictable Phillies gained a tighter hold on the top of the National league's second division today, trouncing the trailing St. Louis Cardinals 6 to 3 in a one-inning spree of singles.

Climbing over the Cards to fifth place yesterday, the Phils made it two in a row today by routing Pitcher Gene Lillard in the second frame with a six-hit barrage that produced all of the winners' runs.

Chuck Klein, Merrill May and Heinie Mueller opened the inning with a tatoon of singles. Mueller's scoring Klein. Pitcher Kirby Higbe walked, filling the bases. Joe Marty went out, but May scored. Then Bob Bragan's single sent Mueller home and Art Mahan drove in Higbe and Bragan.

Bob Dowman replaced Lillard and was greeted by a single from Morrie Aronovich that scored Mahan.

Shortstop Joe Oregno's homer started the futile St. Louis surge in the fifth. Stu Martin's single scored Johnny Hopp, a single by Joe Medwick and a double by Johnny Mize did the rest.

Cape Fear Boy Scout Champions

Ned Herring, Jasper Needham and Donald Parsley, Jr., members of the Troop 13, St. James Episcopal church, rifle team, Boy Scouts of America, are snapped in a moment of relaxation after winning the Scouters' club trophy, for which troops from the Cape Fear Area competed in an open tournament at the Sunset Park range of the Wilmington Rifle and Pistol club last Saturday. They led their nearest competitor, Troop 14, also of Wilmington, by a margin of 307 points, with Parsley scoring high individual of the meet with a record score of 225 points. ### M'Carthy Sheds No Tears Over Dismal Showing Of His Yanks

ST. LOUIS, May 15.—(AP)—There's no better place than St. Louis to cry over the collapse of a baseball team.

Folks around here are getting used to the tears—you know, the Cardinals and Browns.

But Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yanks doesn't seem to be losing sleep over the dismal beginning of his world champions this season.

His pitching has been to prevent the long losing streak from damaging the morale of the club—suddenly in last place after growing accustomed through the years to substantial leads and beds of roses.

Playing under such a pressure is something new for them, but the boss is authority for the statement that it still is a great ball club and that the players feel they will snap out of it before long.

Marse Joe smiled and talked about the weather when asked for the unteenth time in three weeks what's the matter with his club.

"No, I'm not going to start worrying after all these years," he replied. "You can't do any good worrying."

Were injuries or illness hobbling the Yankees?
 "No, everybody's all right. Of course, DiMaggio was out for a time. But he's back now."

"No, the pitching has been all right."

When you're in a slump nothing goes right, Joe patiently explained. "I change pitchers and the new one is hit harder than the fellow he relieved," he laughed. "I let a pitcher stay in there and the attack grows heavier. When the pitching is good, the defense is bad or we don't hit."

"Nothing much you can do about it, is there?"

Two successive postponed games spoiled the Yankees' hopes of changing their luck against the Browns.

Clemson Nine Defeats Davidson 'Cats, 8 To 5

DAVIDSON, May 15.—(AP)—Clemson college's high ranking Southern conference baseball team defeated Davidson today, 8-5.

Henry Buchanan, Tiger first sacker, led the hitting with two triples and a homer in four trips.

Diz McLean, hurling for the Cats, pitched good ball with the exception of the first and eighth innings, when he allowed seven runs. He retired 11 men in order in the fourth, fifth, sixth and seventh innings.

The Cats scored four of their runs on homers by Verner and Edmondson. Niven doubled the last Davidson score across in the ninth.

BUILDERS DEFEAT BAGMEN, 6 TO 5

Godwin's Ten Stages Rally In Fifth To Win Tilt And Take Over Loop Lead

The E. W. Godwin's Sons ten of the Independent loop battled uphill yesterday against the Wertheimer Bagmaker's to take a close decision, 6 to 5, and to land a full game ahead in the pennant chase.

A fifth frame flurry by the Bagmen and "Red" Cherry's failure to touch third as he rounded for home on Steel's triple spelled the difference between victory and defeat for Clyde Wescott's Bagmen.

"Y!" LeGwin gave up four straight hits in the second to give the Bagmen a comfortable four-run lead. A hit by Trask and a couple of sacrifice flies landed him home to break the tie for the Builders. In the third they chiseled two runs out of two walks and three errors. The fifth found them forging ahead on Edmondson's single and Cameron's second hit out of three times at bat, a double.

Trask and Cameron were the Builders to find the wood for two hits each, and Steel, with a single and a triple, paced the Bagmen's attack.

ONLY FIVE HITS MADE IN CONTEST

Skipper Hurls No-Hit, No-Run Game Until Seventh; Visitors Offer Comedy

By R. J. POWELL

Behind the one-hit hurling of Joe Savoca, the ouse of David baseball team mixed smart baseball with a sprinkling of comedy to hand the Wilmington Pirates their second setback of the season with a 3 to 0 triumph on Legion field last night.

Except for a first-inning double by Victor Steffano, the bewhiskered Savoca had a no-hit, no-run game.

During the nine inning route he struck out two and walked three, but for eight innings he had the Pirates practically eating out of his hand. None of the Bucs reached third base.

However, in rebuttal, Norwood Skipper, on the mound for the Wilmington team, turned in a rather nifty performance himself. He held the husky visitors scoreless and hitless until the seventh, when they combined a one base knock by Boden with a single by Handley and an error by Steffano to produce two runs, the first of the game. The David's added the other one in the ninth on a double by Jordan followed by Catcher Bell's single.

Skipper struck out 13 and issued two free trips to the initial sack.

Chief fun-maker of the evening was Ed Hamman, clowning third baseman of the House of David team, who kept the healthy-sized crowd roaring both before and during the game with his clowning routine. About middle way, the contest was enlivened by the staging of the David's famed pepper game by Amman, Joe Darcy, and Lou Parenty.

The Pirates will continue their diamond warfare at Legion field on Friday night when they tangle with the strong Golden Belt club from Durham.
