

SMOKE RINGS

Third Longest

By SAM RAGAN

Turning the wheel and taking two-bits worth of the red and we wonder if these lengthy ball games staged by the Dodgers and Boston are just coincidence.

At any rate, Brooklyn has won the only game to be won in three of the longest games in baseball history. The Dodgers won 6-2 in 20 innings yesterday. Last year the two teams went 23 innings and called it quits with a 2-2 deadlock. Back in 1920 Boston and Brooklyn set a new record with the longest game in history—26 innings to a 1-1 tie.

Fishing Record

Leut.-Col. George Gillette believes he has set a new fishing record for local waters in the number landed. While holidaying Thursday, the Colonel, Jesse Jones and Douglas Gillette, pulled aboard 164 Spanish mackerel and six blues, not to mention about 100 black and pigfish, in a little over two hours of angling.

The catch was made off New River inlet from Captain Mart Fulcher's boat.

The Colonel had more fish than he could care for, so we were the recipient of as tasty a pair as we've ever encountered.

Aside from Colonel Gillette several other fishermen in the Swansboro, Willis and Tar Landing sections reported nice catches.

Odds and Ends

Note to Cliff Phillips: According to latest reports the Charleston, S. C., and Columbia municipal golf courses are in good condition and adequate for a better than fair game.

Outside of Pinehurst, now closed, Greensboro lays claim to one of the better courses in the state.

Billy Arthur reports that visiting fresh water anglers are finding the fishing much improved in Onslow waters... given a couple of hot weeks and chub and bass are expected to hit in large numbers in Onslow's creeks and rivers, he says.

Yesterday we read with much regret of the death of "Coach John" Caddell, baseball coach at Wake Forest for 15 years until his retirement last year.

During that time he turned out some very good players and captured state titles in 1925, 1932 and 1933.

Among his star pupils were Vic Sorrell and Buddy Lewis... The All-Star baseball game was started seven years ago as a more or less promotional scheme by Arch Ward, sports editor of the Chicago Tribune.

The game was played in connection with the Chicago World's Fair with the proceeds being turned over to the retarded baseball players who need aid.

Today the game is almost as much of an institution as the World Series... The Detroit Tigers have never finished last in the American league.

Buck Newcom, who has won 11 and lost one to date, is expected to start on the mound for the American league in the All-Star game.

Giants Get 17 Hits To Beat Phils, 15-2

NEW YORK, July 5.—The New York Giants partially made up for their stalling in the Dodgers derby by whaling out a 15-2 victory over the Phillies today before a ladies' day crowd of 10,224.

Hugh Mulcahy and Lefty Lloyd Brown of the Phils were touched for 17 blows while Cliff Melton went the route, scattering seven hits for his eighth victory of the season.

The Giants equalled their best previous scoring of the year in the second inning when they tallied eight runs and drove Mulcahy to the showers.

WHITE SOX DEFEAT ST. LOUIS, 10 TO 8

Chicago Wins Fourth Straight Game With 13-Hit Attack On Three Hurlers

CHICAGO, July 5.—(AP)—The Chicago White Sox unloosed a 13 hit attack today to defeat St. Louis 10 to 8, in a slugfest match which gave the Chicago team its fourth straight victory, and three in a row over the Browns.

The Sox assault was made at the expense of Eldon Auker, who was knocked out in the fifth inning. Roxie Lawson and Emil Bidilli.

The Browns made seven hits, including homers by Harlowd Cliff and Walter Judnich, off Johnny Rigney and Pete Appleton. Rigney, who didn't allow a hit in the first four innings, was driven from the mound in the fifth, but Appleton finished up satisfactorily while the White Sox continued their hitting spree.

It was Appleton's third victory of the season.

LEAGUE LEADERS TRIUMPH, 6 TO 2

Four Runs Marked Up In 20th Frame As Two Teams Play Third Longest Game

BOSTON, July 5.—(AP)—It took the league-leading Brooklyn Dodgers 20 innings to subdue the seventh-place Boston Bees today by 6-2.

In a five-hour and 19-minute struggle that ranks as one of the longest games in modern baseball, the durable Dodgers punched across four runs in the twentieth and then blanked the Bees in their half for victory in the longest game in either league this season.

The two teams are not accustomed to playing over-time matches. Last year they went 20 innings to a 2-2 tie and in 1929 they set a major league record for the longest game by struggling through 26 innings to a 1-1 deadlock.

The Dodgers, in winning their sixth straight game, polled 12 hits off four Boston pitchers, while five Dodger hurlers gave up 14 blows.

Newall Kimball got credit for the win, while Joe Sullivan, who put the winning runs on base in the 20th before he was relieved, was charged with the defeat.

Boston scored a run in the first inning, but the Dodgers tied it in the sixth and then went ahead by 2-1 in their half of the ninth, only to have the Bees' Philip Mash punch out a single to score Eddie Miller, with the tying run that same inning.

Boston threatened off, but the Dodgers played brilliantly afield and cut off would-be rallies with three smartly executed double plays.

In the twentieth, Walker singled to center and Jimmy Wasdell, who substituted for Ducky Medwick when the latter had his wrist injured by a pitched ball, sacrificed, and when Joe Sullivan hit him in the back, Walker reached third and Wasdell second.

Brooklyncatcher, second of three Brooklyncatcher to see action, was purposely passed, filling the bases. Dolf Camilli was walked, forcing in Walker.

Joe Gallagher, former Yankee, batted for Charley Gilbert and Leo Durocher decided to run for Mancuso.

Dick Coffman then was called in to relieve Sullivan and Gallagher was safe on Eddie Miller's fumble, and when Joe Sullivan hit him in the back, Walker reached third and Wasdell second.
