

Who'll Be The Hero?

By SAM RAGAN

Going back over the thumb-worn pages of history and here's the star-grabbers for the past seven years: 1933 - Babe Ruth; 1934 - Carl Hubbell; 1935 - Lefty Gomez; 1936—Dizzy Dean; 1937—Lou Gehrig: 1938 — Johnny VanderMeer; 1939—Bob Feller.

Hubbell and Feller will be back *this year, but naming them to repeat the hero act is jumping too RED SOX DEFEAT far. Our guess is that it will be one of these old veterans who is not doing so well this year, or some unknown or fairly mediocre

Seven-Hit Hurling Job Sends Cleveland Back Into The Lead In Circuit

CLEVELAND, July 3-(P)- The Cleveland Indians called upon young Bob Feller today to stop the St. Louis Browns from kicking them around. Feller responded with a seven-hit, 5 to 2 triumph which returned the Indians to the American league lead they lost to Detroit yesterday. It was the 13th triumph of the season for the Kingpin of Cleve. land's casting corps, he shiffed 11 batters and encountered trouble in only the sixth inning. The Browns. who took the series two games to one, tallied both their runs in the sixth on two walks mixed with singles by George McQuinn and Johnny Berardino. The Indians, meanwhile, pecked away at pitcher Bob Harris for 433 ten hits to snap their losing streak 410 of three straight. Home runs smash-379 ed by Ken Keltner and Ray Mack. both with bases empty, paced the Cleveland triumph. Since Detroit lost a slugfest to Chicago, the Tigers dropped back to second place after only a day as leaders. Cleveland and Detroit tangle in a crucial bargain bill at Detroit tomorrow to determine the July 4 leader, which (7-4) and Dickman (4-3).
