WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 14, 194

Tells of Attack in Plane

EIGHT

Rosemary Griffith, 24-year-old airlines hostess, is shown in a hospital at Nashville, Tenn., where she told of being slugged on plane. She was able to give no other information to authorities than that she had swal-lowed key to the mail and baggage compartment rather than give it up

It may be just coincidence, out prospective exemption of married men from proposed conscription has been paralleled by a record rush for marriage licenses in many a U. S. community. Typical of the way many erstwhile confirmed bachelors suddenly took the plunge is this scene in the Brooklyn. N. Y. Mar-riage License Bureau to an assailant who then knocked her unconscious.

Probes "Trust"

Prince Interned

Thurman Arnold

Speaking to reporters in Washing-ton, Thurman Arnold, assistant attorney general, declares his department is pushing its investigation of alleged throttling of ten key de-fense industries by monopolistic pressure. He said the United States is facing a startling inadequacy of production.

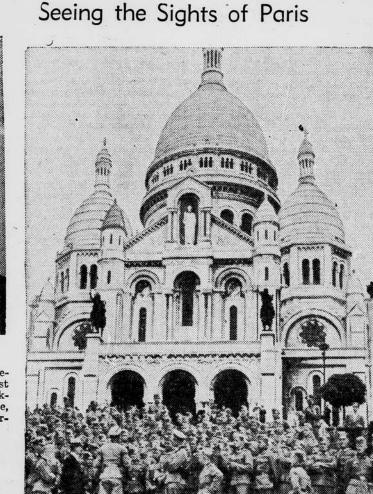

On Rubber Survey

chanical Union, Hugo A. Lundquist is leader of striking airplane work-ers at the Boeing factory in Seattle, Wash. Boeing makes many of Amer-ica's warplanes.

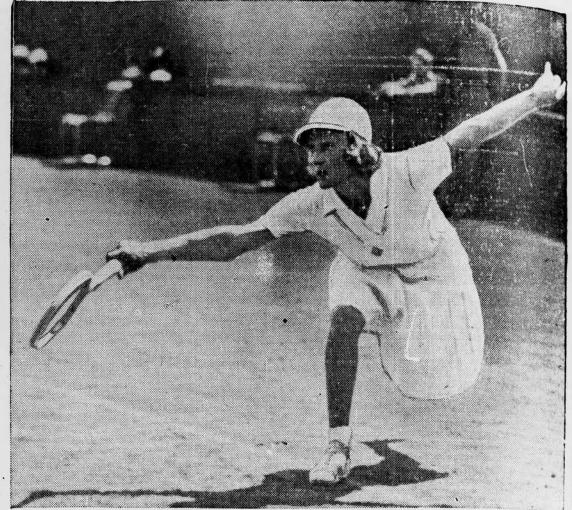

Nazi Envoy's

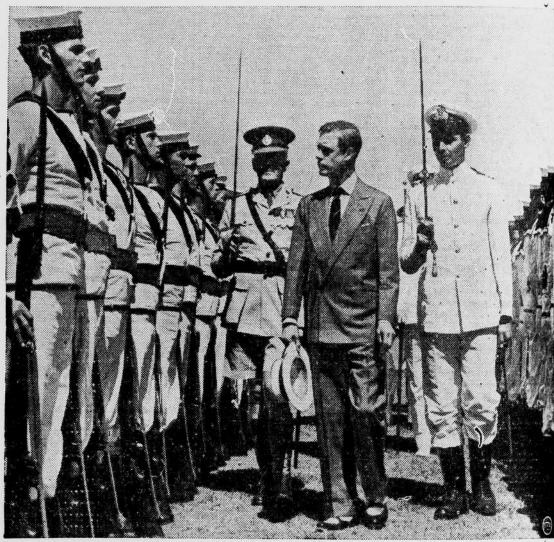

Balanced Power

Arms as straight as a tightrope walker's balancing pole, Helen Jacobs of Berkeley, Cal., achieved this spectacular one-footed, backhand return from the baseline during the women's Eastern grass court singles championship tournament at Rye, N. Y. The former national and world champion won the quarter-final match 6-1, 6-3, from Dorothy Bundy of Santa Monica, Cal.

Bermuda Guard of Honor Welcomes Its Former King

Prince Frederick

President of the Aeronautical Me-Grandson, of the former German kaiser, Prince Frederick, 28, of Prussia, was interned in the Huyton

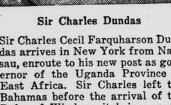

Leads Plane Strike

.

Johnny, Get Your Wife!

Dr. T. D. Mallery

Dr. T. D. Mallery, botanist of the Carnegie Institute, is shown with part of a rubber tree in Washington before leaving for Central America to make a survey of areas most suitable for rubber producing. Congress authorized $500,000 for the survey, seeking to make the Western Hemisphere self-sufficient, if possible.

Sir Charles Cecil Farquharson Dun-das arrives in New York from Nassau, enroute to his new post as governor of the Uganda Province in East Africa. Sir Charles left the Bahamas before the arrival of the Duke of Windsor, it being an old custom that the incoming governor shall not see the outgoing executive

Secrecy - loving Dr. Gerhardt Alois Westrick's first line of de-fense against unwelcome visit-ors to his New York City office was Baroness Irmingard von Wagenheim, above, secretary to the Nazi trade envoy to the U. S. She is a relative by marriage of German Foreign Minister von Ribbentron

In Britain August Means Holidays

Child Mother Coming to U.S.

Suntanned and healthy after his uneventful sea voyage from Lisbon, the Duke of Windsor, center, inspects the guard of honor which greeted him as he recently arrived at Bermuda—the island group he once ruled as Edward VIII, now but a stopover on his way to his new post, Governor of the Bahamas

Commander-in-Chief Inspects Defense

To allow a five-man medical commission to examine her in view of her phenomenally young motherhood, Lina Medina, 6-year-old Peruvian mother, will soon come to Chicago. Above she's pic-tured in Lima, Peru, with her 15-months-old son, Jerry. The doll on the chair is almost as big as the baby

20

"We are really getting into our stride" in our defense program was the verdict of President Roosevelt as he swung on extensive tour of inspection of U. S. defense centers throughout New England Above from the rear seat of the Presidential car, Mr. Roosevelt sees a working model of the new 90-mm anti-aircraft gun at Watertown, Mass., Army arsenal.

Although England's traditional August Holiday was permitted this year only to those engaged in non-essential work, some Britishers found it possible to relax despite momentary threats of bombing. With seaside beaches closed to them, the Thames seemed the next best thing. These holiday-makers at Runnymede, seem unworried by fear of German attack.