The Merry Wives Of Windsor

ONLY MAKE

'EM WEEP!

The Wilminoton Star Published Daily Except Sunday

By The Wilmington Star-News At The Murchison Building R. B. Page, Owner and Publisher Telephone All Departments DIAL 3311

Entered as Second Class Matter at Wilmington, N. C., Postoffice Under Act of Congress of March 3, 1879

SUBSCRIPTION RATES BY CARRIER Payable Weekly or in Advance

1 Week$.20 $.15 3 Months 2.60 1.95 6 Months 5.20 l Year 10.40 7.80 15.60 News rates entitle subscriber to Sunday issue of Star-News

BY MAIL Payable Strictly in Advance

Combina-3 Months 2.00 1 Year 8.00 6.00 News rates entitle subscriber to Sunday issue of Star-News

(Daily Without Sunday)$.50 6 Months$3.00 1 Month 1.50 12 Year 6.00 3 Months (Sunday Only)$.20 6 Months$1.25 3 Months65 1 Year 6.00 Card of Thanks charged for at the rate of 25 cents per line. Count five words to line

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS is entitled to the exclusive use of all new stories appearing in The Wilmington Star WEDNESDAY, SEPTEMBER 11, 1940

Star-News Program

Consolidated City-County Government under Council-Manager Administration. Public Port Terminals.

Perfected Truck and Berry Preserving and Marketing Facilities.

Arena for Sports and Industrial Shows.

Seaside Highway from Wrightsville Beach to Bald Head Island. Extension of City Limits.

35-Foot Cape Fear River channel, wider Turning Basin, with ship lanes into industrial sites along Eastern bank south of Wilmington.

Paved River Road to Southport, via Orton Plantation.

Development of Pulp Wood Production through sustained-yield methods throughout Southeastern North Carolina. Unified Industrial and Resort Promotional Agency, supported by one county-wide tax.

Shipyards and Drydock.

Negro Health Center for Southeastern North Carolina, developed around the Community Hospital.

Adequate hospital facilities for whites. Junior High School.

Tobacco Warehouse for Export Buyers. Development of native grape growing throughout Southeastern North Carolina. Modern Tuberculosis Sanatorium.

TOP O' THE MORNING

Every noble work is at first impossible. CARLYLE

Guard To Mobilize

Adjutant General J. Van B. Metts' order mobilizing the North Carolina National Guard at its home stations on September 16, preparatory to encamping for a year's training, brings to Wilmington the first direct effect of the national defense program. At the same time it stirs a variety of emotions, according to the individual relationship to the order.

Among the men suramoned to service, it is fair to believe that the reaction is a feeling of honor. No militiaman who has worn his military uniform and shouldered his gun in times of unquestioned peace can fail to thrill at the thought that he is to perform valuable service when the nation's peace is threatened. Parents naturally, will feel the honor, too, but it will be tinged with foreboding. They may take comfort in the thought that by yielding up their sons now they are doing their bit to keep war from our shores, for it is in preparedness for war that our national hope of avoidance of war lies. Nevertheless, the handkerchiefs they wave at their departing sons will not be devoid

The business community of Wilmington will be proud to send the boys on their way to camp with an earnest God-speed. It is generally understood that employers are to save the positions their guard-employes leave for them when they return. There should be no exception to this rule. Surely the boy who willingly goes into training to be ready to preserve his employer's business from a foreign foe is entitled to his employer's favor, at least to the extent of having his job back when the emergency passes. If Wilmington business houses declare a moratorium on guardsmen's debts, contracted in honorable transactions, they will further fulfill their obvious duty. Clubs have Judge W. H. S. Burgwyn launched by instruct- chotherapy. already relieved their guardsmen members of ing the grand jury to investigate conditions obligations for dues and other assessments. and recommend remedial measures, even if Private business should do no less.

With the National Guard gone, the American up the bad situation, is an important moveleighth grade.—Prof. Goodwin Watson, Colum-Legion and other veteran organizations must ment, not only because moral filth is always a bia. take over as a home guard. The job can be menace to any community but because Wilthe better done if all able-bodied veterans are mington has too vital a duty to perform in the mustered in. The Legion is in the midst of a national emergency to allow a canker to remembership campaign, that it may be fitted main in its midst. to meet its obligations with par performance. If the non-member veterans have a proper to its proper limits, there must be moral and sense of their duty, they will see that the Wil- spiritual no less than military rearmament. mington post's roster is 100 per cent complete The minds of the people must be trained to the day the National Guard entrains for camp. function for security. There must be mobili- Survey Graphic

School Opens

Some increase in enrollment was noted at New Hanover county schools on opening day, over the 1939 opening, with attendance in the elementary grades falling behind and the gains made in the first grade and in high school. The lag in the one group of grades is not fully accounted for, and, in fact, may not long exist. Many youngsters in rural school districts may not have been able to attend on opening day because of home duties-schedules are not well maintained sometimes in the back country-and it may take some time to get the Star News tion youngsters off to school. Before many weeks pass attendance in these grades may top last year's.

The encouraging fact is that general school attendance is up. The cruel situation of the world at large and America's military problems have had no perceptible effect on the educational system in this county or elsewhere Star News tion in the country. This year there will be 32,-285,000 pupils in class rooms. According to federal educational authorities, 21,000,000 children will attend elementary schools; 7,160,000 high school; 1,425,000,000 colleges and universities, and 1,950,000 children and adults will go to night school or take part-time training. In addition, 50,000 persons will take special trade training, 75,000 training in nursing, and 75,000 will attend business colleges.

> As far as America is concerned war and threats of war will not interrupt school courses this year. In fact, the warlike conditions will be an aid to education in the United States in that they will stimulate more intensive study of Americanism, of democracy—what it stands for and the duties it imposes-and the finer things of life Americans have enjoyed because of their freedom.

The Road Situation

New Hanover county's secondary roads have ong been neglected and are now in such bad shape that rural residents bitterly complain of the disregard of the state highway commission for protests and appeals for improvement tive argument against this was put forward by they have made at Raleigh.

The situation was brought to the attention of the county board at its Monday's meeting in the hope that the echo of the proceedings then may penetrate to the offices of the state highway authorities in the capital and bring corrective action.

The county board is powerless to act but it is possible that it may be able to bring sufficient pressure to bear at the capital to get something done to improve the county's minor, but still important, roads.

The people of Summer Hill, Buena Vista Seagate and Masonboro are justified in demanding that the state highway commission give them better roads. They deserve the support of the people of Wilmington, no less than of the county board, inasmuch as Wilmingtonians use the roads quite as much as residents of these districts

Perhaps a united appeal, backed by the that it might. It will be worth trying at least. If it fails, an appeal to the governor, setting forth the reason for complaint and indicating the definite need for improvement, will be in

Poor Carol

Former King Carol's search for an asylum is not particularly interesting in itself, but one sidelight cannot fail to interest the rank and file of Americans.

Facing almost certain refusal from France. the errant Rumanian is said to have concluded that he could not live in the style to which he is accustomed in the United States on the income he has been granted by the nation he was so successful in bringing to the verge of ruin and complete dismemberment. That places the blame for the Nazi revolution and amount, though not officially revealed, is understood to be $60,000 a year.

Many Americans are managing to get along don't know the style he is accustomed to, of could be made to maintain quite an outfit, even for such a spendthrift as Carol.

Thousands of good American families are yearly incomes maintain many a home in humble comfort and two thousand is wealth. since the depression. Heads of families blessed that United States membership in the League with larger incomes are able to set aside a little surplus for investment.

But maybe, Carol has no idea of thrift. Cer tainly he showed no sense of this fine American attribute, either in Paris during his former abdication, or as ruler of his nation whose resources he did so much to dissipate. declare that America accepted responsibility Jack Benny movies. You'll see touching hands to floor. You must shot-gun. When he came back they could. Perhaps they would be they would Besides, paramours are expensive luxuries. It is just as well that Carol turns from the United States as a possibly asylum. He would not find a cordial welcome here.

The Vice Crusade

The campaign on vice in Wilmington, which it requires the services of state aides to clean

If this nation is to carry its defense program of Wall Street.

zation for right living, as well as mobilization of industry, of troops, airplanes, tanks, munitions and guns. The two efforts must move side by side, if we are to place ourselves in a position to ward off national disaster.

Moral softness, spiritual indifference, are blamed as much as military weakness for the collapse of France. Unless we are willing to share France's fate, we must avoid France's

Judge Burgwyn put his finger one of those blunders when he pointed out to the grand jury that immorality is not under control in Wilmington. In correcting this, Wilmington will prove its right to serve the na- mysterious lights appear. There i tion it did so much to create in its present a legend among the Indians great emergency.

Editorial Comments From Other Angles

MR. WADSWORTH STANDS FIRM (N. Y.) Herald Tribune

It was typical of Congressman James W. Wadsworth Jr., to say of the Fish amendment Don't lie now." to delay the putting into force of the Burke-Wadsworth bill that "it only throws a monkey But I know plenty of people who wrench into the entire program.' Mr. Wads- have. The government even has worth is one of those few Republicans in Con- of scientists in the south have gress who have consistently worked for a made studies of them. They're sound military policy, and who, in the present some sort of phenomena, but they emergency, have put party politics behind don't really mean that somebody them and fought for what they believe to be just one light; and sometimes the best interests of the country. On neither they come in clusters. It's a very count is Mr. Fish his peer. In fact, just as it funny thing." is in keeping with Mr. Wadsworth's record to rise above politics in matters of defense, so Mr. Fish has consistently taken the narrowest you know any mystery writers, partisan view on every question. His record of putting himself on the wrong side is almost Here is a tall (well over six feet).

have preferred Mr. Fish's temporizing measure, delaying the effectiveness of the selective service law for two months while authorizing the President during this period to push the drive for recruiting. The avowed purpose is to permit the voluntary enlistment system to be given a "thorough test" before the drafting of young men is resorted to. The most effective seems to have preferred means the seems to speaks with a softly flowing North Carolina drawl. He has knocked about the south, middle west, and the metropolitan district as a newspaperman for twenty years. This is his first book.

"I wrote most of it in an apart." of young men is resorted to. The most effec-Mr. Wadsworth when he said: "The alarming tendency of the young men of today is that the volunteer idea, the belief that others will volunteer to acquire the military training necessary to afford the country a sufficient amount of trained soldiers to defend it in case of need, has relieved those who do not volunteer from any sense of responsibility what-

Mr. Wadsworth used these words not in the present Congress, but speaking in December, 1916. In April, 1917, he said on the floor of the Senate that he did not think it was possible to get 500,000 men by volunteering without letting down the bars of efficiency, and added that "the burdens of this war should fall equally on everybody capable of bearing that burden. We should be fair and democratic in this ideal of service, but we should so contrive our defensive system that it would be employed in the most efficient way. That is why we advocate selective draft-selection of the best material for the particular duty." Because Mr. Wadsworth at that time spoke so soundly on military policy, and because, after the last war, he endeavored to have put power of the county board and the support of into the military bill of 1920 a provision for legislators, could turn the trick and bring selective service, his opinion on this subject deserves special consideration. To the credit self, was a mystery novel read crews for repair and maintenance work on these roads. There is no assurance, of course, that it would. But there is a chance that it would. But there is a chance that it will be worth trying at least to men read mystery stories—Win deserves special consideration. To the credit of the credit of the House be it said that when, on Wednesday, he spoke in behalf of the Burke-Wads worth bill—before Mr. Fish had brought for the trying at least word his enfeebling amendment—he was greet. ward his enfeebling amendment—he was greeted with applause from both sides, and when he had finished his plea for prompt action the House rose in tribute to him. His speech had the strength of candor—the frank admission that a year ago he had not fully realized the dangers that lay ahead of us as a result of el, but that, come midnight, we eral pewspapers, as a possible oppothe war, but that with the invasion of the Low were a cinch to get started on the nent for Senator Reynolds when his Countries and the destruction of France he saw the light. This is why he took up the cudgels for the selective-service bill that bears his name. In pushing it despite the opposition of many Republicans he has shown that same courage and independence which has been characteristic of his long career of public service. In this present instance he is doubly right and Mr. Fish is, if possible, doubly wrong.

NOW WE MUST PAY (The Asheville Times)

President Butler of Columbia University the world disaster it has created on smallminded men in Washington and their shocking disregard of moral and political obligation."

In other words, having helped to win the very comfortably on smaller incomes. We first World war, America would not aid in winning the right stort of peace-indeed refused course, but we suspect that $60,000 a year to accept any responsibility for any sort of Johnson, and Democratic James agents in that some others were the prime agents in that some others were the prime agents in that through a dance number.

Each girl is assigned a weight foreigners had got out of their ing Bill had was mat the liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty, and life he lived—work that he liked beyond which she must not go on plane and begun to act nasty. great and fatal rejection of moral and politidoing well on $60 a month. For many $100 cal responsibility for the kind of world the mentor, Miss Merriel Abbott, pain of a fine. Weigh-in day is pretty soon Bill could tell that the sun and talk by night best paychecks represent luxury. Thousand-dollar America of 1940 might have to live in, perroutine designed for slightly mod thou places. The radio the stove, trading ideas on running that they meant business. The radio the stove, trading ideas on running the stove to live in, perroutine designed for slightly mod thou places. haps wage war in.

A skeptic may interpose that such condem-A skeptic may interpose that statistically selves out spectacularly. The girls, nation takes a long jump to the assumption nine of 'em, were doing a control of they could be statistically selves out spectacularly. The girls, day they must be on the scales at man said they had killed off most gered by men who, if they could be statistically selves out spectacularly. of Nations would have guaranteed a juster live-and-let-live order of affairs in Europe.

Dr. Butler and those who believe with him that no nation liveth unto itself do not have to defend that speculative assertion concerning American influence as an adherent of the League. Dr. Butler need go no farther than to in large degree for the world's peace and welfare, but put her hand to the plow and then len piece, "Love Thy Neighbor," turned back after Versailles, attempting to absolve herself of all the high obligations al-

QUOTATIONS

When a man is so ill as to believe he is ill when he is not ill, he is very ill indeed.-English psychologist in a recent book on psy-

Those who have carried on into graduate fortably without working," study include 10 times as large a proportion of Miss Abbott, a nice-looking matronradicals as those who have barely finished the ly type with steel-gray hair. "My

I have my doubt whether Trotsky was murdered in Mexico at the instigation of Stalin, as thought of giving it up, but I can't is widely assumed. The Nazis could have wished it.—Charles Benedict, in the Magazine power of freedom. — Frank Kingdon in the survey Graphic —— Survey

Man About Manhattan

NEW YORK Sept. 23 - When Andy Anderson got ready to write that murder novel of his, "Kill One, Kill Two," he went tack to the Blue Ridge section of his boyhood North Carolina for a back drop. In the book there is a mountain on which, at various times who inhabit the region that these lights mean death. When they appear, someone is certain to die. We asked Andy if there really is such a mountain in North Caro-

"Yes, sir," he replied, "in the Linville section, near Asheville.
Only, we call it Brown mountain. I've heard about the Brown mountain lights all my life." "Did you ever see them, Andy?

"No," he admitted, "I never did. investigated them. And a number

Funny isn't the word for it. If Unfortunately, Congress this time seems to extraordinarily thin young man > ment on 14th street between 5th avenue and Union Square, and if you don't think that is a peculiar environment for a murder mystery you don't know what it means to hear Communist brawls, shills screaming insults at taxidrivers, and shoe-string salesmen squabbling with the cops. It's Coney Island and Hell's Kitchen vrapped around Sugar Hill, with blob of the Bowery thrown in 'Finally I went out to Jackson Heights and finished the thing in comparative peace. But nobody wanted it. One night we ran out of tally sheets during a hot bridge game and I kicked over the manuscript, looking for some extra paper. Sitting in the game was a iterary agent. He said, 'What is that thing?" Which was a superlative question, as anybody who has ever seen a manuscript can tell one a mile. The upshot of this was he took the manuscript. Twenty-four hours later it had questioned about reports that he been submitted, and accepted."

We also asked Andy if he, him-Churchill, President Rooseston velt, Henry Ford. . . . Don't you?' We told him that, strange as it nor." may seem, we never had read an Hoey has been mentioned here, out-and-out modern mystery nov- and in newspaper editorials in sevright track, as a copy, neatly au-term expires. was even then under our arm and governor remarked that he had we were all set to get going.

WILL OPEN BRIDGE WINSTON-SALEM, Sept. 10 .- (R)

HOEY TO RETURN

TO LAW PRACTICE

Laughs When Questioned About Reports That He Will Enter Senate Race

RALEIGH, Sept. 10 .- (AP)-Governor Hoey plans to return to the practice of law in his home town, Shelby, when he leaves office at the end of this year, he revealed today. The chief executive who was 62 last December, only laughed when would run against U. S. Senator Robert R. Revnolds in 1944. "Four years is a long time," the

"Right now I'm concerned with

Discussing his tenure of office, the grown slightly greyer and had added 10 to 20 pounds to his weight since he too office in January, 1937. "I normally weighed about 165

-A new temporary bridge over pounds before I took office," he the Yadkin River between Winston- said, "but my weight is now between Salem and Mocksville, erected to 175 and 180. I was slim-six feet replace one washed out in the and one inch tall - and 15 or 20 flood last month, will be opened pounds is right much to add. Howto traffic at noon tomorrow, state ever, practically the only people who highway officials announced to notice it are those who haven't seen 3 me in several years."

Hollywood Sights And Sounds

By Robbin Goons-

HOLLYWOOD, Sept. 10. - The and she takes care of them just mean-looking strangers had land-fend for himself. We know from European peace. And Senator Lodge, Borah, girls in the blue flannel shorts and as they would be looked after in ed an airplane on the flat meadow what Bill did that he said nothing Johnson, and Democratic James Reed and neat striped sweaters were going their good Chicago homes.

one of their specialties. plain likes dancing.

"My girls—I mean most of them Broadway plays. -could live at home very comexcept that we all love it. I've -like it too much."

ter-mother" of all the girls, whose ballroom steps her pupils undertake.

ter-mother of all the girls, whose ballroom steps her pupils underwhere he found John Parker, Bob routine designed for slightly mad they please and what they please pretty soon Bill could tell that the government with Jim Anderson who wish to be sold the government with Jim Anderson who wish to be sold the government with Jim Anderson who wish to be sold to be persons who wish to knock them during the week, but come Thurs- they meant business. The radio and Wyatt Fenity - was endanged the week, but come Thursnine of 'em, were doing a conga the prescribed weight. When any of the state police that had showed would tell him what he should be affected by the state police that had showed would tell him what he should be affected by the state police that had showed would be affected by the state police that had showed would be a state police that had showed would be also be a state police that had showed would be affair embellished by "splits" and girl protests about a enalty for a up, and the governor was calling work at and what he should "aerials" and other contortions mere three or four pounds, Miss the militia. and when they landed resounding- Abbott hands the rebel a fourly on the floor, all together, it pound sack of sugar and com- Jim Anderson and that nice wife of hurt. Me, not them. They just mands, "Now let me see you do his lived up on the Wilson farm. athan did the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on done in a carried and that the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on done in a carried and the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on done in a carried and the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on done in a carried and the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on done in a carried and the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on done in a carried and the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on done in a carried and the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on done in a carried and the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on done in a carried and the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on the wise of the carried and the wisest thing possible hounced up and kept on the wise of the carried and the carried and the carried and the wise of the carried and the c bounced up and kept on dancing. an aerial carrying this sack." (An So did the Wyatt Fenitys and their under the circumstances. You've seen them before, these "aerial" is a terpsichorean stunt, two bright kids. Bill went out to had no experts to tell them will be the before, these "aerial" is a terpsichorean stunt, two bright kids. Bill went out to had no experts to tell them will be the before, these "aerial" is a terpsichorean stunt, two bright kids. Merriel Abbott Dancers, in the like a handspring don without the woodshed and took down his to do, and so they just did the best lack Benny movies. You'll see them again in the Benny-Fred Al- try it some time, heh, heh!)

wherein this conga number will be Many of the girls have been in the Abbott school in Chicago since The Abbott Dancers don't have childhood. There's Jean Guest, to dance. They're taught dancing who vas four when she enrolled, by a woman who doesn't have to and Valerie Thon, who was seven. teach dancing, either. They dance, Aside from the salaries they earn, and Miss Abbott teaches dancing, they get travel. Miss Abbott has because the whole she-bang just taken treves to Europe and South America and had them in several

She herself used to be a kinderhusband is a successful orthopedic stage. By the time Miss Abbott good reason. surgeon in Chicago. So there's declared her independence she really no reason for our working thought it was too late for her to dance professionally so she did the next best thing-took up dance in- foreign soldiers were marching struction.

Miss Abbott is the touring 'fos- the acrobatic, aerial, ballet and and walked out to the village green

OUR COUNTRY

He's A Hero To Carl Carmer

Second of 24 articles on "Our country," written exclusively for NEA Service and The Wilmington Morning Star by the nation's most

By CARL CARMER
Author of "Deep South," "Stars Fell on Alabama," "The Hudson," etc. "The Wilson Farm at Grovers Mill was mistaken for the Wil-

Mrs. James Anderson . . . switched over to Orson Welles' program and heard the 'bulletins' on what was happening right in their own back yard . . . Mr. and Mrs. Wyatt Fenity and their two children, who also live on the farm, were in hed asleep . . . William Dock, 76-year-old resident of Grover's Mill, heard it and got out his shot-gun."

Old Bill Dock had had a pretty *- hard day for late fall.

supper and rest of the door. ed easy by the radio. He was make is that none of Jonathan Har listening to some rington's companions of the fateful music when he morning on Lexington village dozed off. When green ever attested that Jonatha you're 76 it's had said to the man who had to fall waked him: "Mr. Revere, this Bill couldn't imperialistic moneygrubbers who Study by Arni waked him. One record of his having said, when fellows was hot about something, on the Wilson farm, that Jim's a At first it was hard for Bill to get cestors had established a greet the drift of it but when he did he empire that was no better than jumped up quick enough. Some that's part of the Wilson farm. The to himself. Perhaps the main fee

Bill didn't hesitate after that, his mind any more. through the house he opened the have acted more wisely if they pantry cupboard, found a couple of had considered sending beef or bulleten boxes of shells, and stuffed them lets to help their neighbors defend in his pants pockets. Then he thmselfes. went out the back door and started to be left to men of experience across the fields toward the Wilson such things. farm.

A lot of folks made fun of Bill that autumn evening that the spirit the next day. They laughed at him of Jonathan Harrington still lived for having been taken in by a playactor pretending to be a newsbroadcaster. But Bill Dock has proved there are certain values been one of my heroes ever since that are not questioned by men of garten teacher, with a suppressed that October night. I couple his good will—the values of home and desire for the dance. Her parents desire for the dance. Her parents name in my memory with that of friendship and a free democratic thought no decent girl went on the Jonathan Harrington and for a life.

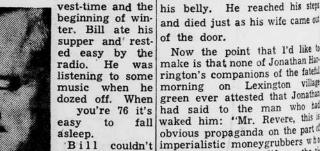

Jonathan was also asleep one night when he heard an excited voice on the air. It said a thousand down the road to town, and Jona-She still dances, though not all than got up and took his musket

Old Bill Dock---And Why, Like Jonathan Harrington,

muth farm' of the play. Two of the three tenant families on the farm were at home when the false alarm spread. Mr. and was on the night he set out for the There's a lot to do at Grover's Wilson farm) crawled back home Mill in middle Jersey between har- across the grass with a bullet in have slept very would sacrifice my life on the long before an tar of self interest.' excited voice of those news started out to help Jim Anderson should be, and therefore Jim could and who wouldn't let him spea I'm not saying that Bill and Jon That question ought and died just as his wife came out

From the New York Herald-Tribune for Oct. 31, 1938.

Now the point that I'd like obvious propaganda on the part

And as for Bill Dock there is

But Bill Dock told the world of In an age of the questioning most accepted values Bill Doc

Fighting among ourselves is one proof that we are not degenerate, writes John Steinbeck in the next article of this series on "Our Country."

According to reports, the English Ministry of Transport rigidly en-