Something Stirring

By SAM RAGAN

Like the Chinese, the prizefighting business is peculiar. And it wouldn't take two to add two to figure that Mike Jacobs would like a new champion. Furthermore, there might be a new title-holder in the next few weeks.

This is getting a running start to jump at conclusions, but Arturo Godoy is potentially a far better crowd-drawer than the dusky digger with the dynamite fists. So what pops up but the fact that Jack Dempsey, the cagey old Manassa Mauler, has agreed to go out to Godoy's camp and give the Chilean a few pointers for his battle with Joe Louis on June 20.

Keep Finger Crossed

Maybe Al Weill has talked so much that he has convinced everyone along cauliflower avenue that Godoy really has the goods. Maybe there's something else brewing, but you can bet on it that Louis is scheduled to get bounced on his satin pants before long.

It will take a good bouncer to do that, as all know, and the champ might as like being bounced and will polish off all comers in the first or second round as heretofore. But somebody knows something and you'd better keep your fingers crossed until it's all over.

Blow-Up

The Wilmington Junior Legion nine went to pieces yesterday afternoon and fell hard and heavy before the onslaught of the Dunn Juniors. It was not only that the locals collected 22 hits, but the victors collected no less than 13 errors.

The errors might be attributed to the fact that several of the boys were playing in their first game and were nervous. That will wear off. But just as it was the case last summer, the Wilmington team needs pitching. Enough of it, at least, to enable them to go through a week's schedule.

After a few more games the locals chances can better be summed up.

Here And There

Lawson Little's sensational victory over Gene Sarazen in the National Open has made him the fair-haired boy in golf. And in the same manner, the blow-up of Sam Snead has caused the experts to shake their heads sadly and say that he'll never make the grade. . . Whiteville's baseball team that plays here tonight has been considerably strengthened in the past few days by the addition of new players in both the infield and outfield. . . The Columbus team plays the Buccaneers here tonight. . . Bert Kite says Beaufort really has a good ball club and he plans to bring the team that defeated his there last Sunday to Wilmington next week. . . There's rarely two days when such pitchers as Bob Feller and Bucky Walters are beaten, but yesterday was one of them.

Farmer Beats Pero For First Upset Of Net Meet

CHARLOTTE, June 11.—(AP)—Unseeded Billy Farmer of the Presbyterian college team of South Carolina created the first break in the seeded ranks of the Southern tennis championships today with a 4-6, 7-5, 6-2 defeat of sixth-ranked George Pero of Miami, Fla.

Otherwise the selected list of performers ran unbroken through the second round which was washed with late afternoon showers.

Bryan Grant of Atlanta, seeking his ninth Southern title, was leading Campbell Gillespie of Atlanta 5-1 and 15-love when rain caused a carry-over of that match until tomorrow morning.

Second-ranked Gardner Mulloy of Miami ran true to form with a 6-1, 6-1 elimination of Charlie Rice of Atlanta and Archie Henderson of Chapel Hill, N. C., seeded third, put out Cortez Suttles of Atlanta 6-2, 6-2.

Browns Beat Nats, 5-2 For Fifth Straight Win

WASHINGTON, June 11.—(AP)—Although out-hit, the St. Louis Browns took advantage of five walks by Dutch Leonard and won their fifth straight game today, and their second in two days from Washington. The score was 5 to 2.

Vernon Kennedy scattered nine Washington hits, while Leonard was giving up eight. A four-run spurge in the seventh clinched the issue for the Browns. In that inning George McQuinn and Walter Judnich each singled across two runs.

FELLER SUFFERS FOURTH SETBACK

Hard-Hitting Boston Crew Collects 11 Hits; Wilson Gets Credit For Win

BOSTON, June 11.—(AP)—The aroused Red Sox, at full strength again chased mighty Bob Feller in short order today as they protected their slim American league lead by defeating the Cleveland Indians, 9-2, before a 10,000 crowd.

While being subjected to his fourth setback in 12 starts, Feller gave the hard-slugging Sox seven of their 11 hits and five runs. Third when Lou Finney singled, Ted Williams tripled and manager Joe Cronin contributed his third homer of the season.

Feller yielded to Joe Dodson after the fifth and that right-hander gave Williams his fifth homer, a three-run blast in the eighth. Feller was hit in the eighth by a pair of doubles, out of five tries.

Jack Wilson, after getting off to a wobbly start in the first inning, when he passed the first two batters, and then hit Ken Keltner with a pitched ball, settled down to a steady pace. He gave the Indians seven hits, three of them to Rollie Hemley, including a single, a double and a homer, that ended the Indians' scoring in the fourth inning. Beau Bell drove in the first Cleveland run with an infield out in the first frame.

It was the Tigers who stopped Donald last August when he had set a rookie record of 12 consecutive victories. After a late start this spring, he had won two games in a row before they blasted out a barrage of three home runs to lick him today.

For five innings the sophomore right-hander and Tom Bridges, Detroit's veteran curve ball ex-ert, engaged in a razor-edged pitching battle, but Donald weakened and Bridges didn't, holding the world champions to five hits.

The Tigers went out in front in the third with a run on two singles and an error and stayed there. But the game wasn't wrapped away until the seventh when Charley Gehringer and Dick Bartell homered. Bruce Campbell added another round tripper in the eighth.

Two More Italian Ships Arrive At Hampton Roads

NORFOLK, Va., June 11.—(AP)—Two more Italian vessels came scurrying through the Virginia Capes today to seek a haven of safety in Hampton Roads from British warships waiting to capture them on the high seas.

The were the Antonietta and Bitortin. These arrivals bring to eight the number of Italian vessels which probably will remain indefinitely in Hampton Roads.

Dunn Juniors Trample Wilmington Nine, 21-8

Visitors Collect 22 Hits Off Three Local Hurlers To Win League Opener

Dunn's Junior Legion baseball team trotted out a 22-hit attack which it coupled with 13 Wilmington errors here yesterday afternoon to defeat the Wilmington Juniors 21 to 8 in the opening league game in the summer schedule at Legion field.

Three local hurlers were thrown into the fray to stop the hitting barrage, but none were successful. Every man on the visiting team hit safely.

Bobby Edwards started on the mound for Wilmington but yielded for Allison Alderman in the third after giving up eight hits and an equal number of runs. Alderman was yanked in favor of Scoggins at the beginning of the fifth after he had allowed eight hits in one and one-third innings. Scoggins gave up six hits and six runs in the last part of the game.

Holmes, ace of the visitors mound staff, limited the local Juniors to nine safeties and struck out 10 batsmen.

After scoring three runs in the first, Dunn staged an eight run tallying spree in the third to put the game in the bag. They added four in the fourth, one in the fifth, two in the sixth, two in the eighth and one in the ninth.

Wilmington tallied four runs in the first, two in the second, one in the fourth and one in the eighth. After their first and second inning rallies, the locals were held well in check.

McLeod with four for six and Bryan with four for seven paced the visitors at bat. Alderman with two and three led the locals. Williamson, Rhodes and McCabe made two hits out of five attempts.

SKIPPER OR LAMB TO HURL FOR BUCS

Replacements Slated In Outfield And As Catcher; Lewis Will Pitch For Visitors

Either Norwood Skipper or Roy Lamb will get the call to hold the Whiteville baseball club in check in their game with the Pirates at Legion field tonight at 8 o'clock.

Bert Kite, manager of the Bucs, is anticipating his toughest game to date as both teams stack up as being about even in power. The locals edged out the Golden Belt club of Durham 8-7 in a game here last week, and Whiteville defeated the same team by a 6-5 margin Sunday.

Either Hargrove Davis or McKenzie will work behind the plate for the Buccaneers tonight. The infield will probably be: Moe, first base; S. McKeithan, second base; Smidt, shortstop; Stefano, third base; with Carter, Hines, Lamb or Davis in the outfield.

The Whiteville club will probably rely on Lewis for the mound work. The Carroway brothers, both members of the Stetson university nine this year, will be in the lineup—one in the infield and one in the outfield. Among the other new players on the visitors list will be David Barksdale, football and baseball player at Carolina.

The Pirates will play High Point in their only other game this week Friday night.

CHEMISTS DEFEAT OPTICIANS, 8 TO 2

City Optical Fails To Hit In Pinches And Loses Verdict In Independent Loop

City Optical failed to hit in the clutches yesterday and lost an 8 to 2 decision to Ethyl-Dow of the Independent loop.

The Eyemen cracked Burris for 10 safeties, but left seven men on bases. The Chemists made heavy weather of their seven blows, getting four runs in the third out of three hits and two errors and three tallies in the fifth out of three hits and an error.

The Eyemen started out with a run crossing home when Eddie Hobbs, picking up the first of his two hits for the day, singled and Dudley Mott tripling him in. In the third, Hobbs doubled and scored on Jimmy Moore's hit.

The Eyemen opened the second with three clean hits, filling the bases, but Burris, winning his first Independent league game, tightened and had the next three hitters pop up.

Roy Cook, hard hitting Eyeman, was driven from the slab in the fifth and Sam Johnson retired the side and permitted no further run-minting.

The score by innings:

Ethyl-Dow 140 030 x-8 7 0

Company A Team Wins Over Brigade, 15 To 2

Behind the six-hit pitching of Lackey, the Company A softball team defeated the Brigade ten, 15 to 2, in a Hanover league game yesterday afternoon at Bellamy park.

The Company A lads collected 15 hits, with Allen leading the attack with a home run and a single out of three attempts.

Lackey and Hicks made up the winning combination, while Wolff and O'Brien was the Brigade battery.

The Sunshine Laundry ten will play the American Bakeries team at Bellamy park this afternoon at 6 o'clock.

WALTERS HANDED SECOND DEFEAT

Phillies Hit Ace Moundsman For Nine Safeties And 4-1 Win Over Reds

CINCINNATI, O., June 11.—(AP)—Bucky Walters, who ran up a nine-game winning streak before stopping, extended his losing streak to two today as the Phillies pounded him for nine hits and a 4 to 1 victory over the Reds.

While Walter Beck pitched a steady game for the winners, Bucky got himself into trouble in the eighth inning and only a perfect throw by Johnny Rizzo from left field in the eighth prevented the Phils from enlarging on the score. The long-range strike doubled Joe Marty at the plate on Morrie Aronovich's high fly.

The Phils put together a single, two doubles, and an unsuccessful attempt at a double play by the Reds for three runs in the sixth to clinch the game.

Lonnie Frey scored the Reds' lone run in the third. He was hit by a pitched ball and Ival Goodman tripled him in.

The Senior Fraternity softball team moved into first place in the Hanover league yesterday afternoon with an 11-7 win over the Y. M. C. A. ten in a game at Robert Strange park.

The frat boys pounded Owensby for 14 hits, while the Y were held to seven by Pinner. Litgen led the winners at bat with three for three, while Burkheimer with to for three paced the Y team. Pye caught for the Seniors and Kelly for the Y.

The Seniors will play the Phalanx fraternity at the ROTC field Thursday afternoon.

DEMPSEY, JACOBS TO CALL OFF FEUD

Former Champ To Spar With Godoy; May Stage Exhibition Tour In Country

NEW YORK, June 11.—(AP)—Jack Dempsey and Mike Jacobs, two fight men with a feud, are about ready to take the heat out of each other's neck and way out.

As the first gesture toward the kiss-and-make-up scene, Jacobs will trot out tomorrow to Carmel, N. Y., where Arturo Godoy is waiting for his return tussle with heavyweight champion Joe Louis in June 20 at Yankee stadium.

Dempsey figures on donning ring trunks, sparring some with the Celtics and offering advice, for the benefit of Godoy, the cameramen, boxing writers and whatever interest the stunt can arouse among the customers.

This little business not only should attract attention to the Coliseum, who went 15 rounds with the Bomber in February, but also may be Jack's first move toward a return to the ring in a series of exhibitions around the country. He's going to tangle with some one in Atlanta next month for charity, and, after that, his advisors say, anything can happen.

Jack and "uncle Mike" have been something less than Damon and Pythias in their associations recently. Jack has been around the country putting the blast on Mike for "training boxing" in the past few months. Some months back, Jack held a champagne and turkey breakfast in his Eighth avenue restaurant to announce the signing of Red Burman and Bob Pastor for a fight in Detroit, and during the festivities Jack and his associates made it plain that he was the first step toward breaking the Jacobs grip on boxing. Al Mize did that for one was to offer Pastor more money to fight someone else at about the same date. The "cure" took.

Jack was interested in a couple of fighters, Burman and Bill Bost. Each was given a shot in a Madison Square garden and the fistfulful didn't go particularly wild over either, to say the least. So the hopes that one or two other might land a bout with Louis with it's accompanying "cocooning"—go no farther than that. Dempsey's now it's plain that things have taken some kind of a turn. The word is around that Jack's about ready to call the row off. Jacobs explains he "never had a fight with Jack, anyway." But he's not going to feel hurt about Jack's appearance in Godoy's camp because, since it figures to do next week's Louis fight some good. What Jack and Mike should do to put the reunion scene on between bouts in Madison Square garden, during the next fight show.
